THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

Yolame II. No. 25

ACTON, ONT., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1876.

$1.00 per annum in Advance.

BUSINESS CARDS.

H. LOWRY. M. B., M. College, Member of College of Physicians DR. R. MORROW, Physimian, Surgeon, &c., of Bellevue Col-

Thesiars and Fridays, from 9 a. m. till 4 Amerance Co. Deeds Morigages, on reasonable terms. Money to coltege Canada. - Consultation days-

D. MATHESON, Attorneyoffice-Corner of Main and Church

treets, Georgetown. PPLEBE & SIMPSON Barristers, Attorneys-at-Law, So-

M. LAIDLAW. Barrister. 'Attorney-at-Law Solicitor in ing street; Milton, Main street, The Milton Office will be under the management of D. W. Campbell, and Mr. Lat-law will attend at the "Milton Office

TTENBY L. DRAKE,

a Friday of each week.

all business entrusted to his care will be calthrally attended to Orders by mail

DATENTS for INVENTIONS n Canada, the United States and Europe. Patent guaranteed or no charge. Send for printed instructions. Agency in oper-Mechanical Engineer, Solicitor of P. ants and Draughtsmati.

TVILLIAM WATEINS.

fuser Marriage Licenses & Certificates. By Boyal Appointment.) Basiness private and confidential athon at the Post Uffice. Glenwilliam, AFRS. S. CARTER.

Teacher of Masic, Drawing and French, Church street, Actor.

DLIVER LOZIER, Plasterer. Actor, Out Every description of Platering and Hough-casting done oh the most re wonable terms, and settoing-L'on FEETAR ced.

CTON FLOTE MILLS. B. & E. NICKLIN, Proprietors.

Floar and Feed always on hand, wholesale and feight Gris ing and Chopping Daily. Cosh or all kinds of Gr. in.

ROSSIN HOUSE, Acton. Kor public TESS: CAMPBELL, Posts.

DOMINION HOTEL, Acton, new Hotel is fitted up in fractions Travellers will find good accommodation and come motious Sample Looms, Special ing public. Bar supplied with the best Liquors and Cigars. Good Embling and ttentive Hostlers.

YM. HEMSTREET,

Licensed Auctioneer Office. Actor, or at my residence, in Rockwood, will be promptly attended to.

DURE HILK.

The undersigned begs to that k his cusdoring the past surger, and would say large and well selected stock of that he is now prepared to supply an ad-ditional number of customers with good, ing and twice a day on Saturdays. Par-flet who keep cows will find it much the per and less trouble to get milk delivered at their doors, and they would do Well to sell their eews and buy their mirk Twenty-one quart tickets for $1. if paid in advance, or twenty-one pint tickets for 50 cents. P. S. ABMSTRONG.
Acton, Nov. 10th, 1875.

MILTOS

PLANING MILLS.

J. R. MITCHELL, Manufacturer of

Suh. Boors, Blinds, Mould Frames, Pickets, etc.

Planing Scroll Work and Matching Done to Order.

Blinds 30 cents per foot. Tes All work delivered in Acton free. Orders left at Second Bros. will ! promptly attended to. -Milton, June 6, 1876. 50-ly

TROLLOPE CHAPMAN,

All Descriptions of Binding Neatly Executed.

Assount Books of all Kinds Made to Ruling Promptly Attended to

BINDERY-St. George's Square, Guelph

Orders left at the FREE PRESS Office will receive prompt attention. SEND 25c. to G. P. BOWELL & CO. Mew York, for Pamphlet of 100 page, entimates showing cost of advertising. 812 a day at home. A gents wanted 20, Augusts, Maine, CTON BAKERY.

GALLOWAY BROS ARE STILL AHEAD, And we intend to keep so with Bread, Buns, and Cakes, and the clite of the city. Loss on Mortgage security. Office-Delivered fresh around the village and vicinity every day. A good stock of BREAD, BUNS AND CAKES Always on hand at our bakery, good, fresh and cheap for cash.

No Credit Given, . Main Street, Grond Erows. Except to prompt-paying monthly cus-

All kinds of Produce taken in exchange for goods. hancery, &c. Offices: - Hamilton, lo | Weight for weight given in bread exchange for flour.

notice, and satisfaction guaranteed. N.B. - All goods are warranted pure | as nothing but the best of material is used. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

GALLOWAY BROS. Acton, Aug. 9, 1876.

