Musing with Cupid. Go tell her now the story old, Go whisper these golden tidings, Go, Cupid dove, transmit my love, Nor bring me gentle chidings.

Nothing can be worse for a child than to be frightened. The effect of the scare is slow to recover from; it remains sometimes until maturity, as is shown by many instances of morbid sensitiveness and excessive nervousness.

Badly Sold. "Dad," said a hopeful spirit, "how many fowls are there on the table?"

"Why," said the old gentleman, as he looked complacently on a pair of finely roasted chickens, that were smoking on the dinner table.

"There," said the old gentleman, who was a plain matter-of-fact man, and understood things as he saw them; "I'd like to see you prove that."

A FATHER SABOTS HIS SON.—On the eighth instant, The Hon. senr. of Paisley, went to the house of his son, John Rae, in Saugren, about two in the afternoon, when he met the latter driving a load of stone, apparently toward the village.

FACTS WORTH REMEMBERING.—One thousand shingles laid four inches to the weather will cover one hundred square feet of surface, and five pounds of shingle nails will fasten them on.

How to Keep Meat Fresh a Long Time. There is no good reason why farmers and their families should eat so much salt pork, leaving all the fresh meat to the inhabitants of cities, towns and villages, when the following method will keep meat fresh for weeks, even in the warmest weather.

A Matrimonial Creed.

Whoever will be married, before all things, is necessary that he hold the conjugal faith, and the conjugal faith is that there were two rational beings created, both equal, and yet one superior to the other.

The man is superior to the woman, and the woman is inferior to the man, yet both are equal, and the woman will govern the man.

Yet there is not two obedient, but one obedient. The man is one dominant nominal real of the wife, and yet there are not two dominions, but one dominion.

Further, it is necessary to submissive matrimony that he also live faithfully in the infidelity of the wife.

Who, though she be fallible and infallible, yet she is not two but one woman, who submitted to lawful marriage, and promised religiously to obey, that she might rule in folly and in justice.

Who, though she be fallible and infallible, yet she is not two but one woman, who submitted to lawful marriage, and promised religiously to obey, that she might rule in folly and in justice.

Gems of Thought.

Life is made up not of great sacrifices or virtues, but of little things, in which smiles and kindness and small obligations given habitually are what will preserve the heart and secure content.
