No further action was taken in this line, but from the failure of the first representations, involving Count Andrassy's proposal, to effect a settlement, further steps were necessary...

The secure these it seems to have been thought necessary to insist upon some of the demands of the insurgents at their conference with Baron Rodich...

As England will not assent to the B-elia proposal, she has been invited to propose some modification of it, but apparently is not inclined to do so...

THE POST OFFICE CASH STORE, ACTON, ONT.

On beginning the business of 1876, I would return sincere thanks to my numerous customers for the very liberal support they have given me during the past 22 years, and again I most respectfully ask a continuance of their respective support. Please consider the matter over, and give me your support to carry out the only right way of doing business, that is