CHEAP BREAD

B. & E. NICKLIN

Beg to announce that they have secured

First-Class Baker,

in full operation, in the premises owned houses in the village and vicinity. Wedding Cakes, Tea Cakes, Pastry, Buns, &c., made in the very lest manner, and kept always on hand, good and fresh. Also

B. & E. NICKLIN. litton., Feb. 29, 1876.

DOMINION

E. K. COOK Having purchased the stock and good will of the business lately earried on by Mr. J. F. Dempsey, begs to announce that he will continue the harness business in the same premises, Orders left at the FREE PRESS Old Post Office Building, Mill taken off. That's what I'll do." . Street, Acton, where he is prepared to turn out second to neve in the Dominion, being a practical workman of considerable ex-Marness, Horse Blankeis, Trunks, Whips, Brushes, Combs, de. Repairing promptly attended to.

Acton, Sept. 26, 1876.

The undersigned begs leave to inform the people of Acton and vicinity that he

UNDERTAKING.

Requisites in Undertaking on short notice and reasonable terms as Heurse Supplied when Desired. Also that he will

Fit up Stores & Offices

in the best style. Show Cases, Book Cases and Deski made to order.

FURNITURE BEPAIRED. Shop on Willow street, near Main st P. M. McCANN.

Acton, March 20, 1876;

Practical Bookbinder. Carriage & Wagon WORKS,

Main Street. - Acton.

MICHAEL SPEIGHT. Blacksmith, Carriage and

Wagon-maker. Best Horse-Shoers in the County

Perfect satisfaction guaranteed or no price charged.

Iron Harrows always on hand. 4 good stock of Carriages and Wagons. you think, father ?" tended to.

Acton, July 18, 1876. $5 to $20 per day at home Gray's on Christmas to dinner." news of the lost one; year after free, STINSON & Co., Portland, Maine.

From the Aberdeen Journal. THE LAMPLICHTER,

OR, THE Foundling of Christmas Morn

CHAPTER I.

(Continue from last week.) A carriage rolled along the street it stopped before the mansion, and tall gentleman emerged from it. It was the great Grindstone, who had been dining with an alderman

"What the deuce!" he pompous! growled out. "You drunken vagabonds, what are you doing there? Jones (to the footman), where are the police ? The lamplighter essayed to speak

" Please your honor, this 'ere lady "Off with you-out of my wav

Ladies 1 indeed Strumpets. Why in can't you keep your own dens?" " But, sir, the lady-she, I mean WEDDING & FANCY CAKES is dead. She's dead, sir," said Col Made to order in the shortest possible lie, still holding the cold form on the ground.

"Ah! dead, is she! Well, you can't keep her there-that's plain. Jones, let the horses be driven off the cold will kill them. Dead! Ha!-no case of murder. hope. But that's a matter for the police. They're paid for it."

With this the great Grindstone ranished. The door closed upor FOR THE MILLION him and all his luxury and comfort The dead lay at his door; but did it touch the beart of the callous. worldly minded, selfish, greedy grinding Grindstone. Not it.: H had put down his name for £5 on the Alderman's subscription sheet for coals to the poor that very night. and the memory of it made his heart overflow with gushing charity. and that their Paking business is now How very liberal he had been But then it was Christmas, and who would not be charitable Breed will be delivered daily at the such a season? That would stand to the credit side of his account a the great summing up, as proof that the poor were remembered

But look to the deht side, Mr Grindstone. The dead lies at thy door, and yet it raises no pity all kinds of Confectionery, Biscuits; thy bosom, no thoughts of the great hereafter; the cry of motherless is heard on the street The patronage of the public is resand yet thou heed'st it not, Verily, thou shalt have thy reward ! By the exertions of Jones, the footman, the police were soon the spot. The child, a small girl of seemingly about two years, half frozen and benumbed with the cold, was taken possession of by Colin "What's to be done with the

"Why, what can be done? Take the durling home with me, of course replied the lamplighter, folding the hild in his coat, which he had

"You've no missus at home, been kinder than him. "No. But it doesn't matter for perience. All work done promptly and that. Mother Gray, who lives in Hack's Court, we pass on to an- soul above that. Alike despising as cheap as the cheapest. On hand a our flat, will look after her for a other scene.

