ACTON, ONT., THURSDAY,

distributed terms of the

BUSINUSS CARDS.

C. P. S. Graduate of Trinity College, Monther of College of Physicians Frederick Street, Acros, in the house

DR. R. MORROW. PhysiDelia, Surreon, ac., of Bellevne College, New York, also Graduate of Victoria, Beg to announce that they have secured College, Canada. Consultation days.

Toestays and Fridays from 9 s. in, till 4

Residence—West Bower street,

ACTOX.

HENDERSON, Convey-Life Astirance Co. Deeds, Mortgages, to prepared neatly, promotly correctly and on reasonable terms. Money to Loss on Mortgage security. Office—Glasgow House, Acton.

J. D. MATHESON, Attorney-at-Law, Solicitor in Chancery, o. Office-Corner of Main and Church treets, Georgetown!

T W. COOPER, Provincial Land Surveyor and Cheese, &c. Civil Engineer, Guelph.

TYM. LAIDLAW. Barrister. Pancery, &c. Offices: - Hamilton, 10 Miles Office will be under the management of D. W. Campbell, and Mr Luid-Priday of cach week.

Orders by mall promptly retended to.

HENRY L. DRAKE,

of Before.

Molas-

New Cur

Raw Oil

pans, etc.

White Lead,

ces. Starch,

Washing

atches, etc.

Japan and rom 10 cents

county.

eather

OOTS.

ON

best makers,

LOWEST.

oxes .

INSURANCE AGENT, CLELPIL Arent for the Mercantile and Waterloo. faithfully attended to. Office at Day's solventore, Guelph. Orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

DATENTS for INVENTIONS expelitiously and properly secured in Canada the Guite I States and Europe. Patent guaranteed or no charge. Send for winted instructions. Ag very in oper-Ottawa, Canada, Mechanical Engineer, Solicitor of Pa

TTILLIAM WATEINS, I seer Marriage Licenses & Certificates (By Royal Appointment.) Business private and confidential offes at the Post Office. tilenwilliam, MRS. S. CARTER. Teacher of Music; Drawing and French. Church street, Acton.

OLIVER LOZIER, Plasterer, Plustering and Rough-easting some on the most re conable terms, and satisfaction guaranteed.

CTON FLOUR MILLS. R & E. NICKLIN, Proprietors. Plonr and Peed always on hand, wholetale and retail Gristing and Chopping Dally. Cash for all kin Is of Grain.

ROSSIN HOUSE, Acton. ling public. THOS, UAMI'BELL, Progr.

NOMINION BOTEL. Actou. style with nes forniture. Commercial Tavellers will and good accommo tation as f com mollous Sample Rooms, Special liguors and Cigurs, Good Sabing and

LIM. HEMSTREET, Licensed Auctioneer For the Counties of Wellington and finl-

MILTON PLANING MILLS!

del word, will be promptly attended to.

J. R. MITCHELL,

Manufacturer of Sash. Doors, Blinds, Mouldings, Door and Window Frames, Pickets, etc. Towing Scrott Work and Matchin

Done to Order. Blinds 30 cents per foot. wa All work deligered in Acton free. Orders left at Second Bros. will be promptly attended to. Milton, June 6, 1876.

WAR IN THE EAST.

CREAT SLAUGHTER

IN LEATHER. As immeuse quantities of leather is be ing manufactured into harness for the Artillery Horses, the prices have consequently gone-up. . Nevertheless K. COOK Is prepared to furnish all articles in Estress, Saddles, Trunks, Etc. at as reasonable rates ar ever. He is. Practical workman, and ready to fill al orders as quick, as good, and as cheap

All work guaranteed. En

Acton, Feb. 20, 1877. Rew York, for Pamphlet of 100 page, containing lists of 2000 new spapers, and estimates showing cost of advertising.

Esquesing, Federal Esquesing

CHEAP BREAD

& E. NICKLIN

the services of a. First-Class Baker, and that their Baking business is now in full operation, in the premises owned by Mrs. Hanna.

Bread will be delivered daily at the houses in the village and vicinity. Wedding Cakes, Tea Cakes, Pastry, Buns, &c., made in the very best manner, and kept always on hand, good and fresh. Also all kinds of Confectionery, Biscuits, Work for the plough, adze, spindle and The patronage of the public in respectfully solicited.

B. & E. NICKLIN. Acton. Feb. 29, 1876.

All business entrusted to his care will be CLECK; 4TH DIVISION COURT. COUNTY OF HALTON.

ACTON,

Commissioner in Q. B.

