THE ACTON FREE PRESS.

Volume IV. No. 6 -Whole No. 163

ACTON, ONT., THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1878.

$1.00 per aubum in Advance

THE ACTON

FREE PRESS

Is Published EVERY THURSDAY MORNING, AT THE

Free Press Building, Next to the Post Office.

TERMS. -One del'ar a year, strictly to advance. If not pa d before three months one do par an tagfait will be charged; or two dollars it not pald till the end of the year, Single copies three tents. No nith one year unpaid. RATES OF ADVERTISING .- Eight conts er line for first insertion. Short a lveritsements of eight lines and under, $1 for three insertious. Business Cards of eight lines and under, $1 per annum. An advertisements moasured in a scale of solid Nonpariel. A liberal discount allowed on advertisements inserted for extended periods. Advertisements without special instance tions inserted till forbid, and charged Any Special Notice, the object of which any individual of emplany, to be soundered an advertisement. Transfent advertisem his to be publifor when ordered. All advestising accounts rendered quarterly. Notices of Births Marriages and Peatus inserted free. T. A. & H. P. MOORE. Publishers & Proprietors.

BUSINESS CARDS.

H. LOWRY, M. B., M. Y . C. P. S. Graduate of Trically College, Membertol College and Physicians lately occupied by R. Litta , E- ..

DR. R. MORROW. Physic Tays toyshand Fridays, from . a. m. f. dA m. Residence-West iledel sit vi.

HENDERSON. Convey-

D. HATHERDN. Attorney

W. E. COOST R.

Provincial Land Surveyor and 'Civil Engineer, Guelph. On thes by mail pricapily attended to. "

TO OTABEXURINGE HATE L

TIENRY'E. DRIKE,

. INSTRUKCE AGENT, GUELPH. Total fails attended to the converse Dast FR, CHARLES CARTER, altresset to Gerep's or Dona Post Office. will receive prompt attention. DRAKE. Pupils a called a der own residence

DATENTS for INVENTIONS Medianical Engineer, Solicitor of Pa-

OLIVER LOZIER, Plasterer. Pastering and Rough-casting done on the most reasonable terms, and satisfac-

DOSSIN HOUSE, Acton.

Erastient accommodation for the travel-ing papie. THOS. CAMPBELL, Propr. DOMINION HOTEL, Acton. Travellers wi land go at accommo nation as I commolions Sample Rooms, Special attention paid to the wants of the travel-Ligarrand Cigara, Good Stabiling and

attentive Hostlers. TVH. HEMSTREET, Licensed Auctioneer

Forthe Counties of Wellington and 'Hal-Reckword, will be promptly attended to.

TO THE PUBLIC OF ALL NA-TIONS & POLITICAL CREEDS. If you want a good AUCTIONEER try GEORGE GIBBS;

He understands his business. Nuff MOTICE.

nounce to Farmers, and others engiged in butter making who purpose getting a their own interests by ordering one of A. Holmes' Improved Tabular Dash Your patronage is respectfully solicited Circulars and testimonials free on ar pl; cation. Territory for sale, Manufactur-D. L. McDONALD.

BEATTY'S

INSTRUCTOR

plane or organ) to which is added over money refunded and freight paid or the United States, and were, hours but still the same monoton-• cixty Waltzes, Polkas, Marches, Galops, both ways by him if they are usatisOperation Melodies, Dances, Sc., by DanLow Dances, Sc., by Dances, Da felf. Beatty. Washington New Jersey, one of the best works of the kind ever in troduced, and should be in the hands of early partially factory. Send for Hustrated Antroduced, and should be in the hands of early partially factory and the first open of the best works of the kind ever in troduced, and should be in the hands of early partially falling and to my forgiveness, your blessing, and your partially falling and with burning wool or woolen cloth: were scarcly able to obtain a scanty which was continually falling and to my fatte. My feet, which by this time were nearly, frozen, be taking mother. By the time that the time were nearly, frozen, and the first partial factory. Send for Hustrated Antroduced to receive the form of the lost Charling.

Mr. Ross says he spent £80,202

and tamaracks continued. These shrubs were covered with snow, partials and privations going to fill their utmost exertions they decimed to receive the form of the lost Charling. Anything that produces safety from subsistence; the fruits of all their utmost exertions they decimed to receive the lost Charling.