So it was settled, and Collie trot ted off at a rapid rate to his hom in Whitefriars. The bonest simple minded lamplighter took no credi for the good deed he had done tha Christmas morning. Not he.

didn't know of it. CHAPTER II.

our last chapter. Nine Christmases | conception of the unsophisticated stowed upon her. have come and gone; and another lamplighter when trying to depict Christmas is near at hand. In his garret chamber in White- ful palace to his little protege. friars sits honest Colin Crisp, the It was the night preceding lamplighter, enjoying the comfort Christmas Eve, and Mr. Seaton had of a warm fire, while he meditates a party at his London residence, upon the past, and speculates upon | where he had been staying for some the future. Time has made but time. He had wound up his affairs little alteration upon him. True, abroad and returned to Scotland his beard is tinged here and there two years before, bringing his ward, with the frost of age, and the a girl of sixteen, who had been left wringles are beginning to settle to his care by an old schoolfellow down upon his face; but what of and valued friend. Ella Bell had that he is supple and active as lived with her guardian since she waves of time swept over only to tish. With a fatherly love and the host, who sat by his side. improve him. A hale man of fifty care the kind merchant watched "Ru ther," drawled . out Mr.

large warm hands. And where has Edinburgh. my little Nellie been to-night?"

"Been across to Mother Gray's, the tidings reached him that in-First-Class Plows and Collard's Patent and she would have me wait till stead of his son being in the Roland came home. But what do counting house of Grindstone, Tur> of course." "Nonsense-puss!" The lamp year rolled on, and yet he yearned of a dear friend."

highter seemed quite surprised. But for him who was not. But time, | "Ah | I see. Bequeathed in dow again, and shut out the biting he knew better. Regularly for the though it could not eradicate the legacy. Good. Couldn't have done blast. last nine years he had dired there grief which clouded his existence, better. She's fortunate in her guar- As Ella Bell must be left to her who really amounted to anything. on Christmas day, and he didn't / helped to soften it down to a sad, dian, sir." expect but that he would do the soft memory, like that melancholy same on the tenth also. "It must feeling which ever lingers in the be a mistake. After this I shouldn't bosom for the dear departed dead, quite follow you up."

"Rather. Dear me! How stuinto the street, cold as it is. But vulgarity and empriness, as modesty we promise not to keep him long is of refinement and culture. The would be big man in some little much wonder if the Lord Mayor Yet Mr. Seaton was not left alone was not left alone world. He had his ward to Grindstone. He nudged Mr. Seaton the leader of the Waits, a tall, being utterly ignored by his conto cut their jolly dinner on Christ- care for. Se he battled with his ton in the side. "They might do bony, sharp-featured, Roman-nosed temporaries, must make up by bins mas. And why not? Crisp is as affliction, and so far as to see the worse. The match would be a individual, with a clarionet under ter and pretence what he is the good as any, only he wants the cop- propriety of enjoying the blessings suitable one. Don't you think so ?" his arm. What's come of your genuine worth and nobility. pers. That's all. And my Nelly which had been left him, and at- | 'Ra That is I don't quite spectacles, old fellow, eh?' there, she's quite a born lady."

But what of the grand party? | kind as to explain?" "How you do go on, father," said Nelly, nestling down on the "Truth, every word of it, pet. could supply. The host was lavish Bell wouldn't surprise him: He right! I have it now. Sixpence, they reach higher in the Sure as my name is Collin Crisp, in his hospitality; the guests were had come to the point at last; he depend upon it." Collie held up lectual stature, grow simpler in you'll be a lady yet. I've allers courteous and gay in spirits. Even leaned back in his chair, rubbed the coin to his eyes. "I knew it. manner, think less and less of self said so; and I say so again, You'll the great Grindstone had thrown his hands and chuckled. "Joint- Why bless me! It's a half sover- and more of their art and their be a lady." The lamplighter had aside his gruffness, and was in Stock Company. Value at par. eign after all. Hurrah!" now got on his favorite themes. merry humor-the mighty Grind- D'ye take ?"