Fire Insurance Agent.

Life Insurance Agent.

Issuer of Marriage Liceuses.

Agent Money to Loan or Borrow Agont Montroal Telegraph Co.

Debts Collected on Commission. And General Agent, &c., &c.

Parties intrusting their business wit Office at the Post Office, Acton.

Practical Bookbinder.

Botel is aties up in first-class All Descriptions of Binding Neatly Executed. Account Books of all Kinds Made to Ruling Promptly Attended to.

ten. Orders 1-t. at the FREE PRESS BINDERY-St. George's Square, Guelph ffice will receive prompt attention.

Orders left at the FREE PRES

TRAVELERS

Life and Accident INSURANCE COMPANY

Of Hattiord, Copp.

Paid-up Cash Carital ..... Foco,000 Cash Assets ..... 4,054,000 Surplus for reolection of Policy-holders ..... 1.170,855 Deposit with Dominion Government .........

436,000 policies and paid in actual cash benefits to accident policy

C. F. RUSSELL, District Agent, 33 Adelaide Street East, Toronto TLSON IRWIN, Special Agent.

TO BREEDERS,

The young thoroughbred Durham

-ALEX. WALDIE, in forced tones of calmness. Esquesing, Feb. 1, 1877. 31-3m

THE BATTLE OF LIFE. for the years go out, and the years Regardless of those who may lose or win, Of those who may work or play.

To the army gone before; ou may hear the sound of their falling Going down to the river where the two worlds meet;

They go to return no more. And duty, too, assigned | wheth Be quick, or another may take your

And you may be left behind. That you nover can tread again, Work for the loftiest, lowliest men-

Work for the hands and the brain. The sement will follow your steps, my To lay for your feet a snare ; And Pleasure sits in her fairy bowers. With garlands of poppies and lotus Temptations will wait by the way, my Temptations without and within ; And spirits of evil, incrobes as fair As the holiest angels in heaven wear, Will lure you to deadly sin.

Enwreathing her golden hair.

Then put ou the armor of God, my In the beautiful day of youth ; Put on the helmet, breastplate and And the sword that the feeblest arm In the cause of right and truth.

And go to the battle of life, my boy, With the peace of Gospel shod, And before the high heaven do the best For the great reward, for the good of For the kingdom and crown of God.

LIVING TOO FAST.

Confessions of a Bank Officer.

conduct. I was satisfied that I what I said. could borrow five hundred dollars "I did say so, Lilian. I am both of us for the Oliphants' ambi- "Very well; I will have my people would be talking if the and with a reasonable explanation express waggon comes." of the necessity. The affairs of the day had improved rather than me?" TROLLOPE CHAPMAN, injured my reputation. My integrity and honesty stood at the I desert you, but you desert me." bigbest point. I had made a stupidly placed himself in, my power when open conduct would her eyes. have served him better in the end. had hampered myself with a promise placing the last of my wearing Needham street. said Monday, because I had a faint hope that I might go down to Springhaven on Saturday and get the amount out of my mint, who had at least another thousand dolars salted down in her bureau,

There was time enough to think of this matter before the day of payment; but, if the worst came Tom could easily be chioled, and even made to insist upon my retunate relations which I sustained to my beautiful wife were hardly out of my mind for a moment. was nearly six o'clock when I started for home, and all my thoughts were then of Lilian and I replied, with Spartan firmness.

I was tempted to recede from my hard and trying situation, and I probably should have done so if I fluence over you?" had not been endowed with a cer-PANY and writes Life Policies upon mu." Her mother had more in- ed with it?" the Low Rate all-cash plan. No un- fluence over her than I had, and I This was a sore subject to her. I certain promises of impossible "divi- | could not be happy till I had re- knew very well that she liked the able man in the whole city.

and the troops march steadily on, my to Needham street, Lillian."

> while her lips quivered and her to feed, and one form to clothe. It it." chest heaved with emotion. "Of course I mean it, Lilian." whether I am willing to go or hinted at anything of the kind. I mothers in law are shamefully tra- mind."

