LOCAL NEWS. We shall be glad, at all times, to receive letters of local news, such as special church services, meetings of temperance or other societies, accidents, or any incident which may be interesting, either in this locality or in the country generally.

LOCAL MATTERS. A fall of snow last night made very possibly sleighing this morning. We learn this morning that a requisition is receiving signatures asking Mr. Storey to again allow himself to be put in nomination for the Receivership.

Our merchants have agreed to close their stores at 8 o'clock, prompt, each evening except Saturday, until 1st of January. After that date, they will close at half-past seven.

We learn that the vacant store on Mill street, owned by Mr. P. Kelly, has been leased by two parties from Waterdown, for a tin and stove business. They will not occupy it for a few weeks yet.

Incidents have covered all outdoors for the past four days, causing considerable destruction to the willows and other tender-limbed trees. The extreme length of time this icy weather continues is very remarkable.

Parties intending to participate in the St. Andrew's festival in Guelph, to-morrow, should not fail to pay a visit to A. O. Buchan's store, and see the magnificent display of goods suitable for the occasion.

At a public meeting held in Matthews Hall last Saturday evening, a committee was appointed to make arrangements for securing a suitable place for social gatherings and reading room.

At the regular communication of Walker Lodge, A. F. and A. M., Acton, held on Monday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Bro. Caleb Chase, Worshipful Master.

To the Editor of the Free Press. Last night a travelling marble dealer wandered into one of our leading business houses, and in his ignorance of the antiquary nature of our citizens, attempted to measure a young man for a tombstone.

School House Opening. The new brick school house in the 2nd concession of Epsom was formally opened last Friday evening, with a grand entertainment and festival, which was attended by a large and enthusiastic gathering.
