

THE FREE PRESS, ACTON, HALTON COUNTY, ONT., JULY 18, 1878.

Sermon in the Methodist Church, over Sabbath, both morning and evening at 10 A.M. and 3 P.M., respectively.
Rev. R. Burns, Pastor.

LOCAL MATTERS.

—Circular Combs, Back Combs, Fine Combs, Vases, Pictures, Gold & Pearl Jewelry, All kinds of Watchs, Clocks, Jewellery and Spectacles received at Groat Hynd's Jewellery store.

—Division Court yesterday.

—Ice cream at C. W. Hill's.

—Is that subscription paid yet?

—Read Hynd's new advertisement.

—Everything was quiet in this village on the 13th.

—The wheat in this section of the country looks well.

—Are you going to Cope's show, in Guelph, next Saturday?

—Veneer is wrong again; it didn't get any cooler on the 14th.

—Strawberries have gone; Raspberries and Cherries are all the go.

—The purest Paris Green in the market at G. E. Morris' Drug Store.

—Adam's Fly-Wick at J. E. McGarvin's Drug Store.

—Farmers this neighborhood are finishing haymaking and commencing barley.

—Super Music supplied by J. E. Moonbeam at each-half catalogue price.

—Quite a number of boys have been wearing "Orange and Blue" ribbons since June 12th.

—The Montrealers and Torontos play Lacrosse, in Acton, on Saturday, and that, for the championship.

—The great International Temperance Demonstration on the Grimsby camp grounds, comes of today.

—A threshing machine passed through town Monday. Wonder if they have threshed any one yet?

—The school boys are getting their summer tan. They would rather take it natural than the other way.

—The best show ever witnessed is to be given in Guelph next Saturday. You don't if you miss a treat.

—The boat race, between Elmvale, Acton, and Walton, East Guelph, comes on Friday, Thursday.

—Know your C. W. Hill's Ice Cream highly recommended for exclusive people.

—A large number of young ladies, gentlemen, and their friends went from Rockwood to London on Tuesday night.

—Giant bats; Tuesday bats; Wednesday bats; Thursday bats, and the last inhabitant says he thinks it will catch them for a week.

—The Fly-Wick at Parry's. —The best way to catch flies is to get one of Morris' Fly Paper—only five cents a sheet.

—The Quoit match between Mr. Hinchliffe of Acton, and Mr. G. D. of Guelph, for $100 a side, was held at Guelph, on Friday, on the 13th.

—The Band was out serenading Mr. McMurtry's residence. Dr. McMurtry was the victim this time. After playing a number of eight times, they were invited in the house, where ice cream and cakes were served up. An enjoyable evening was spent.

—The Loops is to hand again. In future, it will be published in Guelph. The cartoon represents McMurtry putting out a wharfman, who has been asking for relief at his office at the same time holding in his hand a scheme for the amelioration of the workingman's condition.

—$10.00 reward for any case of worms in the human system where J. E. McGarvin's Worm Pillows will not effect a cure. Try them.

—The engineer of the water works at London, Ont., after testing a large number of the different cements, including some of the best American brands, have awarded the contract to the Ontario Cement, manufactured by Messrs. Gowdy & Morris, Limehouse. This speaks well for the Ontario Cement, as it was a test of quality and not price. The contractors will receive some six thousand barrels in constructing their water works.—Herald.

—The clearing sale is still going on. Beautiful Muslins for 5c in Black and White, Brown and White, Greys, White, etc. —Silk stockings for 5c and 10c per pair, worth 25c. Cottons for 2c upwards. Millinery and Mantles for half price. Now is your time to make money by buying at McLeod, Anderson & Co., Mammoth House, Guelph.

—Ice cream at C. W. Hill's.

—Mr. B. Williams has again opened his factory, in Glenshaw, and on Friday noon the bell commenced ringing once more to the joy of the inhabitants. Mr. Williams resumes permanent operations in the hosiery business on Tuesday, and we hope his career this time may be long and prosperous. His resumption of business and the opening of said factory is hailed with delight by many villagers, who are scarcely able to earn a living in any other capacity.—Vera.

—Gents, we are doing McGarvin's clothing trade. But, as ever, I work on full time—no slack time with me. The reason why we have the largest stock is the highest and cheapest goods, fitting and cutting a 1. Workmanship and trimmings equal to the best—inspected and tested. McGarvin & Co., Georgetown.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton.

Business dull in town.

—Ice cream at C. W. Hill's.

—Ice cream isn't so neglected.

