

THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

TRANS.—One dollar a year, in advance, for the Acton Free Press, published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. Single copies, five cents. For advertising, apply to the Editor.

THE OLD PLAY HOUSE.

In a play, I strove to give you a picture of the old play house, as it was in the days of its glory. I have not had time to do more than sketch the outlines of the building, and to give you a few lines of its history.

Doyle's New Motion Picture.

In view of the publication in the Acton Free Press of the article on the motion picture, I have had the pleasure of receiving from Mr. Doyle a copy of his new motion picture, which is a most interesting and valuable work.

What the "Freedom of a City" Means.

At a meeting of the Acton Free Press, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Acton Free Press be authorized to publish a series of articles on the subject of the "Freedom of a City."

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

In an interview with a correspondent, Mr. Keely is reported as having said that his new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

After many years, the Acton Free Press has been able to publish a complete and accurate account of the life and career of the late Mr. John Doe, who was one of the most prominent citizens of the town.

A Hint to a Cheat.

Passing through a market, a Quaker stopped at a stall and inquired the price of some fruit. "I have, sir," said the honest salesman, "that will suit you; my fruit is not East-Inde this morning."

A Quoloph Boy Killed in Peel.

We very much regret to announce an accident which occurred in the township of Peel on Monday, the 20th inst. Frederick Taylor, aged ten years, son of Mr. Richard Taylor, of Quoloph, lost his life.

ACTON BAKERY.

The subscriber begs to inform the friends of Acton and vicinity that he has prepared to supply the town with the best quality of bread, cakes, and biscuits, at the lowest possible prices.

THE EMPORIUM.

Don't fail to visit the Emporium. The assortment of goods is complete, and the prices are very low. We have a large stock of all the latest fashions in clothing, hats, and shoes.

R. OREECH, ACTON.

Wholesale Manufacturer of COLLARS, SADDLES, HARNESS, TRUNKS, VALISES, TRAVELLING BAGS, HORSE CLOTHING, WHIPS, COMBS, AND BRUSHES. Also, General Groceries, Boots and Shoes, Wall Paper, Window Blinds, Crockery, Glassware, Nails, Glass, Putty, Linseed Oil, Raw & Refined, Paints, Turpentine, Machine Oil, Coal Oil, Salt, etc.

C. T. HILL, MILL STREET, ACTON.

Wholesale Manufacturer of COLLARS, SADDLES, HARNESS, TRUNKS, VALISES, TRAVELLING BAGS, HORSE CLOTHING, WHIPS, COMBS, AND BRUSHES. Also, General Groceries, Boots and Shoes, Wall Paper, Window Blinds, Crockery, Glassware, Nails, Glass, Putty, Linseed Oil, Raw & Refined, Paints, Turpentine, Machine Oil, Coal Oil, Salt, etc.

THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

TRANS.—One dollar a year, in advance, for the Acton Free Press, published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. Single copies, five cents. For advertising, apply to the Editor.

THE OLD PLAY HOUSE.

In a play, I strove to give you a picture of the old play house, as it was in the days of its glory. I have not had time to do more than sketch the outlines of the building, and to give you a few lines of its history.

Doyle's New Motion Picture.

In view of the publication in the Acton Free Press of the article on the motion picture, I have had the pleasure of receiving from Mr. Doyle a copy of his new motion picture, which is a most interesting and valuable work.

What the "Freedom of a City" Means.

At a meeting of the Acton Free Press, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Acton Free Press be authorized to publish a series of articles on the subject of the "Freedom of a City."

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

In an interview with a correspondent, Mr. Keely is reported as having said that his new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

TRANS.—One dollar a year, in advance, for the Acton Free Press, published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. Single copies, five cents. For advertising, apply to the Editor.

THE OLD PLAY HOUSE.

In a play, I strove to give you a picture of the old play house, as it was in the days of its glory. I have not had time to do more than sketch the outlines of the building, and to give you a few lines of its history.

Doyle's New Motion Picture.

In view of the publication in the Acton Free Press of the article on the motion picture, I have had the pleasure of receiving from Mr. Doyle a copy of his new motion picture, which is a most interesting and valuable work.

What the "Freedom of a City" Means.

At a meeting of the Acton Free Press, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Acton Free Press be authorized to publish a series of articles on the subject of the "Freedom of a City."

