THERSDAY MORNING, MAY 31, 1877

-A hopeful aspect of business affairs seems to exist in every quarter at the present time. Should this continue to be the case for the next few months we shall all then be able to realize that we have come tinwigh the ordeal of " bard times" and are on the high road to a prosperous future. The Globe's weekly commercial review says that trade shows brightening signs, and, alto gether, the week has worn a more cheerful aspect. The prospects of the coming harvest are exceptionally good, the weather being most favorably for the growing crops, which are well on in some districts. considering it is yet May, as the tile circles. Mr. Roy has been suspended from his charge.

A few days afterwards a meeting of Mr. Roy's congregation was held for the purpose of organizing a newchurch. A document was read adopting the Congregational form of government. The terms of acmission into the Church are :-- A simple requirement that applicant desired to flee from the wrath to come, and felt a desire to work out the conviction of a new faith. was moved and carried that the name of the new church be the Wesley Congregational Church. After the principles of the new church had been read and signed - by 64 persons, an invitation was extended to Rev. Mr. Roy to become pastor of the newly formed church, after which the meeting adjourned until Friday.
