

MARRIAGES

On the 21st inst. at 10 o'clock, by Rev. Mr. ...

Close of the Season.

A woman was yesterday seen hanging out clothes in a yard on Macdonald street when a boy looked over the fence and called out: "Have you seen any mad dogs go by here, just now?"

Gems of Thought.

A life has no legs and cannot stand but it has wings and can fly far and wide. It is easier to enrich ourselves with a thousand virtues than to correct ourselves of a single fault.

Checkmate—A liberal husband.

The latest thing in love—the feet. Why should Egypt be the place for jewels to be carried? Because a boy can always find his "hummus" there.

"Down here in summer time you take life easy," says a New-Yorker and then, as if to confirm the statement, that appears in the next column an account of "Three men killed at a camp meeting."

It is a terrible give way when a temptress lectures, pointing in his speech to take a drink of water, and the glass down and heily reaching out towards the end of the table for a couple of coffee grains.

Clocks with a photographic attachment, instead of striking the hour will cut in the morning. "Hello, John, time to get up," or they politely invite "Dear Charles," or "Henry," to go home when ten o'clock P. M. arrives.

A faithful disciple of Capel Court bathed the stage manager of a Strand theatre to tell him some fresh character to go in to a fancy dress ball. Said the manager at last: "Oh, wrap yourself up in a wig, and go us a stock!"

The Toronto, Grey and Bruce Railway Company have at length succeeded in getting a by-law before the Toronto City Council providing for a bonus of $150,000 to assist in widening the gauge of the road. They do not ask for a free gift of the above amount but merely the exchange of debentures for a like amount of 2nd mortgage bonds. Should they be successful in getting this by-law carried there, they will submit like by-laws to the municipalities along the line of road. We hope the Directors of this road may be successful for the scheme is of the utmost importance to the success of the line.
