Novice Raiders march into playoffs

The Georgetown Referee's Association Novice II Raiders ended their regular season schedule on a positive note as they traveled to Arthur and came away with a well earned point after tying up the locals 8-8.

The last two regular season games saw the Raiders pump in 12 goals in a home and home contest against Arthur.

Leading the way in Arthur was Colin Chandler who chipped in four goals in a great display of finesse around the net. Adding markers for the Raiders were A.J. Syme with a pair, and single tallies going to Chad Mercer and Daniel Rankin. Helping out with assists were Eric Davis (3), Matt Kent, Nick Hulme, Mercer, Rankin, Matt Turner and Corey Durham.

The Raiders are now playing the waiting game as they prepare for the play-offs. The coaches are optimistic that the Raiders play can carry over into the next round of playoffs.

Georgetown women have strong tourney

The Georgetown Gemini

Rachel Baines and Vereena Varga, first year competitive players, are the highlight of this past week. The girls entered the prestigious Power Point Open as a duo and met some of the top ranked women players in the national standings. They only lost one match all day and that was to the number one ranked team in final. It was a great showing in their first 'big' tournament.

Second and Third place Grillers and Brew Crew, from Brackys, met in the match of the week in last Monday's Halton League. Grillers are made up of some former Brew Crew, Tapsters and Legion players and have made an impressive beginning as a first year team. The match was close throughout. The four player teams sets were tied followed by single wins going first one way, then the other until Brew Crew took the last two sets from a two set league. The four doubles sets were tied leaving Brew Crew with an 8-6 win. The result coupled with Legion One's 11-3 defeat of Royal Pizza One, dropped Grillers to third, Brew Crew to fourth and Legion moved into second place. Meanwhile Charleys keeps rolling towards the end with a 10-4 win over Legion Three. Fifth place Legion Two made 11-2 over Brackys Tapsters, sixth place Royal Pizza Two won 11-3 over McGibbon One and Brackys Fat Bunch in seventh spot defeated Pattys One by 8-6, with McGibbon Two winning by a score of 9-5 at Pattys Two.
