—If you want Fine Combs, Dressing Combs, Back Combs, Circulars, perforated, Pearl Board, Mothers, Fancy Soap Paper, Envelopes, Pencils, Crochets, Needles, Albums, Spectacles, etc., call at Geo. Hyslop's Jewellery Store, Acton.

—ICE CREAM AT
 —CHAS. & MATTHEWS.
 —J. C. Hill for first class Tiptonware.

—CHERRIES are about all picked now.

—BOAT riding is pleasant these evenings.

—A cool romance—courting a girl over the rim.

—Best wheat in 50c. Tea in Acton at J. W. Stans.

—FALL wheat is about all harvested now in this vicinity.

—ALL THE newest things in soft felt Hats at Fyfe & McNab.

—Work out for your hen roosts—cripples in the carriage.

—Sewing machine and other agents for the best quality of goods.

—ICE CREAM by the dish or quart at Nicklin's Ice Cream Parlor.

—It is a mistaken idea that printers lose air and sleep on their feet.

—FOR THE best and cheapest Flips in town go to J. C. Hill's shop.

—About 100 persons went on Friday last to attend Larned's show on West street.

—TUESDAY'S Skoulder Brace for last a gentleman at J. E. McEwen's.

—It is strangely singular how much the boy with a pair of new spectacles hates to wear them.

—DEANS LIVING, Dress, Mantles, Hats and Fashions, all of the latest London. Christie, Henderson & Co., Acton.

—THE estimated population of the County of Halton, as published in the Register (General's report for the current year) is 25,592.

—THE busy hum of the threshing machine is now heard throughout the land. Look out for the big days of threshing and the harvest of crops.

—SHOW us the man who didn't have work during the past few weeks, and we will show you a man who is no fond of work he could lay down and sleep beside it.

—AN exchange contains the marriage notice of Mr. and Mrs. Carr. We notice it merely as an instance of car employment by a clergyman, which is something unusual.

—IF NOAH had foreseen the future and killed the two men who took refuge in the ark, he would have rendered service in the strongest words in the English language unnecessary.

—REMEMBER the Bankrupt Stock, selling off in Acton. Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes, etc., etc., at a low price under wholesale prices. A large quantity of Tea cheap. Cheap John.

—SUCH IS LIFE.—The season is at hand when a whole family will carry their dinner for miles into the woods, and sit down among logs and snags and make to eat. They call it a picnic.

—HARRY
 —HENDERSON
 —HEAVY hearted eight, as
 —He harvest, heavy handfala.
 —HAVE you visited your country relatives yet?
 —For good sweet Paste go to Clark & Matthews.
 —A large stock of Stores and Tinware at J. C. Hill's.

—A QUANTITY of waste paper for sale cheap at this office.

—WHAT is the article chiefly sold at most fancy fairs? The raffle.

—DEAR BUNS in town at Nicklin's Bakery. Be sure and try them.

—ANOTHER new supply of Self-sealing Pressure Jars at J. W. Mann's.

—THE welcome sound of Mr. M. Speight's steam whistle is again heard.

—BE SURE and call at Nicklin's Ice Cream Parlor for a dish of Ice Cream.

—MR. HARRY Hunt, formerly G.T. R. agent here, but now at Berlin, made a short visit in Acton this week.

—WHAT makes the young men so absent minded of the ice cream parlors when they have their girls with them?
Babbit Metal.
 Old type for sale cheap at the Press Office. Just the thing for setting women's hair and repair bobbings.

—BOYS BE CAREFUL.—Gun accidents, especially among school boys, are reported almost every day. Our advice to the boys is, if you must go out shooting, be careful.

—MOSKIE.—An Italian with the usual band organ and monkey, arrived in Acton on Saturday morning, and was followed about the streets by a host of little girls and boys.

—IT seems remarkable that a noisy chair at home is much less comfortable to a man than the hard side of a dry board on a street corner with a crowd of loafers around.

—ABOUT three million dozens of men's collars are manufactured by a Tipton factory in a year. It is one of which will stand up to its work properly through a hot summer day.

—MR. John Lawson has commenced the erection of a new brick house at the corner of Mill and Willer streets. From present appearances it will be a neat and comfortable dwelling.

—Now the wheel in style arrived, with the will beneath the favor of the sun.

—THREE.—An exchange says: "habitual promiscuous on the streets by young girls is decidedly injurious to a good reputation." A little gum on the back of this paragraph will enable parents to stick it on the loolick glass.

—OK Monday last a daughter of Mr. Alex. Grant, about 7 years of age, fell from an apple tree in the garden, causing a slight fracture of the left arm. Mr. Lowry dressed the wound and the patient is fast recovering.

—WE notice that Messrs. R. Adams of Acton and Wm. Nichol of the 4th Line Engineers, have received new threshing machines from the manufactory of Messrs. McMillan, McPherson & Co., Stratford. The workmanship is well done and the machines have a good reputation.

—WORTH TRYING.—It is said that corn which is dipped in molasses and then rolled in flour in the plum tree has saved many a crop of plums. The cereal will lay its head in the sweetened corn and instead of the plums will be the sticky prepared corn are sufficient for all ordinary uses.

—HARTER SHOES.—Economy is no disgrace. It is better to wear a cool low shoe in laying and harvest than to waste money by wearing high boots in the hot weather. A lot of men's Plow Shoes, Boots and Gaiters for sale at Christie, Henderson & Co., Acton. Where you get the famous 60 cent Tea at 45 cents, in 5 lb. lots.

—OK Tuesday last we commence our semi-annual clearing sale. All summer goods to be cleared off regardless of cost. Remember we have reduced large piles of people's goods which will make 50 per cent cheap. All goods will be next fall. Military and wares great bargains. Now is your chance for bargains. McLeod, Anderson & Co., Mammoth House, Georgetown.