poor unfortunate mother. Poor the belle of the evening. it was you may suppose, for the he could manufacture out of his un- shields, the whole night long. parish didn't know anything about fertile brain were expended upon | The drawing-room was deserted than mine since your bright face He felt he was the favored party; against the panes.

more'n two years or so at that time, These smiles were messages which ing chamber, musing over the ly, burying her face on his knee. | great city firm. Leaving Colin Crisp and the drilles she held in her hand. Not the coxcombry of the empty headed and richness of the grand mansion; ed at his ridiculous airs and vanity. the gay lit up drawing-room with Modest and retiring, she had mixed mirrors, and its magnificent furni- she was the admired of all. Her ture; the gay assemblage of beau- graces were so natural she did not ty, rank and wealth, mingling to know of them. Light hearted and gether on the carpeted floor; the happy, and only in her eighteenth music, the mirth, the revelry of the year, no wonder she made merri-Ten years have almost passed dance, combined to form a scene ment of the silly Gosling, or failed away since the events recorded in which far outrivalled the grandest to appreciate so high an honor be-

'How deuced attractive the creature is," said Mr. Gosling to himself. the grandenr of Alladin's wonder-Quite crushing, upon my word Though H. T. Gosling were to as pire to a coronet, she'd grace. Oh! let me see, how would M look after my name-or the Honor able? I really must come out strong some day." And the enraptured Gosling wound up his ruminations with the appropriate quota tion from Longfellow, of

Lives of great men all remind us. "She's an enchanting young lady, ever—as blythe and good natured, was quite a child, and she regarded that ward of yours, Mr. Seaton," happy days at Bellbrae. They suffers at all, and its cleanness and as happy and contented as if the him with a true and warm affect remarked the great Grindstone to were all gone, never to return. color are perfect. The ammonia

"Oh! you're home father, are fore he had cherished hopes that what he was saying, for his mind Bethelem's thepherds heard, and it while the former evaporates immeyou?" exclaimed a little fairy fig- she might grow up to become the was pre-occupied at the time with awakened in her bosom the hope diately, the smell of the latter is ure of a girl, as she tripped into wife of his son. On all bis visits thoughts of a far different nature, that her beloved guardian might said to disappear entirely during the room, shaking the large snow- to Scotland to see his son, the little! The 'Christmas season always yet experience great joy on the re- the drying of the clothes. flakes from her cloak, and brushing Ella had accompanied him, and brought with it the remembrance turn of his long-lost son.

away the frozen drops which hung many a romp and play she had had of him who was not. Among all The hymn censed. Ella Bell The Stratford Beacon says: One like pearls among her rich brown with the light hearted Kenneth the merry laughter, the memory of drew up the window-blind, and night last week a Stratford gentle ing for many choirs would be in O Seaton among the heathery hills | the past hung over him like a cloud, looked out on the snow clad street. | man awoke shortly before midnight, Lord, have mercy on us miserable "Aye, lass; and right glad too. around Bellbrae. But this, the and dimmed the natural buoyancy It was a wintry scene indeed. having had a very vivid dream, in singers." Home is home on such a night," dearest wish of the merchant, had of his spirit. The heart that is Through the still heavily falling which he saw a man who was in replied Collie, as he good naturedly been frustrated by the mysterious saddened feels all the more lonely snow she could see the poor Waits his employ departing for the States rubbed her cold cheeks with his disappearance of Kenneth from in the midst of gaiety and pleasure. standing in the streets like white with a quantity of stolen property

ed Grindstone.

Like all other grand parties, Mr. Grindstone whispered, a mar- snow for the coin which had been est. Our poets, our artists; like nothing was wanting which wealth | riage between Mr. Gosling and Miss | thrown from the window. "All ers, our writers, in proportion