"I did not think, Lilian, after I ternal home. In little things, I had done all I could to please you; found that Lilian consulted the after I had carried out the arrange- will of her strong minded mother, you will go with me, Lilian ?" ment we agreed upon when we rather than my feelings. For excame to board at your mether's; ample, I once heard Mrs. Oliphant cannot." after I had nearly ruined myself in | tell my wife to induce me to go to would refuse to live in it," I plead- | Miss Bertha desired to go. Lilian | gushed from my eyes. ed. "I acknowledge that I have did induce me to go, and I went. I rushed from the house without she would come to me even if I had revital of the old-fashioned virtues done wrong, but I cannot help it The came up to the point by regu- stopping to close the door behind been lodged in a prison instead of of simplicity, naturalness, and now. If you will go to the new lar approaches. Not a word was me. I wiped away my tears as I the palace I had provided for her. honesty. This example set by the house with me, I will promise to said about Miss Bertha till I was crossed the street at a furious pace. I ate my dinner alone and in silence. Chief Magistrate of forty millions give it up in a reasonable time, if closing the door behind me, as I I walked till I had subdued the The dinner was a good one, but it of people is worthy of being conyou are not bappy there."

said it, and I mean it," said she, think we had better ask Bertha to to present myself before the Biddy potatoe had been chips and shav-"Very well. I am going at so, and she went with us. Lilian om the secret that worried me. I in their flavor, seven o'clock," I replied, sadly did not care a straw for the concert, rang the bell at my house, and the When the meal was finished neither did I.

I began to pack my trunk, while she sobbed in her chair. CHAPTER IX. A LONELY HOUSE.

that would please you?" I replied, made the cut's paw for the monkey, sick she is?" as gently as I could speak, for I to pull the chesnuts out of the fire. She don't feel well this even was to be at the house. Tevaded

I left my uncle with the feeling that house without mo?" she ad did not think so much of my inter- the two of ye's. The tay is drawn in it. She didn't spake to a sow that I had completely overwhelmed ded, looking up as if she had a ests and my happiness as she did of this half hour, and the crame toast all day long," and she couldn't him, and made him blush for his gleam of hope that I did not mean her mothers will and wish. Neither is breakin in flitters wid waitin should be should be man

"I did not think you would be who did not keep a servant. so cruel, Paley."

thing unreasonable ?" balf an hour's notice into a strange in the presence of the stranger.

"I think I spoke of the matter last night, and told you I intended to go. If the time is too short, you taining the money another week or may fix a day yourself to' move. another month. While all these Name the time you will go, three events were transpiring, the unfor- days, a week, a month hence, and I will not object,"

"Is that all?" asked he.

understand me by this time.

nestion with her.

to your new house."

go off and leave her."

ecides to go with me."

sert me I can't help myself."

"What's the matter, Paley "

Needham street.

It | not live in that house !" "Then we may as well settle the matter now as at any other time."

"You will leave me, Paley?" " I will." "O. Paley! Have I lost all in-"I do not believe in this sort of tain obstinacy, sometimes called influence. I repeat that I have firmness. It seemed to me that done everything to please you; and my wife was not my wife while before I told you that the house The Travelers is a STOCK COM- she remained in the home of "dear was for you, were you not delight-deemed her from this bondage. house herself. Her mother intend-"dividend" in advance. The Trav. My mother-in-law was swindling ed to keep us in our present quarelers writes Life and Accident Poli- me for the benefit of her unmarried ters, for the sake of the income to cies combined as cheap as most daughters. I could not endure it be derived from us. She could fore companies write life policies. It is any longer, and come what would board us for ten dollars a week, the largest Accident Insurance Com- come, I would not. I entered the and make something even at that, house the saddest and most miser- for salt fish and round steak form a cheap diet. I estimated that it The hour for final action had cost five hundred dollars a year accident policy costs but a trifle. No come, I had informed Lilian that apiece to clothe the two younger medical examination required. Get I should move into the English daughters, and the profits on my a policy and share in the general basement house that day. I had board more than paid the bills. ordered an express waggon to come This was the whole matter in a nutfor my luggage at seven o'clock, shell. I do not think that Lilian We had nothing to move but our was a party directly to the conspirtrunks, in which, for the want of acy, but she knew that it would suitable closets, our clothing was upset all her mother's plans if we still kept. I had seen Biddy in left. Unfortunately for me, I had the morning, and told her to have given the impression that I was suppor for me at half-past seven. made of money; that I not only other way, and you are deserting Monday. I felt that I must pay I went up to our room. Lilian had a large salary, but that I was her." was there. I saw that she had the heir of Aunt Rachel, whose "I think not. If I provide a haven on Saturday, and cajole

