LOCAL MATTERS.

—June is said to be "the year's best perfect month."

—Milton is to have a new town hall, weighing 400 pounds.

—The Baptist Chapel will be re-opened on Sunday, 24th inst.

—McNair's old stand is being remodeled and fitted up for a drug store, for Mr. J. E. McCarvin.

—A church without a straw-berry festival nowadays can hardly be said to be fulfilling its mission.

—The best value in the market is Christie, Henderson & Co.'s famous 50 lbs. Sod in 5 lbs. lots at 45c.

—Two of James McGuire's fingers were badly damaged in a steam machine, at Coates' factory on Tuesday.

—The doctors look forward to the time of green apples, watermelons and cucumbers for a relief of business.

—Mr. John P. Second started yesterday to attend the session of the Grand Lodge K. of H. at Sarnia, as delegate from the Acton Lodge.

—In Rockwood, the first of July will be celebrated with games, a picnic and a drama, full particulars of which are announced by large posters.

—In Georgetown, a by-law will shortly be voted upon to raise $7000 for the purpose of purchasing the Market Square and erecting a town hall.

—The principal business at the County Council was the equalization of the assessment rolls. The striking of the rate will be done at a special meeting to be convened by the Warden.

—A number of farmers in this neighborhood have already commenced cutting hay. Peas are in full blossom and rye is well headed out. All this indicates that the season is nearly two weeks in advance of what it usually is.

THE VERY LASTEST.—Christie, Henderson & Co. are daily by express adding to their Millinery Stock Room. Everything new and nice. You can always rely on getting the very latest.

The auction sale of dry goods in McNair's new brick store goes on nearly every night. There is a large quantity of good goods to be sold yet, all of which must be closed out in a few days.

—A friendly game of base ball was played on the Live Oak grounds last Saturday between the "Nassauway Club" and "Live Oaks" of the Scotch Block, resulting in favor of the latter by a score of 11 to 5.

—Mr. P. S. Admaston informs us that he has just been adding up the result of his milk business, for the past two years, and finds a total of 17,330 quarts sold; also that he has made a little over 700 lbs. of butter from the surplus milk. He has kept, on the average four cows, giving milk. He says that if he had a few more customers, so that he could afford to reduce the price to four cents per quart.

—By an oversight, we have hitherto omitted to mention that the Georgetown Herald had changed hands. Mr. Starrett sold out a few weeks ago to Messrs. McDonald & Diltz, and we now notice that the firm has already been dissolved, and that the paper is being conducted by Mr. Spleeter Diltz. The new proprietor disavows allegiance to either of the leading political parties, and states his intention of devoting the paper mainly to local matters. Independent newspapers are constantly becoming more and more popular in the estimation of the reading public. We congratulate the Herald on its casting off the shackles of partisanship.

Methodist Conference.

The ministerial appointments for the Guelph District make several changes in this vicinity. Mr. Richard Hobbs, a newly ordained minister, is appointed for Acton, and Mr. Calvert goes to the London circuit. Mr. Wilkinson, of Nassauway, goes to Fergus, and his place is to be taken by Mr. D. McKeon. In Rockwood, Mr. Auld remains another year. For Erin, Jas. A. Lever and J. W. Freeman. For Georgetown, Hugh McLean.

Festivals.

Tea Meeting by the Baptist Congregation on the 25th. Bazaar and Social by the English Church congregation on the 28th. Strawberry Festival by the Sons of Temperance on the 1st of July.

The following paragraph in the Milton Champion, is all true and well deserved:

—Mr. Robert Agnew, the popular proprietor of the Dominion Hotel, Acton, has made great improvements to his premises, the plan of which, with his stables, are arranged in the form of a square around the neatest gravelled court in the county. His hotel is a credit to the village, the rooms being large and airy, the tables and chairs well supplied with the best. Mr. Agnew gives his personal attention to the welfare of his guests, and we cordially recommend his house to the traveling public."

Dentistry.

S. L. Peer, Dentist, will visit Acton the first Thursday of each month.

Office at Agnew's Hotel.

—The following amounts have been granted within the last fortnight, by way of bonus, to the Hamilton & North-western Railway, upon condition that the Company shall complete their line to Glencairn by the close of the present year. The village of Acton gives $8,000, the township of Adjala $2,500, Essex $2,500, Mulmur $5,000 and Toronto $10,000, in all $28,000.

—Mr. J. W. Dower, of Milton, has been appointed Deputy Judge for Halton, and Mr. S. J. Ilana, of Owen Sound, has been appointed Deputy Judge for Grey.

—In the Court of Queen's Bench in Toronto on Saturday, the application was granted for a criminal information against the publishers of the Savoy Canadian for a libelous statement reflecting on the Premier.

—The Milton Champion says that the indications of a Conservative reaction in the county of Halton must be rather discouraging to the party, if the condition of the press may be taken as a criterion.

Less than two years ago there were three rapid Conservative organs: The Oakville Argus, the Milton News, and the Georgetown Herald. The Argus was the first to retire from the field, and the News next followed.
