THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

Telame HI. No. 18-Whole No. 123

ACTON, ONT., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1877.

$1.00 per annum in Advan

BUSINESS GARDS.

GRAND PARE SOLUTION PARE CONTROL OF THE PARE CHARACTER AND CONTROL OF THE PARE CHARACTER CONTROL OF THE PARE CHARACTER AND CONTROL OF THE PARE CHARACTER CHARACT

by every month in chirnish, willing to their own their o oll classes ne. should

Work at

LLS

BER

2 insh

&c.,

WS.

censes,

H

H. LOWRY, M. B., M. C. P. S. Graduate of Trinity College Member of College of Physicians and Surgeons. Office and Residence— rederick Street, Acron, in the house personneed by R. Little, Esq.

DR. R. MORROW, Physilere New York, also Graduate of Victoria offere Canada. Consultation days-

Me Asserance Co. Deeds, Mortgages, high reputation of our bread and to prepared neatly promptly correctly matry will be fully maintained.

Least on Mortgage scentily. Office — Our superior quality of classes House, Acton.

at-Law. Bolicitor in Chancers. Office-Corner of Main and Church

T W. COOPER.

Provincial Land Surveyor and Civil Engineer, Guelph. Orders by mail promptly attended to.

W.M. LAIDLAW, Barrister. willon Office will be under the manage-IAW Will attend at the "Milton Office" as Friday of each Week.

HENRY L. DRAKE,

INSTRINCE ACEST. CTELPIL, All business entrusted to his care will be Bookstore, Guelph, Opters by mail for printed instructions. Agouer in oper-Mostanical Engineer, Solicitor of Pa-

TVILLIAM WATEINS,

(By Royal Appointment.) Business private and confidential office at the Post Office. Glerwilliam,

OLIVER LOZIER, Plasterer,

B. & E. NICKLIN, Proprietors.

Dally. Cash for all kinds of Grain. ROSSIN HOUSE, Acton.

attention paid to the wants of the travel-(ing public, Bar supplied with the best Liquors and Cigars, Good Stabling and

Licensed Auctioneer

TROLLOPE CHAPMAN, "dividend"

All Descriptions of Binding Neatly Executed.

Enling Promptly Attended to counding neighborhood that he ha and most moderate terms.

Caskete, Coffins, Burial Robes,

ings kept in stock, and supplied on the shortest notice. Hat Bands and Gloves supplied when tequired. JOHN SPEIGHT. A CTON BAKERY.

The subscriber in returning thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed Residence-West Bower street, upon the late firm of Galloway Bros. solicits a continuation of the same, feeling assured that the utmost satis faction will be given, and that the BREAD, BUNS AND CAKES They are falling on the streamlet, D. MATHESON, Attorney- Delivered fresh around the village Where the silvery waters flow, and vicinity every day. A stock always on hand at the Bakery paying monthly customers. Wedding and Fancy Cakes ble notice, and satisfaction guaran-

All goods are warranted pure, as nothing but the best material is used R. T. GALLOWAY. Acon, Oct. 17, 1877.

ROOKS FOR

In stock at

Day's New Bookstore

GUELPH.

The Sunday Teacher's Treasury.

Counsels to S. S. Teachers, by T

Ready for Work, by W.H. Crosier

A cheap, big stock at Day's book

Life and Accident

INSURANCE COMPANY

Of Hartford, Conn.

Policy-holders 1,170,855

certain promises of impossible "divi-

C. F. RUSSELL,

33 Adeaide Street East, oronto

ILSON IRWIN, Special Agent.

District Agent,

Surplus for protection of

Deposit with Dominion Government

Barnes' Notes, &c., &c., &c.

Our Work, by W. H. Crosier.

The Bibical Treasury.

ouisa Davis.

Robert Dunning

Cooper.

The Note Book.

hrist, by G. B. Johnson.

chool, by J. G. Fitch

tore. Day sells cheap.

