Mr. Storey's Requisition.

We have found that the village of Acton is not entirely free from political bigots. During the past week there has been not less than six of those persons brought us to task for publishing the requisition to Mr. Storey.

Messrs. D. D. Christie, M. Speight, E. Nicklin, C. S. Smith and Jas. Ryder withdrew.

The Clerk declared the meeting adjourned till Monday, Jan. 7, 1878, when a poll will be taken.

Mr. Storey thanked the electors for the honor they had conferred in nominating him for the first office in the Council.

Some persons said it was personal hostility which brought him out against Dr. McGarvin.

He would inform them it was nothing of the sort. There had been a great amount of indifference manifested by the Council of last year.

Sometimes they did not meet for four months, which did not give the public an opportunity of presenting any petitions.

He was sure of election, as he thought the electors had situated enough to see who should be elected.

He again thanked them for the honor they had conferred upon him.

Dr. McGarvin was sorry that Mr. Storey had made some allusions to the Council of 1877.

He denied that the business of the Council had been neglected.

If Mr. Storey had looked into the business of this Municipality he would have seen different.

He thought he had filled the office of Reeve for the past two years in a business way.

The money of the Municipality had been spent in a judicious manner.

The tax rate in this Village was lower last year than it had been before, it being four and a half mills on the dollar—lower by one-half a mill than ever before.

No one could say but that the Council had practised economy. He then submitted some figures to the electors, showing the receipts and expenditure of the Village during the past two years.

He said the bonus question was used as a lever to throw him out. He was not in favor of granting a bonus to a man who was going to rent his place to another and he had come to the conclusion that it was not right to grant the bonus for $2,000 to any man.

Mr. Storey showed, by figures, the advantage to be derived by the Council granting a bonus to Mr.

the County Council, and fully explained the subject of the additions to the County roll.

The additions to the roll would, when finished, cost $15,000 and some odd $300 or $400.

The County had issued debentures to the amount of $10,000, which had been sold for 100 per cent.

He thought the County Council could not have done better.

The funds of the County of Halton are in a healthy condition.

In conclusion, he thanked them for the honor conferred on him in nominating him for the third time as Reeve of the Village of Acton.

Mr. Storey was confident of election, but sometimes people get disappointed. It was not for him to say whether he would be elected or not, but for the electors.

He hoped they would record their vote for one who had recognized in the expenditure of the Village money.

Mr. Henderson, chairman of the Finance Committee, gave a lengthy account of the receipts and expenditure of the Council during the past year.

which showed a good sum in the treasury with which to commence on the coming year.

He said he had no intention of running for any position in the Council for the coming year.

It was not because he did not expect to be nominated, as he could have been had he wished.

There are quite a number of persons, who, he thought, were just as good as he was, and who should have a chance to get into the Council.

He had been in the Council one year and that was sufficient for any one person.

Mr. Christie, chairman of the Committee on Streets and Sidewalks gave an account of the expenditure of that Committee during the past year.

He stated that the Committee had experienced considerable difficulty during the year, as it was rather hard work to please everybody.

Before presenting a report to the Council, the report was always carefully considered by all the members of the Committee.

The work done on the streets had not all been given to one contractor, but was given to all the unemployed men in the village.

He read several of the reports which had been submitted to the Council, so that the electors could see whether the money had not been judiciously spent.

He thanked the electors for their kindness during the past two years.

He thought they had a right to hand the honor of being councillor round, and he was one of those who wished to give others a chance.

He could have been nominated as Reeve had he wished, but, as his time and business would not permit and he was intending to visit Europe, he did not want to try for an office unless he could devote his whole time and attention to it.

He again thanked them for the kindness he had received at their hands during his stay in Acton.

Mr. C. S. Smith thanked the electors for the honor they had conferred upon him during the past year.

He thought that others should have a share of the honor during the coming year, therefore he would not allow himself to be nominated.

Mr. E. Nicklin had not much to say. He was tired of being a councillor. One year satisfied him, and he thought it would satisfy most any person who tried it.

The clerk stated that he was ready to hear the new candidates speechify.

Mr. John Coates was absent.

Mr. M. Speight had nothing to say.

Mr. John Speight said he had been requested several times to run for Councillor. He would not consent to go around and ask any person to vote for him.

If there was a big salary at the back of it he would not mind going around and shaking hands and ask how the folks were, but as it is it would not pay. He was dead against the bonus business.

They had squashed the little brass business, and he could not see the gain in Mr. Beardmore getting a bonus for his tannery.

He said if they liked to elect him they could, but he would not work to secure his election.

Mr. Eli Snyder said he did not ask for the job. He had consented to act by request of a number of ratepayers.

He would leave it to them whether he would be elected. If elected, he would do his best in the Council.

Mr. C. T. Hill was absent.

Messrs. Christie, Speight, McGarvin and Storey had considerable discussion about some lots in the Village, which should have been sold for taxes.

Boardman. It would be a good public investment. These very men who are opposed to bonus business were the very ones who were in favor of giving a bonus to the brass factory.

Mr. Goodall also expressed his opinion on the bonus question.

The meeting then adjourned.

Acton Village Council. A special meeting of the Council was held at Matthews' Hall, on Thursday, December 27, at 2 o'clock. All the members present. The Reeve in the chair. The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

The Reeve read a communication from Mr. W. H. Storey, tendering his resignation as surety for Mr. John Ross, Village Treasurer, and asking that the Council relieve him from the same, on Mr. Ross's new bonds, as he intended to run for an office in the Council of next year.

