

SEPTEMBER 12, 1878.

GRAND TRAIL TIME TABLE.

Acton to the West as follows:

Going West—10 A.M.

Toronto mail—9:10 A.M.

Day Express—10:15 A.M.

Express—11:15 P.M.

Galt mixed—12 M.

Night Express—8:35 P.M.

Galt mixed—9:30 A.M.

Day Express—10:15 A.M.

Western mail—9:30 P.M.

London mixed—10:30 P.M.

MAIL TIME TABLE.

MAILS CLOSED.

Going West—10 A.M.

Toronto mail—9:10 A.M.

Day Express—10:15 A.M.

Express—11:15 P.M.

Galt mixed—12 M.

Night Express—8:35 P.M.

Galt mixed—9:30 A.M.

Day Express—10:15 A.M.

Western mail—9:30 P.M.

London mixed—10:30 P.M.

RECEIVED LETTERS.

Receipted letters and telegrams 15 minutes before closing time.

MILLS RECEIVED.

From the East—10 A.M.

From the West—10 A.M.

From the South—10 A.M.

From the North—10 A.M.

Service in the Methodist Church over Sabbath, both morning and evening at 10:30 A.M. Rev. Mr. H. H. Foster.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Circular Circular Books, Catalogues, Circulars, etc., Printed, Gold & Plated, all kinds of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Spectacles reproduced. Hera's Jewellery store.

Vests in Matthews' Hall, next Tuesday.

Be sure to examine those nifty tailings at Fyle & McLean.

On account of the mass of reading matter, a number of books are left over.

A person who has been out west after books, may there be ten thousand to one book.

Mr. Jas. Ryder advertisement in another column, testifies for building his new carriage works on Mill street.

Hats in all the latest styles from 55 cents up at the East End Clothing Store.

The only place in town where you will get good English or Printed Ringer Knives and Double Edge Razors when you want em.

Now that the children cannot afford to buy me the best and sole dealers are looking for a brisk business.

Hop picking will be finished in this neighborhood by Saturday. The sample is out but the crop looks light.

Local news is scarce during the present struggle. People are in a fine talking position, and don't say anything of local happenings.

What a triple特工! Simple Gold and Silver. Who when you can buy a simple pair for less money, at the New York Dry Goods Store.

Mr. H. J. Bellows will come to town Saturday to sell the new shop and working horses. The truck is to be drawn from the yard.

The action of the young schoolboy is called to C. S. S. & I. S. & G. W. W. when they are seen in the window of the office of the police chief. The stalk was broken off the plant on the farm of Mr. Thos. Whiting of Niagara Falls. This is the longest.

Dresser's Cupid's Hen. Lure will be sold during the day with the right style, colour, size, shape, etc., known to the agents of their customers. They are satisfied saying their new style, quality and price will please. A call respectively will do. Will consider it a pleasure to show people. Remember their famous 50 cent.

Instead of the County Master regarding the L. O. L. No. 910, as was announced last week, it was Mr. John Bain, District Master. The Legis. Dept. Wednesday evening, over Sydney's, 7:30 o'clock.

A large stock of cheap China was for sale. China and general equipment of Glaziers at Alex. S. Noddy's Grocery, without the next few days. Now is your time to buy because the goods in the above are.

When a man is seen to stop suddenly on the street, look cautiously around, then stop down and carefully pick up something, you may be sure he is a thief victim to the altering-to-be-thief.

We would remind the ladies that we keep a first class Millinery always in hand. Some Novelties in Millinery to hand fresh specimens weekly which will be duly announced from time to time. Mademoiselle Horne, Georgetown.

New Towns—For a well made, well dressed suit of clothes you can't do better than call at Christie & Anderson's. Their suits are extra cheap. Special prices for boys' wear, as for girls.

When a man is seen to stop suddenly on the street, look cautiously around, then stop down and carefully pick up something, you may be sure he is a thief victim to the altering-to-be-thief.

We would remind the ladies that we keep a first class Millinery always in hand. Some Novelties in Millinery to hand fresh specimens weekly which will be duly announced from time to time. Mademoiselle Horne, Georgetown.

—A lady called in the other day and wished to advertise a photograph which had been found. As the owner happened to be around, the advertiser was not required, but the lady in leaving forgot one of her gloves, which she may have by calling.

We were exceedingly pleased on Saturday evening last, to see the great raid at Noddy's Grocery. Alex. says that all his old friends have come back since, and are doing all they can for him by buying his old clothes.

—A correspondent writes—

At a special meeting of the county Orange Lodge of South Wellington, at Rockwood, Saturday evening, George Hunter resigned the position of county master. The members of the county lodges were very sorry to hear that he had come to such a decision, and pressed him to withdraw his resignation. He informed the members that he had determined upon that step, and they were reluctantly obliged to accept. Bro. Osborne, late deputy county master, therefore assumes the position for the remainder of the year.