TRIVELERS

They are falling, they are falling, While our saddened thoughts still go To the sunny days of childhood, In the dreamy long ago. TEACHERS

And their faded hues remind us Of the blighted hopes and dreams, Faded like the falling leatlets

Cast upon the icy steams.

FALLING LEAVES.

Where they waved in beautoon

They are falling, slowly falling,

Sovered from the noble brauches,

They are falling in the valleys,

They are falling, sadly falling,

Where the early violets spring,

First their dulcet music ring.

Close beside our cottage door :

That have gone forever more.

They are falling, and the sunbeams

Shine in beauty soft around :

Yet the faded leaves are falling,

And upon its placed bosom

Onward with the waters go.

They are falling in the churchyard.

Where the idle winds of summer

They are falling, over falling,

Where our kindred sweetly sleep ;

Boftly o'er the loved ones sweep.

Whon the Autumn breezes sigh,

When the stars in beauty glisten

Bright upon the midnight sky.

They are falling when the tempest

Moans like ocean's hollow roar,

Sadly sigh for evermora.

When the tuneless winds and billows

Falling on the grassy mound.

Pale and faded, like the loved ones,

And the birds, in sunny spring-time,

Thick upon the forest side.

pride.

UBERALL DU.

The girl was as gay as a lark the ball had been a delightful one the music still pulsed in her ear The Sunday School-an essay by until her very heart kept the beat. Young, beautiful, beloved and The Child and the Book, by wealthy, this little Jennie of ours The Apostle Peter, by Samuel had the cream of this world at her feet, and as she took off her jewelry and flowers, and prepared herself for sleep, it was with a smile on

The Four Gospels of the one dreamy eyes. One piece of jewelry she held in The Art of Teaching in a Sunday her clasped hand lingeringly, as if it were too dear to lay aside. It was a pretty trinket, a gold clasp or bar, and swinging from it by two tiny golden chains a polished Florida sea bean, dark as ebony, mounted like a locket. A legend foreign tongue: "Uberall Du." Jennie's eyes scanned the words | quiet. intently. " How stupid I am not Paid-up Cash Capital 8600,000 put it tenderly away in her casket. It was a trifling thing, but even that is precious from the man you her feet all winter. People said dends," but a reduction of the prethey were engaged, and considered the match certain, as people will when the principals in the game elers writes Life and Accident Policies combined as cheap as most are not at all sure. It was not so companies write life policies. It is in this case. He had not proposed 436,000 policies and paid in actual nie felt a growing uneasiness lest go home. holders alone over $2,565,000. An had pinned her clasp upon her ation to her. shoulder amid her snowy laces. week, Jennie's heart had given quite a leap that had dyed her locket seemed precious to her. Ella Stuart, on the avenue, she | way." asked her, as if it were a sudden

German ?" What did you ask for ?"

and I saw a few German words in happiness. a love-love story-" stammered Jennie, "and I could not make out | where have your eyes gone to the sense of them, and you know You studied German at Madam how aggravating that is!"

"What were the words?" "As near as f can remember the words," smoothly said our dimple-faced deceiver "they were where Jennie's last cheerful Uberall Du" --

"Uberall - Du - m-m-m," murmured Ella. "Whyl I remember, it is a line out of German | Miss Norah was horrified by "A pair of blue eyes for ten cents."

your heart ache. "Why; Jennie! what is the heart.