Patting the head of the girl, he stone who could stem the tide of | Mr. Seaton having recovered his Crisp?" cried out the leader, as he death, light, thought, than which went on, "Ten years come Christ- the money market when he liked, presence of mind, understood his involuntarily put his clarionet in nothing is more potent. They who mas morn-I remember it as well condescended to keep time to the drift. But he didn't encourage the position before his mouth, although are in living, vital sympathy with as yesterday-you came under my music by beating his hand on the idea. The thought that Ella Bell he had no intention of playing what is real and genuine, who drink humble roof. A desperate cold table. Daniel Grindstone wasn't would one day part from him was "Yes it is. A real genuine from the source of power, show night it was. Why, I thought asleep though. Catch him! That quite new to him. He had always piece, I'll swear," replied the lamp more by deeds than by words of you'd be dead afore I got home, little grey eye of his was watching considered her in the light of a lighter, testing it with his teeth. what stuff they are made. The and your spirit been borne off by the endeavors of the juntor of the child, and some way the old hope "A jolly Christmas to the giver, man who strives to become great the angels along with that of your firm to open up a flirtation with that she was destined to be the wife and a long round of Happy New by words only is a sham. of his son had not yet altogether Years." little innocent that you were, when The great centre of attraction was left him. It had dwelt so long "Why we're in luck to night, time, not taken you in her arms. forehead, and the soft waving curls Mr. Grindstone, she is only eigh- | cheers, which rung along the silent | Bless me! where has the dear which danced around her shoulders teen. Besides I have no idea of street. sprang from? said she. 'She's no and kissed her fair neck, drew parting with her yet," Mr. Seaton "Now then, off with you, clse the ply a circumlocutory and plenastic poor man's child that. Just look many an admirer to her side. Not answered, casting his benign face police will be getting up a disturbance cycle of oratorical sonorosity, cir-

at her clothes, Collie. She's a born one in that room who had a heart with a kind look towards his ward. the leader, buttoning up his clarionet lady.' Yes, Nelly, continued the to give who would not have laid it To waive off the disagreeable beneath his coat. "I think we have in a verbal profundity." "Thank lamplighter, you was born to be a down on the instant before the subject, Mr. Seaton proposed an done remarkably well for the last night you, sir." lady, and a lady you'll be. Didn't shrine of Ella Bell. Horatius adjournment to the billiard-room, I see your poor dead mother at the Theodore Gosling was captivated. with which the great Grindstone Coroner's inquest next day, when He continually hovered round her acquiesced. By and by the party fail this year for want of funds, I'll be here below have no redress above every one said she was a lady, and like a big bumming top, and as if broke up, as all parties must do; the jury said she died from exposure he had been brought there for noth- and Horatius Theodore Gosling to cold; and no one could say who or ling else and his life depended on went home with a fluttering, and what she was. Ah, Nelly! When the performance. All the flattery as he thought, stricken heart to I followed your mother's corpse to be was master of-all the gallantry dream of laughing eyes and pretty the grave-and but a poor funeral he could display and all the wit curls-of coronets and emblazoned

a lady's funeral-I thought of her her, and a poor courtier he made silence reigned throughout the manlast words, God watch over Nelly, after all. Ella Bell only laughed sion. Without, the snow came and said to myself, while Colin at the exquisite dandy. But Mr. down heavily and fast, lodging it-Crisp has a crust Nelly shall share Gosling did not see this. His vani- self into every crevice and corner of it. And Nelly lass, you have been ty made him believe he had made a the old mansion house, piling itself a blessing to me. There hasn't conquest of her heart, and that he in heaps upon the window sills and been a happier home in all London saw before him the future Mrs. G. ledges, and drifting in fleecy clouds came to light it up. You'd be little there could be no doubt about it. | Ella Bell sat alone in her sleep-

but you soon grew up. I wouldn't be alone could understand. The events of her young life. Mr. like to part with you now; but man but not the hour had come, Gosling is quite forgotten, She some day I will, Nelly. I'm cer- else in a twinkling his knees would thinks of the sunny skies and luxtain sure some one will turn up yet have kissed the floor-the oft re- uriant beauty of the West India to claim you one day or other, and peated tale been told, and the ecsta- isls where her childish days had child, asked one of the police, who I shall lose my Nelly. But you cy of bliss been his. Such were the been spent of the blue hills, the won't forget me-will you, Nelly ?" visions of the self-confident Gosling. wild glens, and romantic scenery "No, never, never," replied Nel- A happy man was the Co. of the around Bellbrae, where her home had been for the last two years. She loved the lamplighter as if he But a mistaken one; for Ella She had been brought up in the had really been her father; and no Bell had no more thought of be midst of Nature's richest scenes; wonder, for no father could have coming Mrs. Gosling than she had she loved not a city life, and longed I wonder where he is now? A rare popularity in this country until the All at once her reveries were dis | saw him last". How different! The splendor fool, she could not help being amus of those parties of amateur minstrels who go about in the night-