Anything that produces safety from subsistence; the fruits of all their utmost exertions they with burning wool or woolen cloth: were scarcly able to obtain a scanty which was continually falling and to my fatte. My feet, which by the first that it is the confirmation of the lost Charling and with burning wool or woolen cloth: were scarcly able to obtain a scanty which was continually falling and to my forgiveness, your blessing, and your with burning wool or woolen cloth: were scarcly able to obtain a scanty which was continually falling and to my forgiveness, your blessing, and your partial fall their with burning wool or woolen cloth: any other controlled. These controlled in looking for the lost Charling.

Anything the forgiveness, your blessing, and your partial fall their utmost exercise for the lost Charling in looking for the lo having been refored to introduce it dress DANISH reserverywhere. Address DANIEL F. lington, New Jersey. BEATTY, Washington, New Letsey.

OMEN AN EMIGRANT. only an emigrant lying there. On the rock-bound coast of Habfax

And his face aghast in death's disonly an emigrant! one of five hun-

And value their lives for what they are worth : out who will keep for the emigrant This clost of clay which cumbered the Drive the nails in his coffin lid, And let his corpse from our sight be But list, I pray. Leagues on leagues

And bright hopes dashed for ever And the dreary outlook of desolate breaking to-day,

Only an emigrant-lying there, Lifeless and mute in Halifax bay; But his soul was strong, and his ekies

When he left his home-a month to e foudled his child and kissed his Ere he sought new scenes in the battle

Frawny his hands and brave his heart, And firm his belief that the hour When those with whom he dreaded to

Should join him again in a Western Hopeful and happy, rich and free, ing better land beyond the sea. only an emberant's family there,

In the Irish home where the news But the terrible look of utter despair Makes the face of the living as sad as the dead : for the light of their lives went out

When the ship strack the rocks in Halifer hay. Only an emigrant lying here.

) merciful God! take his soul to in the letter hand begond the rea!

ventures

Wellington between 1820 and 1840.

hunting and trapping.

reached our destination. We While I was thus revolving my in finding the frozen stream.

delighted with the scenery. The I proceeded further I might not piles of fallen timber until my forest which consisted principally have such an oppositunity. After clothes were torn to ribbons, and of mighty maples and cluss, was so resting a few minutes I attempted my limbs bleeding in every direc-feet in height. At the opposite solation, however .- I had succeed forward with all my energy I had a few days since at a certain store is to be squezed out through a cloth, side from where I stood a large ed in keeping both my rifle and the misfortune to fall and bruise in a Western city. It is too good after which a little white of eggs is branch with a similar channel join- powder out of the water. I had my side in such a manner that I to be lost : One of our composers added, and then the sugar. Skim ed the main stream at a slight also flint, steel and a hatchet, and was unable to proceed. The hope had written a pretty song, entitled it previous to boiling, then reduceangle. A large triangle was thus therefore I determined to start a and excitement which had hitherto "Kiss me," A very pretty, blush- it to a proper consistency, and an enclosed on two sides by lofty and fire. This proved a more difficult nerved me in my course being de- ing maid, having heard of the song, excellent jelly will be the product.

the opposite side of the river. Two tinguished, I was doomed, however, of making me spring to my feet 1 want the 'Wandering Refu them by il four hours, being coreful fired. As it did not move I loaded upon death as not half the monster He had not been successful in and was again raising my rifle which I had previously supposed. Hurled to his doom when some one finding a suitable companion, and when, what I had thought to be a Feeling drowsy I lay down and was therefore going alone. Here, deer spring forward, and there, had nearly fallen asleep when When the rich goes down we may thought I ; is an opportunity for before me, stood my faithful Hud- was seized with a violent shivering me. He was an experienced hunt- son Bay friend, pale as death and caused, as I supposed, by the reer; I liked his appearance; the trembling like a leaf. He had moval of the flannel next my skin. trapping season was not far ad- heard the discharge of my rifle, (To this circumstance I afterwards vauced; my father would readily and not knowing what had been attributed my preservation,) consent; everything was favorable my object, had remained standing, sprang to my feet, resumed my with one exception, my mother. feering to distant my game, but shirt which was now cold and wet she would never allow me to peril seeing me levelling the weapon, in marked a circle in the show, and my life by such a mad cap adven- his direction, he had by a timely resolved to make another effort to ture. She loved me with "a spring prevented me from taking save my life by following the same beautiful fall which occurs about a small beaver meadow, where I head in the water to find the directhirty miles from the source of the resolved to continue the hunt no tion in which it was flowing, and