It was a month ago.

The difference between a boy and a lass is that shingles are applied to the barn, &c., &c.

Fly Killer. All kinds at J. E. McGarvin's Drug Store.

—There is a lot of strangers in town, visiting their friends, and regaling themselves generally.

—ALLIAN'S FLY BRICK. The Little Giant Fly Killer, kills all the flies in a room in two hours. Sold only by J. E. McGarvin, Druggist, Acton.

—The wheat in this section of the country looks well.

—Are you going to Cope's show, in Guelph, next Saturday?

—Veneer is wrong again; it didn't get any cooler on the 14th.

—Strawberries have gone; Raspberries and Cherries are all the go.

—The purest Paris Green in the market at G. E. Morris' Drug Store.

—Adam's Fly-Wick at J. E. McGarvin's Drug Store.

—Farmers this neighborhood are finishing haymaking and commencing barley.

—Super Music supplied by J. E. Moonbeam at each-half catalogue price.

—Quite a number of boys have been wearing "Orange and Blue" ribbons since June 12th.

—The Montrealers and Torontos play Lacrosse, in Acton, on Saturday, and that, for the championship.

—The great International Temperance Demonstration on the Grimsby camp grounds, comes of today.

—A threshing machine passed through town Monday. Wonder if they have threshed any one yet?

—The school boys are getting their summer tan. They would rather take it natural than the other way.

—The best show ever witnessed is to be given in Guelph next Saturday. You don't if you miss a treat.

—The boat race, between Elmvale, Acton, and Walton, East Guelph, comes on Friday, Thursday.

—Know your C. W. Hill's Ice Cream highly recommended for exclusive people.

—A large number of young ladies, gentlemen, and their friends went from Rockwood to London on Tuesday night.

—Giant bats; Tuesday bats; Wednesday bats; Thursday bats, and the last inhabitant says he thinks it will catch them for a week.

—The Fly-Wick at Parry's. —The best way to catch flies is to get one of Morris' Fly Paper—only five cents a sheet.

—The Quoit match between Mr. Hinchliffe of Acton, and Mr. G. D. of Guelph, for $100 a side, was held at Guelph, on Friday, on the 13th.

—The Band was out serenading Mr. McMurtry's residence. Dr. McMurtry was the victim this time. After playing a number of eight times, they were invited in the house, where ice cream and cakes were served up. An enjoyable evening was spent.

—The Loops is to hand again. In future, it will be published in Guelph. The cartoon represents McMurtry putting out a wharfman, who has been asking for relief at his office at the same time holding in his hand a scheme for the amelioration of the workingman's condition.

—$10.00 reward for any case of worms in the human system where J. E. McGarvin's Worm Pillows will not effect a cure. Try them.

—The engineer of the water works at London, Ont., after testing a large number of the different cements, including some of the best American brands, have awarded the contract to the Ontario Cement, manufactured by Messrs. Gowdy & Morris, Limehouse. This speaks well for the Ontario Cement, as it was a test of quality and not price. The contractors will receive some six thousand barrels in constructing their water works.—Herald.

—The clearing sale is still going on. Beautiful Muslins for 5c in Black and White, Brown and White, Greys, White, etc. —Silk stockings for 5c and 10c per pair, worth 25c. Cottons for 2c upwards. Millinery and Mantles for half price. Now is your time to make money by buying at McLeod, Anderson & Co., Mammoth House, Guelph.

—Ice cream at C. W. Hill's.

—Mr. B. Williams has again opened his factory, in Glenshaw, and on Friday noon the bell commenced ringing once more to the joy of the inhabitants. Mr. Williams resumes permanent operations in the hosiery business on Tuesday, and we hope his career this time may be long and prosperous. His resumption of business and the opening of said factory is hailed with delight by many villagers, who are scarcely able to earn a living in any other capacity.—Vera.

—Gents, we are doing McGarvin's clothing trade. But, as ever, I work on full time—no slack time with me. The reason why we have the largest stock is the highest and cheapest goods, fitting and cutting a 1. Workmanship and trimmings equal to the best—inspected and tested. McGarvin & Co., Georgetown.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton.

—A heavy thunder storm last evening.

—The post office store is bedecked with evergreens.

—There was a meeting at Agnew's Hotel, last evening, for the purpose of organizing an Orange Society in town.

—Some complaints are being made that the young boys are in the habit of bathing in Morrow's pond in daylight. Boys, you had better stop, or a free ride to Milton may be the result.