matter!" she exclaimed, catching her by the arm, Jennio just had strength left to totter into a sliop near by, and sink into a seat, it seemed. She was too proud whispering she "was faint," did own her mistake, and take back (not feel well all day, etc., making her hateful words and manner, and at the same time a sign for her seek him in any way, and pride companion not to attract attention, which one Ella was quick to take, stock of ribbons," etc. as she had fallen ill, and Ella planned a fishing excursion to a Many of the forgers, peculators, make a hollow in the center; into lameness does not depend upon thought it only over-fatigued after large forest stream which crossed and violators of trust funds have this put one quart of luke-warm the size of the formation. An the ball. What would she have the stage road a mile or two be- slipped into dishonest ways unin- water, one tablespoonful of salt, one animal may be very lame with but thought had she seen our poor | youd the hotel. Jennie an hour later, sobbing, face | Jennie crept away from the and hoping to be able to retrieve it. of yeast; have ready three pints of show but little lameness with a down on her dainty bed, she lock- others with a rod and line, and But in days like these, when finan- warm water, and use as much of it very large ringbone. Very often to fight, and well she fought it. "So it is all over with me. it?" thought she : "and I imagined he loved me as well as I did him! How ashamed I feel, that I did not hide my feelings better. Now I know he was just trifling. I'll never love a man again as long as I live! Never, never! and he shall never speak to me againshall nover see in my face how.

badly I feel.f" Poor Jennie. The day arrived upon which he had promised to be in town, and also to take her to drive. Jennie was in a fearful state of excitement all day.

That afternoon, late, a wellknown ring was heard at the door. Jennio's heart gave a perfect surge but when the servant looked at her inquiringly, she answered glance with a cool "Engaged John," and hurried to her room, to cry over her mortification.

Next day came a note in Mr. Hamlin's well-known hand. she declined to read it, and sealing it in another envelope, she returned her lips and a happy light in her it, and with it the locket, "thanking Mr. Hamlin for his kindness in permitting her to inspect it, and pronounced it very pretty, and herself his respectfully," etc .- very high and mighty.

She was horrible wretched the next few weeks, and did not go in society. She had a morbid idea her story might be out, and, as it was engraved on the bar in a was, Lent came just in time to give her an excuse for being so

She pined so visibly that her to be able to translate this German." friends thought her health flagging, thought she. "It is something and sent her to visit some relations dear, I know, and just the thing, in another State. She tried to be or Royall would not have had it. happy, but was not particularly I wish I could sacrifice my pride successful, in fact, her efforts were enough to ask him the meaning of a miserable failure; it was hard to it; but he thinks I can read it, see which was preying upon her 4,054,000 and I am ashamed to let him know most, disappointed love or a per-I'm such a dunce, after four years fect agony of mortification, at the at boarding school. Never mind, thought how transparent her heart I shall discover the meaning some had been to him, and how he had time," and, with a blush and a treated it like a toy. She was alsmile she kissed the trinket and ways seeking a resolution of his apparently gratuitous insult. she could not find it! Had somebody been laughing about her patent devotion to him? Did he mean to taunt her with the utter hopelessness of her love! ground these bitter questions over in a hundred ways, and was like to break her heart.

Spring came and Jennie graduthe largest Accident Insurance Com- to Jennie, though he was all de- ally regained a degree of her old votion, and, to tell the truth, Jen- serenity, but she did not wish to

she was becoming fond of him too In the family of her friends was accident policy costs but a trifle. No soon; but she could not bear to a charming girl of her own age, medical examination required. Get distress herself with the thought, and they were fast friends, but s policy and share in the general So, when this eve at the ball he Jennie never spoke of her mortific-

One day they were talking over and murmured in her ear in their the approaching marriages of Aunt quiet nook in the window that he Norah. "Jennie," she said, "I would have something to say to never showed you the dear ring her when he returned to town next | Leonard gave me last fall, did I ? "No! let me see it."

Norah brought it, it was a beaut sweet little face, scarlet; and he, ful turquoise in a heavy gold hoop noting it, had gone off with eyes and something was engraved inside full of triumph. No wonder her the hoop. Jennie tried to read it Norah caught the glance. "Uberall The next afternoon after the Du, Jennie, isn't that sweet in Len ball, as Jennie was walking with to tell me so in such a darling

"What is it?" asked Jennie in thought, if "she remembered her a quaking, uncertain voice, feeling somehow as if her life bung on "Not well, Jennie-pretty rusty! thread, that thread the significance of the words, "Uberall Du," words "Because I have forgotten mine, which had proved so fatal to her