Such was the descripton which cumulated water. I determined came so painful that I was induced I was able to walk around the my father's guest gave of the settle- however to proceed. Several times to take off my flannel undershirt the snow had all disappeared, the ment which he had left. He in. I caught sight of the deer though and wrapped! it around them. sky was clear, the air balmy and formed us that he was now on his only for a second. I redoubled my Soon after this I repeated the pleasant, and the solitary leafless

With the salt sea damp on his yellow way to the Grand River, in West- energy, and at longth imagining "Lord's Prayer," became more Canadian Wilderness much more ern Canada, where he intended to that I saw its shoulder moving in composed, resigned myself to my invigorating and entertaining than spend the autumn and winter in the distance I raised my rifle and fate, and finally began to look more I had previously imagined: mother's own love." I left, how his life. I shulder yet when I monotonous and revolving path ever, without her knowledge, and think of that awful moment. I until daylight would enable me to in less than two weeks, landed with had nearly shed the blood of a fel- effect my escape. I had continued gings. are my Hudson Bay friend at a shanty low creature. Yes, of a true and the never varying rounds for three called Dundas. Here we met with generous friend. I would hunt no or four hours when I think my store three, others who were going to more. My comrade soon laughed mind must have become a little And eyes half blinded with passionate trap on the same ground as our- me out of what he called a whim, deranged, for I suddenly left the sook. selves. Concluding however, that and induced me to continue the beaten track and rushed into the | 5. Box pearl powder from my there would be plenty of game we chase, which I did with little bet wilderness, determined either to upper drawer.

entered into a partnership and took ter success until nearly sundown, reach the camp or lose my life in 6. " Modern Minister" from Loran Indian trail for the Grand River. The weather had now entirely the attempt. I had scarcely gone ing's Library. Our course at first led us directly changed, the sky was clear, the air a hundred yards when I began to Arriving in town, he forgot all over the mountain; it then con- cutting cold, the tamaracks cover- regret that I had not followed the about the list till late in the laftertinued for several miles through a ed with icicles, my clothes frozen creek, which would have been an noon, and then he couldn't find it rough, rocky country, and lastly and my limbs weary. I had not excellent guide. I retraced my in any of his pockets; but hadn't entered upon a beautiful hardwood tasted food since morning. I must steps as nearly as possible, and in he read it over; and didn't he re forest, which continued until we endeavor to get back to camp. less than twenty minutes succeeded collect it all? Of course he did camped the first night beside a condition in my mind I came upon | broke a hole in the ice, held my to his expectant wife : river. In the morning I strolled longer. In such a place I was then attempted to follow the down- ing (mosquito). about three hundred yards down certain to find a stream, which if ward course of the current. This the left bank of the stream. I was followed would lead to the river, if was no easy task. I climbed over free from underwood and fallen to cross the dam, but I had scarce tion. Small beaver meadows ap such book as "The Mug and Canis timber, that I could see distinctly ly reached the centre when the ice peared at intervals, in or about ter" in the library. for more than half a mile. The gave gay and I was plunged to the which I was certain to get a dip river, which was only about two neck in the chilling flood. At by my heedless haste. I had con- above : "O, Leander, Leander, feet deep, flowed majestically on length, however, with the loss of a tinued in this way for several hours you must have been dining at that ward over its rocky bottom like glove and a moccasin I succeeded when to my delight I observed that horrid club again or you could not follows :- They are pared, quartersome never ending serpent. Its in gaining the shore. I was now the stream had left the swamp and have made such a mistake.