"I was detained at the bank by reduced to the greatest straits; that was to go to housekeeping. Thave knew my habits, and & felt almost Go forth to the Battle of Life, my boy, the president," I replied. "But Mr. Oliphant's income was utterly provided a pleasant house near sure that I should find her in Need- On the gecasion of a recent State. the waggon will be here at seven, insufficient to keep up the style of yours, and furnished it in a style ham street. I believed that she Dinner in Washington, President. former years. I knew that Mrs. | much better than I can afford. I loved me, and T could not believe | Hayes at first refused to have wine "The waggon? What waggon?" Oliphant pinched herself in every have told her that, after occupying that she would desert me. How pised at all, but afterwards yielded possible way, that the prospects of the house six months or a year if my heart best when I went into the point in submission to the exnot be injured. But I felt that I to her wishes, whatever they may it sank when Biddy failed to tell to the custom in such matters in "You do not mean that, Paley!" had done enough for the family, be. I think my view is a reason- me that the "missus" was there. I other countries. In yielding to "Do you mean to say that you making the world Believe that my Oliphant.

of the whole class. I regard her as that her mother was making no house. No Lilian was there, and At the inauguration ceremonies, "O, Paley! I did not think you the exception, not the rule. Her headway in solving the problem. without her the house was not Mrs. Hayes avoided all extravawould do such a thing!" sobbed plan required that she should hold "No; but you will leave me, home. The casket and all its ap gance and ostentation in the way my wife as a slave within the ma- Lilian. I am going now."

"I cannot go, Paley! Indeed I mine. Biddy did not deliver any These examples from the highest "Good-bye, then, Lilian," I re- that she had not heard from the to have a widely beneficial effect. fitting up the house, that you a certain concert, simply because plied, kissing her, while the tears "missus." I was sure that Lilian What is needed in the United went to the bank, when it was- emotions which crowded upon me. would have been the same thing to sidered by the highest official circles "I will not go, Paley! I have "By the way, Paley, don't you It was half an hour before I dared me if thereast beef and mashed in Canada. go with us!" Of course I thought I had engaged, lest she should fath- ings, so far as I had any interest How Far Will Ten Dollars This is only a specimen of the her eyes wide when she saw me the streets till tea-time. I kept walking without going anywhere riageable sisters, but I was to intro- she.

"Do you mean to desert me, duce them into society, by paying "She has concluded not to come I had been to supper, and Biddy

She was not my wife in the just ing," I replied, evasively. "But you say you will go to and proper sense of the word. She "Sure the supper is all ready for not stay in a house with no missus of him within a reasonable time, going at seven o'clock, when the tious schemes. So thoroughly was supper immediately." "Don't you call that deserting justness of my position, that I was certainly good enough even for confounded at this complication of determined to stick to it, even if it Lilian; but it was the most miser- the difficulty, but I told her that "No, Lilian; it will not be that resulted in a complete separation. able supper to which I ever sat if the "missus" was not lable. The door-bell rang, and we heard down: My heart seemed to be al- come by Monday she might go, and "But I never will go into that the sound of it in our room. I most broken: I lighted the gas in I would pay her wages for an add riend of the cashier, who had bouse," said she, sharply, as she looked out the window. An express the little sitting room, and threw tional week." dashed away the tears that filled | waggon stood before the door. The myself into the rocking-chair. I "God bless your honor | but is tled for that month's board. Where-crisis had come, but I was as resol- looked around the apartment; the missus sick " she asked. "Very well; then we need say ute as ever, and I expected to spend Everything was neat, tasty and "She is not very well, and does > any other than a similar arrangement in her daughter's family. "That is all," I replied, giving

"I shall name no time. I will paid him and he went off with my went into the dining room and bye too her, for I had some hope was miserable beyond description. my hand was on the door which I went to sleep, but it was only to intended to close, Lilian called me dream of Lilian, goading and persefrom the stairs above. She came cuting me, led on by a demon who down, followed by Mrs. Oliphant. was always at her side.

I hoped that both of them would my breakfast ready at the time I had ordered it. It was such a asked "dear ma" trying to look breakfast as Lilian liked, but she. was not there to enjoy it, and "Nothing is the matter," I re- groaned in spirit. I must go to plied, not caring to discuss the "Lilian tells me you are going it was only a line :

"But I did not think you would I sent Biddy to deliver it, and say anything about it," she added was a most unusual attitude for uny more. If Lilian chooses to de- that I could distinctly understand therefore, in the use of coal oil what a sad mishap it would be to brightly, or to extinguish it entirely. "Desert you! -Goodness graci- him if I should fail to pay him the ous! I should think it was just the four hundred dollars I ewed him on him, and I decided to visit Spring.