—THE British Review, a new paper which has recently been started in Paris, Ont., has been received at this office. It is the new popular eight page forty-eight column style, well edited, full of interesting news, neatly printed and deserves, as no doubt it will receive, an extended patronage. The proprietor, Messrs. Campbell & Baker, have our best wishes for their success.

—We have received the annual circular of the Wesleyan Female College, of Hamilton, Ont. This College furnishes an excellent means for the education of young ladies, and with its large and experienced staff of teachers it is one of the best colleges in the Dominion. Besides being a splendid educational institution it affords a comfortable and pleasant home for the scholars. For circular containing particulars and terms, address, Rev. A. Barnes, D.D., L.L.D., Principal, Hamilton, Ont.

—CALL on J. C. Hill's for a nice bird case.

—FOR Fresh and Dried Peaches go to Clark & Matthews.

—C. Hill for the best East-Indianna sugar.

—NOTHING to surprise those ten dollar suits at Fyfe & McNab's.

—A POUND of good, Assorted Sugar for $1.00 for cash at J. W. Mann's.

—OSONOTRY is to have a Mechanical Institute and Literary Association.

—OUR compliments are due to Miss Cummings for copies of St. Paul, Minn. papers.

—THE communication of Mr. Geo. Tolton, respecting the North West, came to hand late for insertion but will appear next week.

—MR. Robt. Craig, of the Fergus News Record, gave us a call on Tuesday last. His pleasing smile and affable manner won for him our esteem.

—MR. W. H. Stacey has commenced operations at his new residence. When completed it will be one of the finest, if not the finest buildings in our village.

—THE Berlin Telegraph condemns the lacrosse players in that town for indulging in a disorderly beer goggle at the conclusion of matches. Not much wonder!

—TEA.—A large quantity of Black, Green and Japan Teas—about 1000 pounds to be sold at a great sacrifice. Reimburse the place, brick store, opposite Mr. Agnew's Hotel. Butter and Eggs taken as cash. Cheap John, Acton.

—THE other day as Mr. John Cameron was engaged at his work behind a two-inch wheel which he was using around a well, he was struck on the head by the second finger on his left hand, penetrated completely through the finger, grazing the bone. Although painful it is rapidly healing up.

—NOTHING says better than making a ragged pair. After a woman has cut up a dozen button shirts, five pairs of pantaloons, seven coats, ten vests, and fourteen old dresses, and spent three months in converting them into carpets, she can take the whole lot to a carpet weaver and get two dollars for them.

—GENTLEMEN.—We are doing the tip top clothing trade of this part of the county. We sell the goods cheap. Workmen's clothing is first-class. The fitting irremovable, and the stock is large. Nobly and well made. Clothing is made to order. Clearing sale in Ready Made Clothing, Linens and Linen Drapery, Straw Hats, etc. Great bargains will be given to reduce the stock before the fall term. McLeod, Anderson & Co., Mammoth House, Georgetown.

—TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—As Mr. Geo. Bell was using a reaping machine on his farm (Glenford), on Thursday last, he met a most disastrous accident, which he is recovering from. He was riding on the seat of the implement, when his hat blew off, and in attempting to catch it, he lost his balance and fell forward upon the machine, which was in motion, and he was cut from his chair, inflicting a frightful wound.

—TERRIBLE MACHINE ACCIDENT.—The first threshing and reaping machine accident in this vicinity took place at Mr. Hamilton Adams' farm in this village on Monday evening last. The machine was being attached to the power and Mr. John McCannell was leading his horses, when he was not accustomed to the work, when he accidentally cut his right hand caught between the chain of the equalizer and the pulley, thereby bruising badly three of the fingers, two of which were almost torn off at the first joint. His hand was dressed by Dr. Lowry and the patient is progressing favorably.

—ON Tuesday last we had a call from Rev. A. B. DeMill, of DeMill's Ladies' College, Ontario. We understand that this college is being very successful in its work, and we are glad to hear that the public fully appreciate the efforts now forth to make it one of the best institutions in the Dominion, where a thorough English, Medical and Chemical education can be obtained. Mr. DeMill is planning to start the present year a large addition will be built to the eastern side of the building, and the new building will be a beautiful and beautiful college building in the Dominion.

—WE would call the attention of the readers of the Press residing in Acton and surrounding country to the new advertisements of Messrs. Christie, Henderson & Co., Fyfe & McNab, and J. C. Hill. At Christie, Henderson & Co.'s you will find a full, cheap and good stock of goods in every line mentioned in their advertisements. Messrs. Fyfe & McNab are prepared to supply all who desire first-class suits in tweed and worsted goods and as cheap as the cheapest. Mr. J. T. Estlin can fill the orders of all parties with goods and clothing of all kinds, equal to that supplied by any city dealer.

OILS!
 James Matthews sells Boiled Oil at 70c per gal., Raw Oil at 65c per gal., Turpentine at 50c per gal., Machine Oil from 20c up, all cheap for cash. Now is your time to paint.

—AN UNPARALLELED OFFER.—A beautiful lot in hand time the offer of a beautiful oil of China, 14 1/2 inches, to be sent by mail, post-paid, for 25 cents, is unparalleled. This picture is a genuine work of art, and is an ornament to any home, however richly furnished, while to those whose means will not allow the purchase of costly pictures, it affords an opportunity to secure a beautiful picture at a very small cost. This picture is only sold at this low price to introduce our goods, and as the supply is limited, those wishing copies should send at once. Remember only a few copies left. Price 25 cents, $1.75 a dozen. U.S. postage stamps taken. Address: H. H. H. & Co., P. O. Box 8143, Boston, Mass.
