> A Novel Temperance Society. To the Editor of the Free Press.

DEAR SIR -I understand there is a movement on foot to establish in this village what is termed a "Moderate Mr. Baker, the promoter of the Prinker's Soicety," the principles of which are these : No member is allowed to drink more than one glass of Spirituous Liquors per day, and any membe formal agreement with the Council, | going beyond this limit, is to be fined respecting the proposed bonus. Her for the first, second and third offense has not vet arrived, but a letter was the sampof twenty-five cents, and for the received from him by the Reeve, I fourth offence expulsion from the socieresterday, stating that he would be ty. These are the precious tenets of being made to commend this society to being made to commend this society to people of sound temperance principles, on the ground that it will reduce the evils of intemperance, &c. It is hardly necessary to say that this is a most ab-surd and dangerous society, and is calculated to strike a serious blow at the temperando movement at present do strong in this village. It is also hardly necessary to say that no Son of Temper-

ACTON.

Being convinced by observation and experience that the only true principle on which business can be successfully and satisfactorily carried on is the now Popular Cash System, we have determined in all transactions TO BUY AND SELL FOR READY PAY ONLY, commencing on the 31st day of March next, on and after which date we members of the Sons of Temperance, I will adhere strictly to the Cash System.

By buying for cash and taking advantage of trade discounts, we will be enabled to sell goods at but a slight advance on importers' and manufacturers' prices, and decidedly lower than can be cheap, nice fitting suit of clothes, or a obtained by Grangers and others from city jobbers. To do this we adopt the Cash Principle, and we feel assured that our numerous customers and the public generally will accord us a hearty support in our effort to advance their interests by supplying them with a good article at a decidedly LOW

This change, we feel, whilst resulting largely to the benefit of our patrons, will not in any way result in any material loss to ourselves, as we will effect a great saving in keeping books, collecting accounts, interest on outstanding moneys, &c.

A decided reduction will be made in the price of all goods handled by us, and we trust the difference will be such as will result in a material advantage to all parties, and receive general

In the meantime special inducements will be offered to all CASH BUYERS.

Produce will be taken in exchange at market prices, and when required for the purposes of our trade will be paid for in cash if desired. In buying Butter we will carefully grade and pay price according to quality, thereby offering a premium for the best production. We cordially invite inspection by all, and assure our many friends that in no instance will we allow their interests to suffer by dealing with us. Our famous 50c TEA will still maintain its reputation as second to none in the Dominion for purity, pungency and flavor.
