Suspension and Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Snyder, of lot 32, Col. No. 1, Koenigsville, were greatly surprised on Friday last, May 25th, by the arrival of five of their sons with their families; two of their daughters with their families, along with six of their own brothers, and with their wives, all with them, making thirty-eight guests. The affair was a complete surprise, got up by the children the old people not knowing anything of it till the arrival of the guests. A very enjoyable time was spent; damped somewhat by the sudden death of Mr. Edward Moore of Acton, brother-in-law of Mr. Eli Snyder, and a valued friend of the Snyders and Golden Wedding.

The Journal of Commerce says—

"James Coleman, to whom we made reference some weeks since, was originally a school teacher, but left his modest occupation for the more independent one of a farmer. Perhaps three years since he left his farm for a way-side store, Guelph, where he was well known and might have done well had he possessed the requisite qualifications. Last Saturday he was buried in another grave, kindly prepared by W. H. Storer Etc., who gave him hearty thanks for the service and interest manifested.