"Why, 'Thee, over all.' Jennie Armand's with me; forgot so

" So that was it, 'Thee over all and what a fool she had been, eh? down by Norah's side in a dead the little girl.

poetry! and means 'All is over Jennie's sudden attack, but when In Chicago you can get a pair of She looked round at Jennie, tri- cousin she was in the habit of than that. umphantly, just in time to catch a fainting at actually nothing, and perfect expression of dismay on a the parlor must have been too poor blancked face, enough to make warm. She deceived Norah thoroughly, but not her own poor

Then she went up stairs and pondered upon "the situation." The more she pondered the worse

" carried the day." Her father sent her into the and carried out by an energetic | mountains that summer, and, with chattering with madame with the a few friends, wandered about; friz, as to the equality of pink but the grace and charm of God's were "French," as also her " whole | whispering pine, and trickling without perceiving it. As she stood quietly on the bank watching a floating leaf, a voice behind her made her start with it-so dear.

"Can you tell me, miss, how far am from the stage road ?" looked into the face of Royal Hamlin. She actually relished his look this state of affairs? of utter dismay and disconcert-

"I-beg your pardon, Miss Dane," said the amateur sportsman, stiffly. "I did not recognize you, the road lies. I think I have come so far I must be lost myself."

He stood gazing at her, speechless: At last he stammored: "Miss Dane - Jennie - you called me Royall : you do not seem angry now. Tell me, in the name of God, what got you so furious at me last winter," and he pressed closer to her side by the brook bank.

Jennie hung her head. Unresistingly, she permitted him to gather the little hand up in his strong fingers, and take a seat by her side on the moss, and draw her down beside him on the turfy bank there they sat like a couple of idiots., for very gladness; Jennie's fishing tackle, fly, line and ro went sailing leisurely off down stream; Jennie struggled herself, and finally managed to

I misunderstood—something—I -couldn't read-that stuff on the of you, Royall! you know it would," be, are powerful elements in time the soup is done it will have stituting a serious abscess. him, smiling in the most dazzling manner the next minute.

cause of all this misunderstanding! "Why Jennie!" and his tone was full of chagrin, "why I thought it was so neat!" So Jennie told him all about when they went hunting for the powerful than precept.

ful color and happy eyes.

schools generally.

"That is unremitting attention," the student said when his father forgot his usual allowance. Why is a beefsteak like a locomotive? Because it is not of much account without its tender. A Sunday-school teacher asked

An Eastern paper advertises :

men regard their wives as angels. | against that dishonesty which al- the price at all."

The Epidemic of Fraud. It is always impossible to take

From every city and town comes up the story of some clerk, or speculated with money that was origin of their faith than can be a rule, however, it never gives innot his own and has come to grief- found in all the theological sermons in many cases damaging others as of the last eighteen hundred years? much as himself. It would almost At all events, the experiment is crush roses, which madame insisted country, of rocky ledge, and balmy fraud was sweeping over the country. Of course much of this may mountain brook, cold and clear, had be simply the unveiling of a disease Jennie grew better as suddenly no charm for her. One day they more or less prevalent at all times. pounds of flour into a deep pan, and varies in size; but the degree of ed in the secred retreat of her strayed along the brookside, cial affairs are very unsettled, dis- as is necessary to make a rather the circle of the ring is defective, through quivering lights and shades honest people fail as well as honest soft dough, mixing and kneading and the deposit appears only on > more of it than is agreeable. And more; then divide it into two or in the bone. people, is there no remedy for make eight pounds of bread, and spinatus muscles, together with, > study in all our schools of the six. In cold weather, the dough unusual freedem. Pain is express-lead on to death and ruin.

factors of dishonesty.