is, there is something so sweet, so dissolving two pounds of soap of happiness and love. magic spell. Ah I those happy, labor and fuel. The linea scarcely Kenneth, where was he? The carol which the Waits sung tersive action is great, have no over the orphan. Many years be- Seaton, without exactly knowing proclaimed the glad tidings which injurious effect on the linen; and and she was glad to close the win- water.

repose, the reader will follow us tending to the duties of this life. understand you. If you will be so Colin Crisp, for it was he that of the bluster, and more is your little eyes looked up into Ella Bell; and the very picture of there in olden times as to become Crisp; aint we?" was the clari- agents are again on the war path. mine, and you lisped out. Ma- grace and leveliness she was. Her almost like a reality, and it was onet's response. "Three cheers They should be arrested for trees! ma my ma, I thought I should bright bazel eyes that flushed like hard to drive it from its stronghold for the generous lady many Christ on." It would be just as well if have cried. I don't know what I diamonds; her rich pearl-colored now, even although he knew that, mases may she see, and always they would branch off and leave. would have done hadn't Mrs. Gray, complexion which had ripened like a dream, it had passed away. | bave a half sovereign for the poor | before they are rooted out. who had come up stairs by this under tropical skies; her clear open | "Ella Bell, my ward! Why, Waits." They joined in three lusty > of the peace against us. Home !" said cumscribing an atom of ideality, lost of the season, Crisp ?"

bound. Why we could treat all Hack's The shining angel's band replied Court, for the matter of that," "Get along with you, you prodigal You would ruin the Bank of England Crisp, if you had the chance," observed the leader, who was no other than Nicholas Carroll, the cobbler, and intimate friend of the lamplighter. "Now then, off with you-sharp!" With this the Waits trudged off Hack's Court where they all resided Colin Crisp trotted along by the side of the shivering little Nelly, who had veying the student critically been induced to join the party. A sweet singer she was, and formed a val- his business." uable addition to the company. "Wouldn't I like to see my Nelly in grand house like that where the lady tipped us the vellow one !" observed Collie to his young companion. "Ah

ather: but it will never be.! The lamplighter hailed a policeman, and asked him who lived at No. 23 where they had got the half sovereign. | take the eyes and nose first." "Mr. Seaton," was the reply. "Seaton !!' remarked Crisp, as they kept on their way. "Why, bless me! Nelly, if that isn't the name of our the hat he had lost, "Nay!" inwouldn't I. I hope to see it too - I do."

friend Kenneth. What if it turned out terposed the lucky man, "tis all to be his father?" "But Kenneth's father is abroad," "So he is lass—so he is. Bless me! how I do forget things. Poor Kenneth, of enting the ret of Scotch Qua to get back to her home in the north. good 'un be is, and a smart one too. It Canadian shin Lone is set farther foundling to their happiness in that she was a flirt. She had a turbed by the sweet gush of music | Still the snow fell faster and faster hear at hand. It was the Christ- and the streets are almost knee deep at mas Waits upon the streets—one therefore bid the Waits good night. (To be continued.) .

time for some time preceding NEW MODE OF WASHING .- The its dazzling chandeliers, its costly little in society, and knew not that | Christmas, singing Christmas carols, ill effects of soda on linen has given accompanied by such instrumental rise to a new method of washing, music as the can command for the which has been extensively adopted Let us be 1 country and 1 people in Germany, and introduced in Bel Simple and rude as their music gium. The operation consists in strange, so soothing in the strains about three gallons of water as hot remarked that men should trust as they come upon the listener in as the hand can bear, and adding to each other more, the Milton Chamthe dead of night, that they touch this one tablespoonful of turpentine pion observes a general feeling upon the chords of the heart like and three of liquid ammonia; the heavenly music, awakening all the mixture must then be well stirred, open a small grocery store in that better feelings of one's nature, and | and then the linen steeped in it for stirring the soul into a holy stream | two or three hours, taking care to | A lady residing up town has cover the vessel containing them shown her benevolence by present-Ella Bell felt the infinence of as hermetically as possible. The ing the benevolent society with this strange music. With her head clothes are afterwards washed out three pairs of old white kid gloves, resting on her hand, she drank in and rinsed in the usual way. The a dumaged back shell comb, and a the soothing melody, while her soap and water may be repeated fractured bustle, for distribution thoughts wandered back to those and used a second time, but in that among the poor. happy days of childhood when the case half a tablespoonful of ammonia gentle warble of Kenneth Seaton's must be added. The process is said flute threw over her young life its to cause a great economy of time, and turpentine, although their de-

