J. D. WILLIAMSON & CO. Guelph, Dec. 12, 1876.

READ AND REMEMBER. Having purchased the entire stock of Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Wall Paper, Stationery, &c., of Mr. Jas. Matthews, and leased the premises lately occupied by him as a store, I intend keeping a first-class stock of all the above-mentioned lines, which I will sell cheap for Cash or Produce only.

Believing the Cash System to be the only right principle on which to do business, my motto will be Small Profits and Quick Returns. I believe that I can supply the public with goods as cheap as they can be purchased elsewhere. All parties requiring goods are respectfully invited to come and examine my stock and see for themselves, that where they can buy for cash is the place for cheap goods.

GEORGE YEMEN. N.B.—My present large stock of Crockery and Glassware will be sold at a very slight advance on cost prices, to make room for new stock. Now is the time for bargains. Don't forget the place, The Post Office Store Acton.