Royall had "Uberall Du," en its days of boasting are gone. graved on Jennie's wedding ring, | Why ? Surely not because the | baker. with the laudable intention of Christian Fuith in its simplicity teaching her German more effec. and purity is less effective as a type-setter. tively than it is taught in boarding moral force to-day than it was eighteen centuries ago ?

life of Christian society has become faint and feeble, it is time for all her class the question : " What did | increased ; but that the morals of thoughts as she slipped quietly Simon say?" "Thumbs up!" said society may be quickened, and Jennie revived she assured her black-and-blue eyes for less money belief' in its varying phases, could Some vile old traducer says that fushionable habits; against loose your cold?" said a lady to a sneez- wound. When the skin is divide I for the period of a month before ness of living; against the "white ing gentleman. "Oh, I'll sell it and torn, with ragged, unever up a paper these days without seeing a report of some embezzlement. manager, or treasurer, who has give better evidence of the divine large, it may cause lameness. As seem as though an epidemic of worth trying. -London Advertiser.

drilling in the fundamental prin- ing; if it does not rise well, set majority of cases actual lameness least, Royall," said Jennie' quiet- a far better education for many vessel of boiling water; it is best bellow space upon either side of ly, with scarlet face; "but I am young people than a mathematical to mix the bread at night, and let the scapular spine, extending its sorry I cannot tell you which way or classical course. It would so it rise till morning, in a warm and whole length. strengthen their moral natures that even temperature.

In this matter people of all "Good heavens!" he exclaimed creeds as well as of no creeds are plain boiled lentils into a sauceexcitedly, as a light dawned in slike interested. Indeed, it is a pan, cover them with any kind of upon him, "you don't mean to say lamentable fact that too many of pot-liquor, add one ounce of chopmy little German motto on that the convicted peculators of the ped onion, two ownces of drippings, clasp was misrepresented and the present day are profound Christians. | quarter of an once of chopped par-And this gives rise to the question : sley, and stew gently for twenty Can it be that the pulpit has been | minutes; serve hot. This dish somewhat neglectful of its duty! costs about ten cents. Has it given too much attention to theology, and too little to morals?

as they nestled among the leaves, -too much to Faith and not quart each of potatoes and onions, the joints. According to the dethe hush, and dreaminess of the enough to Works? Are our and put them in Asyers in a pot, gree of the sprain, the fibrous parts forest. The light and air that churches sometimes too desirous of seasoning them with one table of the joint may be simply stretchsurrounded them, that bathed them | worshipping in costly edifices | spoonful of salt, and level teaspoon- jed, or they may be ruptured. The in its waves, was not of heaven or; and does the necessity of paying ful of pepper; mix quarter of a symptoms are swelling around the earth, it was rose-colored ! Jennie for a costly edifice sometimes lead pound of flour with water, gradual | sprained part, attended by lamecould complain no more of Royall's | church authorities to countenance | ly using three pints of water and ness, uncertainty, because he was very doubtful methods of raising money! pour it over the stew; put the pot Sprain of the Metacarpi Interexplicit in his remarks, and later, Example is said to be even more over the fire and boil it gently for nus. This is visible over the tra-

road, and found the rest of the In the early days of the Chrisfishers. Jennie's health was visibly tian Church its apologists pointed en pudding dish quarter of a pound | Sprain of the Metacarpi Extenimproved, judging by her beauti with pride to the wonderful effect of well washed rice, three pints sor Magnus. - Indicated by a swell-It turned out Royall was due at upon morals and conduct in an age a little spice, or flavoring; bake it above it. her hotel, his baggage had already preeminent for vice and fraud. gone on, and he had left the stage | Then they could ask, with triumph- and a half. It costs about eighteen | nus This is made visible by an for a ramble, intending to cross the ant voices, for the pagen world to cents. road in time for the evening stage. | point out a Christian who had sub-As it was, he rode home with stituted wills, who had forged notes, the party. What need to tell any | who had embezzled funds, who had robbed widows and orphans. But

If, as is apparent, the religious who profess in any degree a belie in the faith, whether clerical or lay, to fan the dying embers to new brightness. Not that religious | the baby is "cribbed" at night. revivals may be developed, and churches built, and church members fraud and dishonesty repressed. Instead of theological discussions, and denominational contests, and fierce struggles with so-called "untravagance? against devotion to ways commences by intending to Some Common Allments of 'make it right in a " little while?" If Christians of all sects, Catholic and Protestant, could throw all their force into the effort to purify life and conduct, might they not!

