LOCAL MATTERS. While the Baptist Chapel is undergoing repairs, services will be held at Sunday in the Temperance Hall. The spirit of the new Congregational church was slightly damaged by a stroke of lightning last Saturday evening.

A Dead-Beat "Detective." A medium-sized fellow, about 25 years of age, with spectacles, arrived in Acton last Saturday afternoon. After looking around the village a short while, he went into Maney's hotel and ordered supper and the best room in the house, stating that he intended remaining till Monday.

Acton School Board. The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held in the school house last Monday evening. Present: Messrs. A. Kennedy, chairman; H. J. Hall, W. H. Storey, Edward Moore, and J. C. Laidy.

Base Ball. A game was played on the Guelph Maple Leaf grounds between the Pastimes of Acton, and Silver Creeks, of Guelph, on Saturday. The Mercury says that "through careless play the Pastime scored three runs in the first inning, and the Opeks were a little frightened when their first was a blank."

The two business places belonging to the McNair insolvent estate were put up at public auction yesterday. The old store property was sold to Dr. Freeman, of Georgetown, for $600. The new brick building was bid at about $2,400, by Mr. Jas McNair of Michigan, with the proviso that Mrs. McNair should receive a full discharge from the creditors. Whether or not the sale be this completed remains yet to be decided by the parties interested.

Acton Council. The Council met last Thursday evening, and after having taken and subscribed the necessary oath, formed into a Court of Revision. All the members were present. Mr. Henderson read a list of corrections that it would be necessary to make on the assessment roll, which were taken up seriatim, and disposed of. The alterations made are as follows: James Butler's name inserted as owner of lot 13 in Dickson's survey, instead of Thomas Prout, removed. The letter "E" was added to James Coblin's name. The description of Daniel W. Campbell's lot was corrected, and the letter "W" added to his name. Description of Edward Dines' lot corrected. The letter "W" added to Elijah Deveraux's name. Edward K. Cook inserted as tenant lot 4, block 16. James Goodell inserted as tenant lot 2, block 18. Archibald Campbell inserted as tenant lot 10, block 21, concession. John Maney inserted as tenant of Exchange Hotel instead of John McQuarrie. Albert E. Nicklin inserted as tenant of bakery premises. Patrick Wardell inserted as tenant lot 31, Church street.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Smith, that the assessment roll, as revised, be now confirmed. Carried. On motion of Mr. Christie, seconded by Mr. Smith, the Court dissolved, and the Council resumed. The minutes of previous meeting were read and confirmed.

By permission, Major Allan addressed the Council in reference to the state of Queen street in the vicinity of his premises, requesting that the further digging of sand be stopped, and the street be put in a state of repair fit for travel. Referred to the Street and Sidewalk committee. The Major also made a statement in reference to certain arrears of taxes on a lot now owned by him, for the years 1870-73. Referred to Finance committee.

Mr. John Kennedy, on behalf of himself and several other property owners on Main street, stated to the Council that they wished the sidewalk about to be laid down in front of their premises to be made six feet wide instead of four as was contemplated, and offering to pay the additional expense of the extra six feet. Mr. Christie, in reply, directed the attention of the street committee to the desirability of reducing the hill in front of Mr. Duncan Kennedy's residence. On motion of Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Smith, the matter was referred to the Street and Sidewalk committee, to be reported at the next meeting.

Mr. Henderson, chairman of the Finance committee, reported the following accounts, and recommended their payment: Mr. J. H. Smith's for chair, $20.17. On motion, the report was passed. The Council then adjourned sine die.

House-Breaking. Last Thursday night, two young men with a horse and buggy, on their way from Acton, supposed to be on the "drunk," after having spent the evening in the tavern, were returning home about eleven o'clock. They left the horse at the brick school house, 4th line Esqueing, and went down to Mr. Edwin Worden's shanty, and with the end of a rail burst in the door, breaking the fastening inside. Mr. Worden rushed out, but they made their escape as quick as possible to the buggy, and proceeded up the fourth line. This one unwise act did not satisfy them, for it seems they were bent on mischief. They continued their journey up the 4th line as far as lot No. 4 in Erin, where Mr. Peter Massales lives, and there leaving the horse at the road, they both went up to the house through the garden. One threw a large stone in through the window, breaking it; and the other with a rail broke open the door, as in the first case. Mr. Massales went out immediately and saw the men running toward the road, and driving down the concession line towards Esqueing. By this time the moon was just rising. Mr. Massales' dog was not at home that night, as he had sent him away a few days before. These house-breakers must have known, as the dog would not let any stranger near the house at night if he was at home. The buggy was tracked the next morning. We have not heard as yet whether any further mischief was effected that night. As those parties are known (and they do not live a thousand miles from Acton) we would warn them for their own safety, if they want to have sport, not to resort to such low, mean and unlawful actions, or to bear the consequences, as they will be prosecuted to the utmost rigor of the law. We have supposed them to be drunk, as no sober man would go to molest a poor man, if one who should rather be pitied and assisted by the public. Remember the golden rule, "Do to others as you would they should do to you." A. S. S. S. S. S.