We beg to remind the Gentlemen that our Ordered Clothing department is in full swing, that we have a large and varied Stock of Canadian Cloth, Scotch and French Tweeds, Worsted Coatings, Trouserings and Fancy Vesting, all New Fashionable and Cheap, and turn out Noddy, Sylish and Cheap Clothing and Gents' furnishings. Special discounts are offered for purchases over at any one time. Remember them on their Famous 50 cent Trousers.

Co. Mammoth House.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton.

—The harvest is past, the summer is ended.

Scarcely any bottling has been done on the electric yet.

Mr. Wm. Simond is erecting a splendid new brick house on Mill street.

Up J. E. McGarvin's Fly Sticker, it is the best 5 cent & best.

Shaw & Morton, merchant tailors, Guelph, have a new saloon in this issue.

Now is the time to wash with J. E. McGarvin's five cent Detergent Soap.

The late rains have considerably swollen the creeks and ponds in this neighborhood.

On account of the absence of the Rees, last Monday evening, there was no meeting of the Council.

The best and cheapest assortment of Groceries in town at Alex. S. Noddy's Grocery.

Although this is the first month of Autumn we have not yet had any news on the subject handed in.

The wet weather we have had so much of, has greatly hindered the farmers in this neighborhood with their feeding.

The New Dominical Monthly is to hand with its usual vast amount of excellent reading matter.

Mrs. John Rice, of lot 20, 1st con., township of Esgenoop, sells by public auction, her stock and implements on Friday 13th Sept. Wm. Hemmett, Auctioneer.

$10.00 reward for any case of worms in the human system where J. E. McGarvin's Worm Powders will not effect a cure. Try them.

Mr. J. Forsyth, of lot 33, c. 5, D. P. D. offering his farm, farm stock and implements for sale on October 1st. Wm. Hemmett, Auctioneer.

Large quantities of Fall Tweeds are being offered at the East End Clothing store.

Printers' Ink is the oil that moves the wheels of trade and makes the doors of commerce swing easy. The only safe medium for its propagation is a communication with the people of Acton and Halton is the Free Press. Give it a trial.

J. E. McGarvin, Druggist, Acton Agent for the Meridian Quadruple Plate Silverware, in Plates, Butter and Fleish Dishes, Spoons, Forks, Tea Services, etc. Even articles fully imported, and said very cheap.

A stalk of horse-tail corn, measuring 12 feet 6 inches, was broken in the window of this office, and the police dug it up.

The stalk was broken in two on the farm of Mr. Thos. Whiting of Niagara Falls. This is the longest.

Dresser's Cupid's Hen. Lure will be sold during the day with the right style, colour, size, shape, etc., known to the agents of their customers.

They are satisfied saying their new style, quality and price will please. A call respectively will do.

Will consider it a pleasure to show people. Remember their famous 50 cent.

Instead of the County Master regarding the L. O. L. No. 910, as was announced last week, it was Mr. John Bain, District Master. The Legis. Dept. Wednesday evening, over Sydney's, 7:30 o'clock.

A large stock of cheap China was for sale. China and general equipment of Glaziers at Alex. S. Noddy's Grocery, without the next few days. Now is your time to buy because the goods in the above are.

When a man is seen to stop suddenly on the street, look cautiously around, then stop down and carefully pick up something, you may be sure he is a thief victim to the altering-to-be-thief.

We would remind the ladies that we keep a first class Millinery always in hand. Some Novelties in Millinery to hand fresh specimens weekly which will be duly announced from time to time. Mademoiselle Horne, Georgetown.

New Towns—For a well made, well dressed suit of clothes you can't do better than call at Christie & Anderson's. Their suits are extra cheap. Special prices for boys' wear, as for girls.

When a man is seen to stop suddenly on the street, look cautiously around, then stop down and carefully pick up something, you may be sure he is a thief victim to the altering-to-be-thief.

We would remind the ladies that we keep a first class Millinery always in hand. Some Novelties in Millinery to hand fresh specimens weekly which will be duly announced from time to time. Mademoiselle Horne, Georgetown.

—A lady called in the other day and wished to advertise a photograph which had been found. As the owner happened to be around, the advertiser was not required, but the lady in leaving forgot one of her gloves, which she may have by calling.

We were exceedingly pleased on Saturday evening last, to see the great raid at Noddy's Grocery. Alex. says that all his old friends have come back since, and are doing all they can for him by buying his old clothes.

—A correspondent writes—

At a special meeting of the county Orange Lodge of South Wellington, at Rockwood, Saturday evening, George Hunter resigned the position of county master. The members of the county lodges were very sorry to hear that he had come to such a decision, and pressed him to withdraw his resignation. He informed the members that he had determined upon that step, and they were reluctantly obliged to accept. Bro. Osborne, late deputy county master, therefore assumes the position for the remainder of the year.