Household Receipts. Homemade Bread .- Put seven tentionally-taking a false step, teaspoonful of sugar, and half a gill little deposit, and another may Poor child | she had her battle among green leaves and shadowy ones, and then there comes a revel- it well with both hands. When it one side of the limb, or on both places, she went so far she was lost ation of fraud which might under is smooth and shining strew a little sides, and none in front. When other circumstances have remained flour upon it, lay a large towel over at the side they do not cause the it flolded, and set it in a warm same degree of lamoness as when But whether there is really more place by the fire for four or five in front.

will require one hour shaking to two probably, the abductor magnus and Some believers in the omnipotent | pounds of dough. It will cost about | teres exturnus. The humorous. "You did not disturb me in the ciples of right and wrong would be the pan containing it over a large does not occur. There will be a in after years they would the more Pea Soup .- Use half a pint, or of shoulder lameness is indicative readily detect and the more easily seven ounces of dried peas, for every of the seat of disease. The patient oppose the incidious beginnings of two quarts of soup you want. Put does not carry his himb straight evil courses which, if unheeded, them in three quarts of cold water. forward, but with a rotary motion, after washing them well; bring the limb being thrown outwards, But it is to be feared that Moral them slowly to a boil; add a bone, and the toe made to form the seg-Science would be unable to with or bit of ham, if you have it to ment of a circle; in other words, stand the force of social customs spare, one turnip and one carrot he brings the leg forward, with a and the extravagances of modern peeled, one onion stuck with three sort of sweep, and the toe is draglife. The desire to appear as well cloves, and simmer three hours. ged or trailed on the ground. or better than our neighbors; to stirring occasionally to prevent keep as fine houses, to wear as burning; then pass the soup good clothes, to give as large parties, through the sieve with the aid of a lible during the elevation of the seem to have become part of our potato masher, and if it shows any foot from the ground; whereas, in nature. Whether we have the sign of settling stir into it one feet and other diseases below the means to do it or not is of second- tablespoonful each of butter and knee, the converse is the rule. ary importance; we must keep up flour mived together dry, this will with what we conceive to be the prevent settling; meantime fry convulsive motion of the muscles requirements of fashionable life. some dice of stale bread, about two of one or both hind lega. Otherwise, our neighbors will think slices, cut half an inch square, in we are mean and stingy; or, worse hot fat, drain them on a sieve, and injury to the knee. It is inflicted than all, poor. The dread of our put them in the bottom of the soup by the horse striking his knee with neighbors' sneer, no matter how tureen in which the pea soup is the opposite foot. The symptoms undeserved it be, and the desire served; or cut some bits of very are inflammation and swelling of over with me'-and-that would for our neighbor's praise, no matter hard stale bread, or dry toast, to the skin, collection of fluid in the have been abominably impertinent how insincere and hollow it may use instead of fried bread. By the sub-cutaneous areoler tissue, con-she flashed through her tears at modern society, and are prime boiled down to two quarts, and will be very thick and good. Stewed Lentils.-Put a pint of an hour and a half. Rice Pudding .- Put in an earth- of the knee. in a moderate oven about an hour Party ties-White cravats. What is pity-Cheap charity.

Stewed Tripe,-Cat in small

A highly intelligent dog-the Man respires, aspires, conspires,

An ill-bred act-Cheating the

A phenomonen of pottery-the litely termed a floating debt.

