No answers on Trafalgar work

Halton councillors and Halton North MPP Ted Chudleigh have added their names to a request that the Minister of Transportation confirm that he intends to proceed with the proposed reconstruction of Trafalgar Road from just west of Queen's Park. Last week Bonnette reported that both the Region and Chudleigh also want confirmation that the $5 million highway improvements would proceed. So far, there's been no answer.

Several weeks ago Acton Councillor Rick Bonnette suggested the Town try to get confirmation that the project would go ahead in light of major changes occurring at