Fly Killer. All kinds at J. E. McGarvin's Drug Store.

—There is a lot of strangers in town, visiting their friends, and regaling themselves generally.

—ALLIAN'S FLY BRICK. The Little Giant Fly Killer, kills all the flies in a room in two hours. Sold only by J. E. McGarvin, Druggist, Acton.

—The wheat in this section of the country looks well.

—Are you going to Cope's show, in Guelph, next Saturday?

—Veneer is wrong again; it didn't get any cooler on the 14th.

—Strawberries have gone; Raspberries and Cherries are all the go.

—The purest Paris Green in the market at G. E. Morris' Drug Store.

—Adam's Fly-Wick at J. E. McGarvin's Drug Store.

—Farmers this neighborhood are finishing haymaking and commencing barley.

—Super Music supplied by J. E. Moonbeam at each-half catalogue price.

—Quite a number of boys have been wearing "Orange and Blue" ribbons since June 12th.

—The Montrealers and Torontos play Lacrosse, in Acton, on Saturday, and that, for the championship.

—The great International Temperance Demonstration on the Grimsby camp grounds, comes of today.

—A threshing machine passed through town Monday. Wonder if they have threshed any one yet?

—The school boys are getting their summer tan. They would rather take it natural than the other way.

—The best show ever witnessed is to be given in Guelph next Saturday. You don't if you miss a treat.

—The boat race, between Elmvale, Acton, and Walton, East Guelph, comes on Friday, Thursday.

—Know your C. W. Hill's Ice Cream highly recommended for exclusive people.

—A large number of young ladies, gentlemen, and their friends went from Rockwood to London on Tuesday night.

—Giant bats; Tuesday bats; Wednesday bats; Thursday bats, and the last inhabitant says he thinks it will catch them for a week.

—The Fly-Wick at Parry's. —The best way to catch flies is to get one of Morris' Fly Paper—only five cents a sheet.

—The Quoit match between Mr. Hinchliffe of Acton, and Mr. G. D. of Guelph, for $100 a side, was held at Guelph, on Friday, on the 13th.

—The Band was out serenading Mr. McMurtry's residence. Dr. McMurtry was the victim this time. After playing a number of eight times, they were invited in the house, where ice cream and cakes were served up. An enjoyable evening was spent.

—The Loops is to hand again. In future, it will be published in Guelph. The cartoon represents McMurtry putting out a wharfman, who has been asking for relief at his office at the same time holding in his hand a scheme for the amelioration of the workingman's condition.

—$10.00 reward for any case of worms in the human system where J. E. McGarvin's Worm Pillows will not effect a cure. Try them.

—The engineer of the water works at London, Ont., after testing a large number of the different cements, including some of the best American brands, have awarded the contract to the Ontario Cement, manufactured by Messrs. Gowdy & Morris, Limehouse. This speaks well for the Ontario Cement, as it was a test of quality and not price. The contractors will receive some six thousand barrels in constructing their water works.—Herald.

—The clearing sale is still going on. Beautiful Muslins for 5c in Black and White, Brown and White, Greys, White, etc. —Silk stockings for 5c and 10c per pair, worth 25c. Cottons for 2c upwards. Millinery and Mantles for half price. Now is your time to make money by buying at McLeod, Anderson & Co., Mammoth House, Guelph.

—Ice cream at C. W. Hill's.

—Mr. B. Williams has again opened his factory, in Glenshaw, and on Friday noon the bell commenced ringing once more to the joy of the inhabitants. Mr. Williams resumes permanent operations in the hosiery business on Tuesday, and we hope his career this time may be long and prosperous. His resumption of business and the opening of said factory is hailed with delight by many villagers, who are scarcely able to earn a living in any other capacity.—Vera.

—Gents, we are doing McGarvin's clothing trade. But, as ever, I work on full time—no slack time with me. The reason why we have the largest stock is the highest and cheapest goods, fitting and cutting a 1. Workmanship and trimmings equal to the best—inspected and tested. McGarvin & Co., Georgetown.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton.

TINWARE!

Who Wants Tinware?

T. Stewart & Co.
ACTON, ONT.

We are making friends by keeping a first-class stock of all kinds of Tinware of the

LATEST DESIGNS,

which, for durability and beauty, we

DEFY COMPETITION.

STOVES ALWAYS IN STOCK.

EAVETROUGHING

a specialty.

Product taken same as cash. All work guaranteed.

41-3m T. STEWART & CO.

ACTON

LIVERY STABLE