Real case of kidnapping-When The ways of women -anywhere om ninety to two hundred pounds. A father of a two weeks old

Take care of your health and wife; they are the two better halves that make a man of you. marriage and a month after death, lies" of business and society; very chean; I won't haggle about edges, it is called a lacera of Horses. Ringbone is of two kinds true and false. The false ringbone is an enlargement situated above the middle of the bone. When very convenience to the animal. The true ringbone is quite another matter. There are two kinds -the high and the low. It is called high when it involves the bone immediately above the joint. Ringbone, whether high or low, dishonesty abroad than usual, or hours to rise; then kneed it again | Ringbones are not the cause, but astonishment; so well known was only the average amount, it is a for fifteen minutes, cover it with the result of disease, being the relamentable fact that there is much the towel, and set it to rise once sult of an inflamation originating the serious question arises in the four loaves, and bake it in a quick Shoulder Slip .- This is a sprain Jennie turned deliberately and minds of all comparatively honest oven. This quantity of flour will or laceration of the fibres of the force of education might be dispos- thirty cents, and will last about lacking the tension of these muscles, ed to recommend the thorough two days and a half for a family of rotates outward at every step with elements of Moral Science. And should be mixed in a warm room, sed in recent cases, and wasting of or I would not have intruded upon there can be no question that a and not allowed to cool while ris- the muscles just named. In the Shoulder Lameness.-The gait In shoulder or knee lameness, the signs of pain are more discern-

Speedy cut.—Is the name of an Seedy Too. This term is applied to a perverted secretion of horn at the dower margin of the ospedis lower bone of the foot), by which the crust becomes deteched from the horny laminar. Thorough Pin.-Thorough pin is a bursal enlargement situated on the lower part of the thigh and upper and back part of the hock. Thrush .- A discharge of fætid material from the frog. Spayin .- A violent twisting or pieces one pound of tripe, half a straining of the soft parts around pexinn on the inner and lower part which the religion of Christ had of milk, four ounces of sugar, and ing in the front of the knee and Sprain of the Metacarpi Exterenlargement on the outside of the knee, over the small metscarpul Sprain of the radical Ligaments. -Is manifested by lameness, a difficulty in flexing the tenee, with swelling, beat and tenderness immediately above the knee. Sprain of the Pson Muscles .-Inability to rise when down; a knuckling over at the fetlock joints when standing; when made to walk he drags his legs or trails them. There is scarcely any ele-An unpaid for yacht is now po- vation of the foot or flexation of the joints, and a great tendency is shown to knuckle over at every Sprain of the fetlock Joint .- In inflammation of the fetlock joint. from whatever cause, the lameness is characterized by inability to flex baby calls it " Me's newly discov- the joint, by heat, swelling, pain or pressure. Wounds .- A wound made with clean-cutting instrument is an incised wound. A wound inflicted What do you propose to take for forating the skin, is a contused

-fresh and cheap for cash. No credit given except to prompt addressed to Guelph of Ikon Post Utilce will receive prompt attention. DATENTS for INVENTIONS Patent garanteed or no charge." Send sente and Branghisman. Imper Marriage Licenses & Cemificates

MES S. CARTER. Teacher of Hucic, Drawing and French,

Plastering and Rough-casting done on CTON FLOUR MILLS.

Flour and Feed alwars on hand, whole-ficellent accommodation for the travel-ling public. THOS, CAMPBELL, Propr. DOMINION HOTEL, Acton, Bobert Agnew, Proprietor, This new Hotel is fitted up in first-class style with new furniture. Commercial

TYM. HEMSTREET,

For the Counties of Wellington and 'Hal-Office, Acton, or at my residence, in the Low Rate all-cash plan. No un- love. Royall Hamlin bad been at Rockwood, will be promptly attended to.

BINDERS St. George's Square, Gueph Orders left at the FREE PRESS

777

The undersigned begs leave to inform the people of Acton and surprocured a magnificent HEARSE And is prepared to attend and conduct Punerals on the shortest notice and all kinds of Funeral Furnish.

public generally that no is prepared to

First-class Horses and Carriage At Reasonable Rates. His Rigs and Horses are the best the be surpassed by any City Stable.

Acton July 1st, 1875.

TOB PRINTING of all kinds with thee." atly : if scomptly executed at the

FREE PRESS OFFICE,

Next the Post Office, Mill Street.