channel seemed like some huge in a desperate position .- I might was rapidly descending. I now canal with walls of solid and per- be miles from the camp. - I was redoubled my efforts, thinking that With his farted lips grown ashen pendicular masonry, varying from already weak with hunger, weary in a short time I might be able to twenty to eighty or one hundred and disheartened .- I had one con- reach the river. While pressing perpendicular precipices, which task than I had imagined, for my stroyed, I once more laid myself and thinking she would get it; |seemed to defy the passage of either tinder being wet every effort only down to die. I had lain about stepped into the music store to make as for drying; pack very closely ended in disastrous and discourage lifteen or twenty minutes when I a purchase. One of the clerks, a with the potato musher, into quart I was surveying this picturesque ing failure. At length I gathered was startled by hearing some modest young man, stepped up to tin cans; put on the covers. Have spot when a loud whistle summon- soma dry cedar bark, cut a few animal bounding through the woods wait on her. The young lady throw a wooden frame to fit the bottom and me to the camp, where I was limbs, made some shavings, and directly towards, me. Though, back her vail, saying, "I want of the wash-boiler; let the grange Informed that our party was about finally discharged my rifle, expect- perhaps it was only a rabbit or Rock Me to Sleep" The clerk be about five inches high; pat to attempt to surround a number of ing to be able to gather the wad- squirrel, yet as I imagined it to be got her the song and put it before the cans; day a smooth board over deer which had been observed on ding before the fire would be ex- a wolf or a lynx, it had the effect her. "Now," said the young lady, them with a weight on top, Let of us were directed to ascend the to disappointment, for having a forgetting the injuries which a few gee." "Yes, ma'am," said the not to let the water boil over the stream until we found a crossing, heavy charge in my gun, the minutes before had rendered me clerk, bowing, and in a few minutes cans, and renewing it as it wester and then to proceed to the point of wadding was driven, I know not entirely helpless. For although I be produced the Refugee. " Now, with boiling water. Take out one the angle described by the beds of where. Once more having loaded scarcely expected to live till morn- Kiss Me, said the young lady of can at a time, wipe dry, and scal the rivers, and there lie in ambush with a much lighter charge, and a ing, yet I must confess that I did course meaning the song above as other fruit. gaily towards us. We fired and in the gun to counteract the force nerly and ferocious butchers seem- fact that a song of that name had with red mites, For which I cannot two fine bucks dropped dead in of the powder, the charge, though ed ten times more dreadful than been published . Wh-what did account, as I am very particular their tracks. Imagining that we much lighter, scattered the paper the death which I had previously you say Miss ?" . "Kiss Me," about keeping my birds and cages would make them all an easy prey in every direction, leaving me been contemblating, and to which said she. " I can't do it; I never perfectly clean." Pot a small liece ounded with romantic scenery and we proceeded to charge our rifles. almost distracted. I made another I had almost been reconciled. I kissed a young lady in my life," of flannel in the cage lover night. trade, and consequently at certain intended victims were nowhere to success directed my rifle towards a when I imagined that I heard the left in a hurry, the clerk felt sick, back. Do this as long as red mites. use of the rifle, I longed to be one ed unobserved. This hunt, you with which the wilderness was by of the camp. A ray of hope shot greatly increased by the appearance same principal as the one which fire was anywhere to be seen. my heart. I could not be more making proposals for marriage to like as he appearance under a shade of a traveller at my father's oneeve- you mentioned as having taken Where had it gone? I must try than two miles from my compan- his first wife--a daughter of the tree on Beech street, roused up ning. He asked for lodging, and place between Lakes George and again. I found, however, to my ions. Could I not accomplish the celebrated Professor Wilson—the when joined by another lad of his est, respectable person, his request story. Our companions having sible for on examinaing my rifle I the attempt and at least place my be necessary to ask the approval of ed: was readily granted. During the arrived we dressed our venison and perceived that the wadding was body in some place where they her sire. evening, in true farmer style, my proceededup the river, setting traps firmly wedged into the barrel about might find it and give it a christian "Certainly," said Aytoun; "but shuns it and deadfalls wherever we saw any eighteen inches from the muzzle. burial. My wounds and bruses as I am a little diffident in speak-As I could not get the wadding had by this time become so stiff ing to him on this subject, you out, all possibility of being able to and cold that to my utter dismay must just go and tell hem my prokindle a fire was destroyed; it after using my utmost exertions posals yourself." being impossible for me to reload. for more than half an hour I had The lady proceeded to the libra-In my desperation I cast my rifle | not been able to proceed more than my, and taking her father affection | shingle up to the light to enable into the snow and screeched and a few yards. I however advanced ately by the hand, mentioned that him to read the following "notes" jumped as if a thousand scorpions for about three hundred paces on Professor Ayton had asked her to in pencil : were piercing me with their ven- my hands and knees, by which become his wife. She added : emous stings, my frozen clothes time I had become so warm and . Shall I accept his offer, papa? saw old woman with club: saw breaking and rattling all the time supple that I roso to my feet and He says be is too diffident to name dog layin' low for as; saw redin a very disheartened and ominous with the aid of a stick continued the subject to you himself." manner. I sat down, thinking my journey. I was continually | "Then" said old Christopher, " that upon due reflection some cheered and encouraged by the had better write my reply, and pin breathin' hard and achin' to kill a means of escape might present it sound of the rifle, which regularly it to your back." self to my mind. I could not at intervaly of fifteen or twenty He did so, and the lady retuned pressure too heavy, and I backed thought of my mother, of my I had been shouting from time to anxious suitor read the answer to the circumstances I guess we'd bethorrible death which awaited me, length, however, three welcome words : and which I now considered almost answering cheers repaid my dili- "With the author's compliinevitable. I was sixty miles gence and perseyerence. In a few from the nearest settlement, wet, minutes afterwards I saw two of hungry, nearly frozen, and atready our little band approaching. I exhausted with the exertious which threw up my arms, shouted a wel- terrible diseases to which mortals I had made. None but those who come, and fell senseless to the are exposed. A California paper recently invented a rat exterdinahave been in a similar position can ground. They bore me to the asserts that no one need be in dan- tor, consisting of a sort of powderfully realize the meaning of the camp; I was attended to with the ger of such an attack from wounds snuff. The animal jerks his Lead word lost. Yes, lost! lost! I re- greatest care until I was complete- caused by rusty iron, as the worst off at the third sneeze.