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

In an interview with a correspondent, Mr. Keely is reported as having said that his new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

TRANS.—One dollar a year, in advance, for the Acton Free Press, published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. Single copies, five cents. For advertising, apply to the Editor.

THE OLD PLAY HOUSE.

In a play, I strove to give you a picture of the old play house, as it was in the days of its glory. I have not had time to do more than sketch the outlines of the building, and to give you a few lines of its history.

Doyle's New Motion Picture.

In view of the publication in the Acton Free Press of the article on the motion picture, I have had the pleasure of receiving from Mr. Doyle a copy of his new motion picture, which is a most interesting and valuable work.

What the "Freedom of a City" Means.

At a meeting of the Acton Free Press, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Acton Free Press be authorized to publish a series of articles on the subject of the "Freedom of a City."

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

In an interview with a correspondent, Mr. Keely is reported as having said that his new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

TRANS.—One dollar a year, in advance, for the Acton Free Press, published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. Single copies, five cents. For advertising, apply to the Editor.

THE OLD PLAY HOUSE.

In a play, I strove to give you a picture of the old play house, as it was in the days of its glory. I have not had time to do more than sketch the outlines of the building, and to give you a few lines of its history.

Doyle's New Motion Picture.

In view of the publication in the Acton Free Press of the article on the motion picture, I have had the pleasure of receiving from Mr. Doyle a copy of his new motion picture, which is a most interesting and valuable work.

What the "Freedom of a City" Means.

At a meeting of the Acton Free Press, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Acton Free Press be authorized to publish a series of articles on the subject of the "Freedom of a City."

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

In an interview with a correspondent, Mr. Keely is reported as having said that his new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

TRANS.—One dollar a year, in advance, for the Acton Free Press, published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. Single copies, five cents. For advertising, apply to the Editor.

THE OLD PLAY HOUSE.

In a play, I strove to give you a picture of the old play house, as it was in the days of its glory. I have not had time to do more than sketch the outlines of the building, and to give you a few lines of its history.

Doyle's New Motion Picture.

In view of the publication in the Acton Free Press of the article on the motion picture, I have had the pleasure of receiving from Mr. Doyle a copy of his new motion picture, which is a most interesting and valuable work.

What the "Freedom of a City" Means.

At a meeting of the Acton Free Press, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Acton Free Press be authorized to publish a series of articles on the subject of the "Freedom of a City."

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

In an interview with a correspondent, Mr. Keely is reported as having said that his new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

TRANS.—One dollar a year, in advance, for the Acton Free Press, published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. Single copies, five cents. For advertising, apply to the Editor.

THE OLD PLAY HOUSE.

In a play, I strove to give you a picture of the old play house, as it was in the days of its glory. I have not had time to do more than sketch the outlines of the building, and to give you a few lines of its history.

Doyle's New Motion Picture.

In view of the publication in the Acton Free Press of the article on the motion picture, I have had the pleasure of receiving from Mr. Doyle a copy of his new motion picture, which is a most interesting and valuable work.

What the "Freedom of a City" Means.

At a meeting of the Acton Free Press, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Acton Free Press be authorized to publish a series of articles on the subject of the "Freedom of a City."

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

In an interview with a correspondent, Mr. Keely is reported as having said that his new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

TRANS.—One dollar a year, in advance, for the Acton Free Press, published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. Single copies, five cents. For advertising, apply to the Editor.

THE OLD PLAY HOUSE.

In a play, I strove to give you a picture of the old play house, as it was in the days of its glory. I have not had time to do more than sketch the outlines of the building, and to give you a few lines of its history.

Doyle's New Motion Picture.

In view of the publication in the Acton Free Press of the article on the motion picture, I have had the pleasure of receiving from Mr. Doyle a copy of his new motion picture, which is a most interesting and valuable work.

What the "Freedom of a City" Means.

At a meeting of the Acton Free Press, held on the 15th inst., the following resolutions were adopted: That the Acton Free Press be authorized to publish a series of articles on the subject of the "Freedom of a City."

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

In an interview with a correspondent, Mr. Keely is reported as having said that his new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.

Mr. Keely's New Invention.

Mr. Keely's new invention, the "Keely Water," is a most valuable and useful article, and that it is now being prepared for the market. It is said to be a most effective remedy for a variety of ailments, and is highly recommended by the medical profession.