"And a good one, too?" contin- ghosts the females blowing upon in his possession. So strong was A heavy blow it was when ued the entertaining and entertain the tips of their fingers and the the impression left on his mind that males slapping their arms across he obtained a warrant and going to to turn pale for the ceremony itself their breasts. With some difficulty the Grand Trunk Station, actually makes them wan, "And a rich one?" would have she pulled up the lower sash from found the man in question about to ner & Co., he had run of from his followed next in a business-like its impediment of hard snow, and, leave for Buffalo, taking with him Repairing promptly and properly at "Think. Why that you waited totor and gone no one knew where. way, but the merchant's politeness wrapping it in paper, flung out a a watch and other property not Treasurer of Wentworth, has re-A heavy grief settled down upon (we had almost said slyness) re- half sovereign upon the pavement. legelly acquired. The man was signed, after 25 years service. The "O, yes. But that ain't it tho'. the merchant's heart; mail after strained him, so he substituted, The cold drift caught her right in brought before the Police Magistrate Council voted $3,000 to him as a You and I are going to Mother mail arrived, but they brought no "No relation of yours, I believe?" the face, and swept into the warm next morning and sent to reside retiring present. J. T. Stock, of "None. She is the orphan child room, making her shiver all over, temporarily at the castle across the Watertown, has been appointed in

"Large I."

We never met a pretentious man

Pretentionsness is ever a sign of would-be big man in some little is the measure of the lack will be grouped about among the deep deceived. All great men are modpossible attainments in it. All "You don't mean to say so, great agencies are silent sleep,

An exchange sava : " Nursery

" Pray, Mr. Professor, what is periphrasis?" " Madame, it is sim-

Tell us, angelic host, ve messennine sin't a bad take. Our Annual won't, gers of love, shull swindled printers "To us is knowledge given ; delinquents on the printer's books can never enter Heaven."

professor was expostulating with a student for his idleness. when the latter said, "it is of no use; I was cut out for a loafer." Well," declared the professor, sur-" whoever cut you out understood

Scene in a debating society President_"We will take the ayes and noes on the previous question." Member-" A word or two Mr. "And you'd light lamps no more, President: Friends, Romans, countrymen ! Hend me your cars." President-" Order, Sir! We will

> "It's all for the best," remarked Blinks, with a sigh, as he paid for for the better.' Foot-ball is becoming a fashion have no reason to doubt his word

-that since his marriage, whenever he misses the last train he is sure to catch it. An arithmetical peace-maker fig-This is 0 a time 4 vi 2-per-8-ing. at 10y-rate."

Ralph Waldo Emerson having thereabouts that he is the man to

The man who keeps his word-The man who never speaks. In what place are two heads better All men are not homeless, but some nen are home less than others.

Why is a chicken like a farmer? Be cause both delight in a full crop. One of the reasons that a side saddle resembles a four-quart jug is because it holds a gall-on.

The girl of the period-Election Bet We thought her name was Louisa Anna. Isn't it Flora Day? A wag suggests that a suitable open know all about a thing after it has hap-A London joker remarks that it is Quality.

SON

satisaction

/ER

ng Cotton fies.

Caps

issware S , Acton.

Il the new ods in anada

est, fineest

stock of al browns, Black Lusnceys, &c. Scarfs ble colors

wis. season sebuy. Jur centres of rs, Festh. Turs.

seal, mink at variety. Robes, &c. trade in keep the n this part extra fine l'isnd see our goods. ideon Bay est variety also very complete ey, White, oths, pred upon

GETOWN,