(Tobbe Continued.)

His Recollection Of It.

"Now Leander, my dear, I wan you to be sure and not forget to bring these few things when you come down to-night," said the young wife, just before the kiss and good-by" at the summer hotel, in to morning, as the gentlemen "Certainly not, my love." And this is the way the list ran 1. Two yards of blue barege.

2. Three yards of Hamburg ed

4. Half a dollar's worth of nain

1. Two heads of blue cabbage. ports predict a change to warmer 2. Three yards of handsome nett

3. Some blue braid 4. Half a dollar's worth

5. Box of sedlitz powder. 6. Loring said he hadn't got any Exclamation on receiving the

Liss Me. A very funny incident occurred | When pretty well stewed the julio

A Marriage-Maker.

When Professor Aytoun was who looked very innocent and childpeated to myself. Oh mother, dear ly restored. My own particular cases of inflamed wounds may be Beat the Thermometer.

Wednesday when the toiling, perspiring masses discovered that the thermometers down town mark. ed plump-100 degrees in the shade, they wiped off their chins and congratulated each other on having lived to see such a period. About the time that everybody was happiest, along came a small boy whose face was as red as a beet and whose eyes shone like glass.

"Where's a docter !" he called out as he entered a crowd. " Here, boy-whats the matcer ?" replied one of the men as he reached out to detain the lad.

at the house !" he explained. "Dad is in the down stair bedroom shakin'and chatterin' and callin' on me to bring him red hot tea and put bricks to his feet. Mam she's up stairs, with four quilts and a carpet over her, but I heard ber shiver clean down to the corner. My sister sha's got her feet in the cook-stove oven, and is writing an ode to winter, and bruther Bill he's lyin' in the sun on the sidewalk an' axin' everybody to fend him come Kyann pepper to help start

" Is-that-so 1" slowly queried citizen. "Course it is! Hain't I down town after a docter and some soft coal ? I wish some of you fellers would tell me if the weather re-

The thermometer still marked a plump hundred, but as the crowd again turned to the figures there seemed to be a goneness somewhere -a sort of aching toid which figures couldn't fill,

The Ucusehold.

APPLE JELLY .- Apples make an excellent jelly. The process is as ed, and the core completely removed, and are then put into a ros without water, closely covered, and put into an oven or over a fire.

To Can Conn .- Cut off the corn.

He took Notes.

The other day a boy of thirteen

"Well, did you make observa-"I did," was the reply. "And we kin book the apples and not git cotched, kin we ?" "You wait a minute," commanded the other as he held an oll

"Went down in frunt of bouse headed girl reddy to ring cow bell I and give alarm; saw man inside boy ; hull family looked me in eve " Nother disappointment added to our burden," sighed the first; and they loafed on.

PARLOR ORGAN

ment is fully warranted for six years

West End Pookstore

GUELPH.

BOOKS & STATIONERY

Fireside Libraries.

And all the Latest. Novels, lent and True. Mildred. . Jewel of a Girl, Young Margrave. &c.

inlers, where you get the worth

A splendille; of NEW COLLARS

TriAll parties intending to purcoha-fillar ere should do so at once

R. CREECH

Letore the rush commences in order

THE GATARIO

to secure a good set.

Boy's Libraries;

N. Y. Libraries,

Office, Acton, or at my residence, in rounding neighborhood that he has procured a magnificent HEARSE And is prepared to attend and conduct Funerals on the shortest notice and most moderate terms.