E. R. COOK. Herd Book) will serve cows on the premises of the undersigned, lot 24, let premises of the undersigned, lot 24, let con. Esquesing. Terms—For Durhams and kissed her, as I always knowledge that she had any interdid, when I came into the house. est in her mother's scheme; it was I think that Lilian will admit that hope. I had ordered my dinner at. "You are late, Paley," said she, safer to say that she did not like our plan, discussed and agreed to home at half-past three, which was solemn, just fill out this seventh cats. For the benefit of the public the house. I knew her family was while we were on our bridal tour, the hour I usually dined. Lilian column.

said she, looking up into my face, when I relieved them of one mouth able one, and I intend to adhere to dared not sak her any questions, betters, however, they excepted certainly was not fair that I should | "Is she to go there whether she under which I was laboring were placed before either Mr. or what I was thinking about

Servina Soutrailly to be Resuccess by Roth Sides pay the extravagant expenses of wants to or not?" demanded Mrs. I looked into the sitting room. Mrs. Hayes, and it is stated that making the world believe that my Oliphant. There is room for you in the ranks, my intend to drag me to that house, wife's two sisters were fine ladies. "Am I to stay here whether I I desired to see. I went into the excluded from White House din-I was fighting the battle for my want to or not !" I toplied. In the diming-room. The toble was set pers. own independence, and not less for matter of house keeping, I consult for two, but one of the plates seemed Mr. and Mrs. Hayes attend a to mock me. Lilian was not there, church not far from the executive only say that I am going; and duced, but only because such a one . You will not leave me, Paley, up staire but the same oppressive foot, minus everything like shoddy. There is work to do by the way, my going at seven o'clock this even- as Mrs. Oliphant is taken as a type will you?" pleaded Lilian, satisfied vacancy haunted every spot in the or "style."

" Don't go, Paley !" "Will you name a time when eyes.

servant admitted me. She opened left the house and wandered about manner in which I was victimized. alone.

Paley ?" asked Lilian, sobbing bit- their bills at concerts, theatres, par to-night," I replied, hanging up my had finished her work, she came ties and balls. But this was not hat in the hall. in to the sitting room where I was "Does it look as though I meant the most objectionable part of the "The pretty crayture! Sure I'm looking at the blank sheets of the to desert you when I have nearly arrangement. I could not endure dvin' to have her in the house wid newspaper I held in my hand. She ruined myself to provide a house the thought of having my wife me !" exclaimed Bridget. "Is it begged my pardon for coming. She wanted to know when the 'missus an answer. She told me she coul

I owed no more than before, but I no more about it," I answered, the night alone in the house in pleasant. Was it possible that Lil not like to feave her mother yet." had hampered myself with a promise placing the last of my wearing Needham street.

I had been appared in the trunk, and locking to pay Tom Flynn four hundred appared in the trunk, and locking see you, Paley," said Mrs. Oliphant fault. With her mother's permis miserable night in the loneliness of side of five minutes. I went down to the door, and taken her place by my side. Mrs. from Lilian. I thought she might, "Cruel. Litian! Do I ask any brought the man up with me. 'Lil- Oliphant evidently hed not given at least, send me a note in reply t iten and her mother stood aghast me credit for any considerable mine; but I knew she acted on the "I think you do. You come They appeared to be utterly con- amount of resolution. She was advice of "dear ma." That strong home, and wish to pack me off at founded, and neither of them spoke "the better horse" in her own minded woman evidently intende matrimonial relations, and she to bring me to terms. I "The trunk," I said to the ex found it difficult to comprehend I was more resolute than ever. Before I went to the bank the next morning I decided to wri I tried to read the newspaper 1 one more note - one which him the number of the house in had brought home with me, but not fail to bring the unpleasan my thoughts were with Lilian. I matter to an issue within twenty The man picked up the trank turned over the leaves of the books four Kours of the form and I followed him down stairs. I I had laid on the centre-table. I an advertisement, as follows: "Whereas, my wife, Lilian D. Glass haggage. I was not willing to sinoked. I was almost worn out wood, has left my bed and board, with leave my wife without saying good with fatigue and excitement. I out justifiable cause, I hereby give notice that I shall pay no debts of her contract ing, after this date. that she would yet relent. When I went to bed at midnight, and I Boston, Aug .- PALEY GLASSWOOD "Shall, I insert the above in to-mor