We beg to remind the Gentlemen that our Ordered Clothing department is in full swing, that we have a large and varied Stock of Canadian Cloth, Scotch and French Tweeds, Worsted Coatings, Trouserings and Fancy Vesting, all New Fashionable and Cheap, and turn out Noddy, Sylish and Cheap Clothing and Gents' furnishings. Special discounts are offered for purchases over at any one time. Remember them on their Famous 50 cent Trousers.

Co. Mammoth House.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton.

—The harvest is past, the summer is ended.

Scarcely any bottling has been done on the electric yet.

Mr. Wm. Simond is erecting a splendid new brick house on Mill street.

Up J. E. McGarvin's Fly Sticker, it is the best 5 cent & best.

Shaw & Morton, merchant tailors, Guelph, have a new saloon in this issue.

Now is the time to wash with J. E. McGarvin's five cent Detergent Soap.

The late rains have considerably swollen the creeks and ponds in this neighborhood.

The New Dominical Monthly is to hand with its usual vast amount of excellent reading matter.

Mrs. John Rice, of lot 20, 1st con., township of Esgenoop, sells by public auction, her stock and implements on Friday 13th Sept. Wm. Hemmett, Auctioneer.

$10.00 reward for any case of worms in the human system where J. E. McGarvin's Worm Powders will not effect a cure. Try them.

Mr. J. Forsyth, of lot 33, c. 5, D. P. D. offering his farm, farm stock and implements for sale on October 1st. Wm. Hemmett, Auctioneer.

Large quantities of Fall Tweeds are being offered at the East End Clothing store.

Printers' Ink is the oil that moves the wheels of trade and makes the doors of commerce swing easy. The only safe medium for its propagation is a communication with the people of Acton and Halton is the Free Press. Give it a trial.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton Agent for the Meridian Quadruple Plate Silverware, in Plates, Butter and Fleish Dishes, Spoons, Forks, Tea Services, etc. Even articles fully imported, and said very cheap.

A stalk of horse-tail corn, measuring 12 feet 6 inches, was broken in the window of this office, and the police dug it up.

The stalk was broken in two on the farm of Mr. Thos. Whiting of Niagara Falls. This is the longest.

Dresser's Cupid's Hen. Lure will be sold during the day with the right style, colour, size, shape, etc., known to the agents of their customers.

They are satisfied saying their new style, quality and price will please. A call respectively will do.

Will consider it a pleasure to show people. Remember their famous 50 cent.

Instead of the County Master regarding the L. O. L. No. 910, as was announced last week, it was Mr. John Bain, District Master. The Legis. Dept. Wednesday evening, over Sydney's, 7:30 o'clock.

A large stock of cheap China was for sale. China and general equipment of Glaziers at Alex. S. Noddy's Grocery, without the next few days. Now is your time to buy because the goods in the above are.

When a man is seen to stop suddenly on the street, look cautiously around, then stop down and carefully pick up something, you may be sure he is a thief victim to the altering-to-be-thief.

We would remind the ladies that we keep a first class Millinery always in hand. Some Novelties in Millinery to hand fresh specimens weekly which will be duly announced from time to time. Mademoiselle Horne, Georgetown.

New Towns—For a well made, well dressed suit of clothes you can't do better than call at Christie & Anderson's. Their suits are extra cheap. Special prices for boys' wear, as for girls.

When a man is seen to stop suddenly on the street, look cautiously around, then stop down and carefully pick up something, you may be sure he is a thief victim to the altering-to-be-thief.

We would remind the ladies that we keep a first class Millinery always in hand. Some Novelties in Millinery to hand fresh specimens weekly which will be duly announced from time to time. Mademoiselle Horne, Georgetown.

—A correspondent writes—

At a special meeting of the county Orange Lodge of South Wellington, at Rockwood, Saturday evening, George Hunter resigned the position of county master. The members of the county lodges were very sorry to hear that he had come to such a decision, and pressed him to withdraw his resignation. He informed the members that he had determined upon that step, and they were reluctantly obliged to accept. Bro. Osborne, late deputy county master, therefore assumes the position for the remainder of the year.

We beg to remind the Gentlemen that our Ordered Clothing department is in full swing, that we have a large and varied Stock of Canadian Cloth, Scotch and French Tweeds, Worsted Coatings, Trouserings and Fancy Vesting, all New Fashionable and Cheap, and turn out Noddy, Sylish and Cheap Clothing and Gents' furnishings. Special discounts are offered for purchases over at any one time. Remember them on their Famous 50 cent Trousers.

Co. Mammoth House.

J. E. McGarvin, druggist, Acton

—The harvest is past, the summer is ended.

Scarcely any bottling has been done on the electric yet.

Mr. Wm. Simond is erecting a splendid new brick house on Mill street.

Up J. E. McGarvin's Fly Sticker, it is the best 5 cent & best.

Shaw & Morton, merchant tailors, Guelph, have a new saloon in this issue.

Now is the time to wash with J. E. McGarvin's five cent Detergent Soap.</div