Caskets, Coffins, Burial Robes. And all kinds of Funeral Furnish ings kept in stock, and supplied on the shortest notice.

Hat Bands and Gloves supplied when JOHN SPEIGHT.

Acton, Feb. 10, 1877. can make great pay all the time they work, write for particulars to H. HAL LETT & Co., Portland Maine.

can buy first-class Pianos

Canadian Wilderness. The Counties of Halton and

Y "TEUTH STEANGER THAN PICTION

"There is no doubt but I have properly secured Bean make money faster at work for seen something of the Canadian Wilderness. But I suppose, like until our companions drove the handful of paper, but no ball, I not relish the idea of having my mentioned. The poor clerk's eyes act required; we will start you. Siz you, I must begin with my youth. deer into the trap. Ere half an drew the trigger and awaited the bones picked by a pack of ravenous, popped fire almost, as he looked at NICY GLIST, I troops. Men. women, boys and gills My father's farm on which I lived hour we had, the pleasure of see- result. Again disappointment unmerciful wolves. To be hurried the young lady in utter astonish. When work forms Now My father's farm on which I lived the pleasure of see- result. Again disappointment unmerciful wolves. To be hurried the young lady in utter astonish. When work forms Now My father's farm on which I lived the pleasure of see- result. until I was about sixteen, is on the ing a herd of eight or ten trotting awaited me, for there being no ball out of the world by such unman meht, for he was not aware of the valuable birds which are covered s the time. Cestry outfit and terms free. During my boyhood I was suran abundance of game. Montreal We were, however, a little disap- trial with a still smaller allowance was listening attentively for the said the clerk. And about that Then scald it to kill the mites which was the centre of the Canadian fur pointed, for on looking again our of powder, and this time to insure approach of the supposed well time a veil dropped, a young lady have collected on it, and put it seasons of the year the general ren. be seen. We afterwards discover- large tree. I fired, sprang forward, distant report of a rifle. I a few and the dealer lost the sale of some can be found upon it. dezvous of hunters, trappers, &c. ed that they had escaped down the dropping the weapon as I ran, ex- minutes it came again louder and music. I often heard of their adventures, precipice by some half-hidden pecting to see the wished for more distinctly. Yes, it was my and as I was very skilful in the paths which had previously remain sparks glittering in the darkness companions signalling the direction of their number. This desire was will perceive, was conducted on the this time envolved. But, alas, no through the cloud which envolved as he appeared to be a sociable hon- Champlain. But to resume my consternation that this was impost journey? I would at least make lady reminded him that it would ownage and confidentially inquirfather inquired respecting his home and his calling. " His home, he signs of the fur bearing family. heard of perils succeeded in reach. been eaten or used for bait.

said, was the forest, his calling that We continued in this way for of a hunter." . He has just escaped | several days, by which time our from Hudson's Bay, and after un- last piece of venison had either ! ing Canada. He was one of those were now within eight miles of the persons, who, by the misnianage. source of the river, the woods seemment of the British Government ed open, game plentiful, although had been sent out to Red River, early in the season some snow had were, being cut off from all com- fallen, and, therefore, we determinmunication with the world, they ed to spend the next day in search were placed at the mercy of a heart- of deer. As I was the best marksless company. They had been base. man in the gang; an I expected to ly deceived, being compelled to sub be the hero of the day, I was up sist by hunting in a country that and off as soon as I could see the There was but one market for to be outdone by any of my comnatural consequence, they were bundred paces from our camp when IEL F. BEATTY, Washing compelled to sell at a tithe of their I started several deer. Having ton, New Jersey, than any real value. The company had com examined their tracks, I followed other manufacturer in the United mand of all their supplies. Salt the trail of a large buck, which 1 states. Why? Because he sells was a dollar a quart, and other thought I would know among a only for cash, takes no risks and has things in proportion. The settlers hundred, but I had scarcely gone a were too poor to be able to pay the mile when it entered a dense and exorbitant fares which were asked almost impenetrable swamp. . I on from 5 to 15 days' test trial, for a rassage to Britain, Canada, continued the pursuit for several was too cold for agriculture, sight of my rifle, determined not compose myself, however. I minutes echoed through the woods. to the drawing-room. There the off; nice appuls, them, but under There was but one market for to be outdone by any of my come father's home, and lastly of the time, but received no reply. At his message, which was in these ter keep on chewin ole lemons."