> I sent this epistle to Mr. Oliphant's by Biddy. Though it was directed to Lilian it was intended I rose in the morning, and found for her mother. (To be conlinued. ) DON'T TURN DOWN THE LAMP .-- AD lated by an exchange occurred the the bank. I was not see my wife, other night. In regard to the manbut I decided to write her a line- seement of coal oil lamps it to worthy of notice: A merchant returned home about two o'clock at "DEAREST LALIAN :- I shall hope to "Doubtless she told you that be- find you at our new home when I come night and found his wife lying on "PALEY." the bed groaning heavily, and un up from the bank." turn, and at last, tired but, laid told her not to wait for an answer, herself on the bed, after turning "Such is my purpose, unless she I went to the bank. Everything down the wick of lighted lamp as was "lovely" there. Even Mr. low as possible without extinguish- inquiry room last week. Moody "Of course it is not for me to Bristlebach was "lovely"; and that ing it. In this position of the wick. wrestled with him, and Sankey sang innumerable quantities of specks of n her magnanimous way. "Bat I him. Captain Halliard dropped in soot diffriges itself through the apartmust say I think you are a little to see me. He was "lovely." Tom ment, and so covers the eyes, nose Flynn was in excellent spirits; but and respiratory organs, that on "Well, Mrs. Oliphant, I don't he took occasion to tell me some falling asleep one runs the risk of sed to having best a newspaper care about discussing the subject thing about his business affairs, so suffication. It is always advisable publisher out of a three years sub-

How to Please .- If you really A good stock of Harness, Whips, cow "Sultans the 7th"; by "3d Dule been crying, but whether from wealth was supposed to equal the been crying, but whether from wealth was supposed to equal the suitable home for my wife, it seems have as much of yourself as yet like, be church to him, perhaps he might be been crying, but whether from wealth was supposed to equal the suitable home for my wife, it seems have as wall as you please, but snaked in under the canvas.—

R. R. COOK.

R. R. COOK.

Hard. Rock! Will as you please, but snaked in under the canvas.—

lamps, to sllow the wick to burn

$1.00 per annum in Advance.

lest she should discover the anxiety themselves, for no "wine glasses

She was not in the kitchen! I went residence, to which they repair on pliances were there, but no jewel tof apparel, and were a high-necked flashed upon my waiting, longing dress, declining to expose berself in what is satirically called "full There was no note in reply to dress.

message to me. It was plain enough | personages in the land cannot fail loved me, and that if left to herself | States more than anything else is a

Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Andrews, the village milliner : Mr. Black, the baker : Mr. Jordan, a carpenter; and Mr. I not only dressed the two mar- "Where is the missus " asked I kept thinking without knowing Hadiey, a flour, feed and lumber

Mr. Brown took out of his pocketbook a ten dollar note, and handed t to Mes. Brown, saying : " Here, my dear, are ten dollars toward the 820 I promised you?

Mrs. Brown handed it to Mrs. Andrews, the milliner, saying :-"That pays for my new bonnet." Mrs. Andrews said to Mr. Jordan. as she handed him the note: "That will pay you for your work

Mr. Jordan handed it to Mr. Hadley, the flour, feed and lumber merchant, requesting his lumber bill. Mr. Hadley gave the note back to Mr. Brown saying "That-pays 10 dollars on board. with the remark that that paid her

20 dollars he had promised. She in turn paid it to Mr Black, to settle handed it to Mr. Hadley, wishing; bill, he again returning it to Mr. upon Brown put it back into his pocket book, exclaiming that he 'never thought a ten dollar billi

Gradations of Guilt. The wistom of many peoples, and of all aged ordains for the punishment of the same act various degrees of severity, according to the circumstances; or the gufft of the offenders: Thus homicide may be only killing y misadventure, or wilful murder or high tresson according as the Is the difficiple that the set of the verting to one sales the money of another archibits, in the light to our lofty olvilization, various gradations of guilt which, after the manner of criminal statutes, are signified by appropriate names; the amount of the spoilation being in this case the principle criterion. Thus ---

Taking $100,000 is called a case of Taking $50,000 is called a case of Taking $10,000 is called a cuse of Taking $1,000 is called a case of Embezzlement. Taking $100 is called a case of Dis-

Taking 250 is called a case of Taking $25 is called a case of Total

They had a tough subject in the if the oil is bad, a vapor mixed with with him, but the man seemed to burdened his mind, and he confeshim that they did not profess to perform miracles, but if he would settle up his dues, with compound interest, and pay for three years want to be liked, keep your egotism more in advance, although they

Unfeline. It is proposed to tax

Taking 81,000,000 is called a case

Taking 85,000 is called a case of

of War on Society .- N Y. Graphic.

in the background. You can think could not open the doors of the