Table with 2 columns: Train Name, Time. Includes Morning Mail, Day Express, Night Express, etc.

LOCAL NEWS.—We shall be glad, at all times, to receive items of local news, such as special church services, meetings of churches or other societies, accidents, or any incident which may be interesting either in this locality or to the country generally.

LOCAL MATTERS.

—We expect the new Printing Office, adjoining Mr. Matthews store, will be ready for moving into in a few days.

Mr. Morrow, Druggist, has removed to more convenient quarters, on Mill Street a few doors below the post office.

The many friends of Mr. W. H. Storey, will be glad to learn that he has so far recovered from his long illness as to be again at his place of business.

The party who was seen taking the well and the rain from off a light harness while a sale was in progress on the farm of Mr. Samuel Moore, on the evening of Oct. 25th, will save trouble and expense, by leaving them in some convenient place where the owner can get them.

The news of the result of the election on Tuesday evening caused many of Mr. Lyon's friends here to wax impatient. Wax candles were in brisk demand for illumination, and old boxes and barrels were waxed around pretty freely to build a bonfire with.

St. Alban's Church, Acton. On Sunday next, Nov. 7, Evening Service will be resumed in this church and held at 6:30 p.m., until further notice.

Walker Lodge No. 374. The regular meeting of the above Lodge will be held next Monday evening, in the Masonic Hall, at 7 o'clock.

Acton Fair. There was quite a large attendance at the Monthly Fair yesterday, and we understand a good many cattle changed hands at fair prices.

DIARY CALL.

Second Brook, having become tired of the monotony of paying interest on the wheat in many farmers' barns, have decided to make things lively about the next Census, and will place some one hundred accounts in C. B. Cur for collection. These accounts range from one to a hundred dollars each.

The Indianapolis Journal of a recent date says:—A terrible sequel to an hour's amusement telling ghost stories occurred at the Surgical Institute last night. A room full of young ladies, patients of the Institute, amused and excited each other by stories of terrific apparitions, hobgoblins, ghosts, etc. The girls had been turned out, either intentionally or by accident. In the climax of a vivid story one of the girls threw a shawl over a trembling comrade. A little rattle and strange conduct was noticed. With a light was brought the fact was revealed that the poor girl was insane. She has remained ever since, yet hopes are entertained of her recovery.