The Reeve said the principal reason for his calling the special meeting was to consider the communication of Mr. Storey. He did not want to put anything in the way of Mr. Storey, and he thought it would be better to release him, provided it was legal to do so. He did not apprehend any danger from trespassing on the law in this case.

Mr. Henderson and Mr. Christie were also willing to release Mr. Storey, provided it was legal, but they thought that Mr. Storey was not in such a position that he could accept the nomination at present.

Mr. Storey, being present he was asked to give his opinion on the subject. He said that the only reason why he wanted the Council to accept his resignation as surety for Mr. Ross was because he wished to show every respect to the requisition which had been presented to him by the electors, but if the Council should find that it was not legal to release him, he was willing to stand by their ruling. He had been thinking over the matter and thought it would not be legal until the audit was completed. But he would like them to release him so that he could run for office at the next election if not at this. However, he was satisfied they would do the best they could under the circumstances, and he was confident the Council would do nothing to burke his election.

A motion was then prepared, granting relief to Mr. Storey from all future liability on account of his bond, which Mr. Storey thought would not be sufficient, nor did he then believe the Council could grant him the requisite relief. It was decided to leave the matter over to the next meeting of Council in order to give the members an opportunity to consider it.

Moved by Mr. Nicklin, seconded by Mr. Christie, that this Council give Mr. Donald Cameron the sum of $5, being two-thirds value of a lamb killed by dogs, the owners of which were not known. Carried.

Mr. Henderson presented the eleventh report of the Finance Committee, recommending the payment of the following accounts: J. H. Hacking, printing, $2.50; John Ross, Treasurer, postage, &c., $1.50. Total, $4.00.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Smith, that the eleventh report of the Finance Committee be adopted. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Henderson, that this Council adjourn till Saturday, 29th, at 1 o'clock. Carried.

The Council met, pursuant to adjournment, on Saturday, December 29, at 1 o'clock. Members all present. The Reeve in the chair. The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

Mr. Henderson presented the report of the Finance Committee, recommending the payment of the following accounts: W. J. Hughes, cleaning sidewalk by direction of constable, $2; Moore & Galbraith, printing, $2.25. Total, $4.25.

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Smith, that the twelfth report of the Finance Committee be adopted. Carried.

The matter of releasing Mr. Storey as surety of the Treasurer was then taken up, when the following motion was proposed:

Moved by Mr. Henderson, seconded by Mr. Christie, that this Council approve of Messrs. James Matthews and Thomas C. Moore, as sureties of Mr. John Ross, Treasurer of this Municipality, in lieu of Mr. W. H. Storey, and James Moore, who desire to be relieved; and that, on completion of proper bonds, executed by said James Matthews and Thos. C. Moore, as sureties for said Treasurer, and covering all liability as sureties from the date of the last audit of the Village accounts, the said W. H. Storey and James Moore be released from all liability on account of such suretyship.

Mr. Storey said if the resolution was passed he would not object to it, but it was for the Council to decide whether they should pass it or not, and if they found it was illegal he did not wish them to pass it.

Council adjourned till 7 o'clock the same night.

This is a progressive age. New features are constantly being introduced, old theories are revolutionized. The age, which but a few years since was unthought of in that connection, has been introduced in our public and it has become almost a necessity for every family to possess either a piano, or both, and it is important that all should know where the best instruments can be bought for the least money.

Daniel P. Beatty Esq., of Westchester, New Jersey, has a world wide reputation for making the best, and we believe his prices compare favorably with other first class makers. We would earnestly recommend all who write to him for information before buying.

turns partly owned by him. He prided himself that they had never allowed any employee of theirs to request them for an advance in wages, as they always increased the wages of those who were deserving, before waiting to be asked, provided the firm felt itself in a proper position financially, so to do. He was sure he would always remember his employees with respect and kindness, and would now wish them all a happy new year, with many returns of the same.

Mr. Edward Moore said he did not expect when he was asked to go to the office that he would be presented with such a beautiful and handsome present. He was much obliged and took pleasure in expressing his thanks to those who were employed by him, and always felt that the employees were willing to do anything which they were asked to do. He concluded by wishing all a happy new year.

Mr. Jay Moore expressed his thanks, and acquiesced with everything which Mr. Storey had said. He believed that this present showed a sympathy between employees and employer which ought always to be found there, and hoped that in future as in the past they would study to work so that it would mutually benefit each other. Hoping that they would all have a happy new year he again thanked them for the beautiful present of which he had been made the recipient.

Sons of Temperance Soiree. The annual soiree, given by the Acton Division, No. 242, Sons of Temperance, on Tuesday evening, was a grand success. The Temperance Hall was literally crowded by those wishing to spend a pleasant evening.

The Acton Brass Band was present and played several airs during the evening, which tended to enliven the proceedings. Mr. John Speight was appointed chairman, and conducted himself in his usual happy manner. After prayer by the Rev. Mr. Cook, tea was passed round, during the serving of which a pleasant celeste took place. The choir, under the leadership of Mr. H. Gibbons, sang "A Happy New Year" in splendid style, after which Master James Lutzler gave an instrumental piece on the organ, which was executed in good style. The chairman gave a short address, and was followed by Mr. Gibbons and company in a song and chorus "The Old Log Cabin in the D.D." Another instrumental piece was given by Master Lutzler. The playing of this young man is excellent. Mr. J. J. W. Simpson, of St. Mary's gave an excellent lecture on the subject of temperance. Miss Eliza Cameron gave a solo in her usual pleasing manner. An instrumental piece by Mr. Chas. Carter drew forth great applause. Rev. D. B. Cameron moved a vote of thanks to Mr. J. W. Simpson for his very elegant lecture, which was carried unanimously. The entertainment closed by the band playing "God save the Queen."
