ENCOURAGING REPORTS.

The annual Grand Trunk crop reports, which embrace the neighborhood of the whole line of route from Portland to Detroit, have always been looked upon as a most valuable contribution to the literature of trade, finance and banking, and this year forms no exception to the rule. They are compiled with great care by the agents of the company, and are so entirely trustworthy that they may be looked upon with the same amount of confidence as a blue book which contains information only accessible to the Government and its officials, and which in the nature of things must be the most exact approach to the absolutely certain and exact. From a cursory examination of the reports we are led to conclude that the harvest which has just been garnered is the most prolific and abundant that Canada has been blessed with for many years. The general average of cereals has in some instances exceeded by one-third that of ordinary years, while hay and roots, on which the farmer so much depends for cattle feed, have turned out to be exceedingly heavy crops. This latter fact acquires additional importance as tending to help the development of the export of cattle trade which has already acquired considerable proportions, and which in the future may form a great source of national wealth and prosperity. Altogether the country has, this year, been signally blessed by Providence.

County and Township Agricultural Exhibition.

The county and township fairs are now commencing. This is a season when the farmers and family seek, by attending, to combine pleasure with profit. It may always be done, not only by the farmer, but by everybody who is interested in the agricultural industry of the country. In years gone by fairs accomplished a noble work, and have continued to do so every season. They have given an impetus to improve live stock, and by the exhibition of superior products and improved machinery, to improve farming as well. It has been claimed that our fairs are mere money making machines. In isolated instances the assertion may be partially true. In the majority it is not, and the history of our agricultural societies will show that the officers as a rule, are actuated by motives for the public good, and they have done good as one of the most important of many features in the development of all the countries where held. Let us say then to our readers, make preparations to attend your respective fairs this fall, and go prepared to learn as you enjoy. Examine the stock, machines, grain, seeds, plants and flowers with a critical eye, and with a view to improvement when you get home. Make notes of what you see for future reference. Learn everything you possibly can about the different articles shown and you are sure to be benefited by the knowledge.

Canada First.

Canada has come decidedly to the front this year in every kind of athletic and scientific sports. In lacrosse, of course, we stand alone without a rival. The only match played between a Canadian team and a foreign one was we believe, the Montreal and Boston teams—and the former won with ease. In rifle-shooting Canadians have made a long step forward this year, as the record of the Canadian representatives at Wimbledon, as well as the scores made in the recent annual Provincial matches, will show. In athletic sports Canada is pre-eminent on this continent; both the heavy-weight and light-weight champions of America are Canadians—the former being Chief McKinnon, of Belleville, and the latter E. W. Johnson, of Hamilton. In sculling we lead the world. Hurlan has beaten the acknowledged champions of England and America, and Warren Smith, of Halifax, has beaten the champion of America. In cricket and base-ball, the Canadians have obtained an enviable record. The Woodstock Base-ball Club has recently returned from a very successful tour in New York State, and the Hamilton Cricket Club has within the past two or three weeks defeated the best clubs in the United States and has been pronounced the Champion Club of America by the New York press. Canadians have never been so successful in athletic sports and scientific pastimes as this year.

Address and Presentation.

At the close of an examination of the pupils of S. S. No. 5, Esquimaux, Mr. W. H. Grant, who has had charge of the school for the past three years, and is now leaving to attend the Normal School at Ottawa, was presented with a beautiful gold chain and locket, accompanied by the following address:—

Esteemed and respected teacher, you are about to leave us, to our great sorrow and regret; it may be for ever, although we sincerely hope not, but rather that at some future time you may be with us again. This we hope, although it is true we have tried your patience many times and have conducted ourselves contrary to the example set before us by so worthy a respected person as yourself. Now, dear teacher, please accept as a token of our great respect and regard for you, this chain and locket, not on account of its intrinsic value, but simply as a token of our affection. We will now join in saying, wherever you may be, you carry with you our best wishes for your success. We hope that Providence will deal with you kindly, and watch over and care for you that your life may be long and happy in the earnest wish of your affectionate pupils.

Signed on behalf of the Scholars,
 Lizzie Gillies,
 Annie Black,
 Sarah Hume,
 Bella Moore.

The Vice-Royal Reception.

GUELPH IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE.

The Central Exhibition.

A GREAT INFLOX OF VISITORS.

The royal visitants, the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise arrived in Guelph yesterday at 12 o'clock noon. Although the people of Guelph had very little time in which to prepare for the reception, the manner in which decorations, etc. were made was creditable to any city.

On the arrival of the train at noon the vice royal party were received on the platform erected at the Huskisson street crossing, by the Mayor of Guelph, warden of the county, president of the agricultural society, and chairman of the general committee.

The party were conducted to the carriage and the procession moved off to the exhibition grounds. On arriving here they proceeded to the band stand and thence between the ranks of school children to the pavilion. As they passed the children sang and sang "The Campbells are coming" and "God save the Queen."

On the platform were assembled the vice royal party and suite, the city council, the county council, the directors of the agricultural association, the members of the several committees, the members of the Ontario government and members of parliament.

The City address was presented by the Mayor, the County address by the Warden and Agricultural Society address by the President of the Society.

His Excellency then proceeded to the raised dais at the front of the platform and formally declared the exhibition open.

After inspecting the exhibits they reentered their carriages and passed along the main carriage drive, on the inside of which was arranged the live stock.

Leaving the grounds by the lower gate the party passed along Kirkland street to St. Lawrence, thence to Glasgow, thence by Ontario to Dublin, thence by Dublin to Belfast; thence by Belfast to Norfolk, along Norfolk to Mr. Raymond's residence, where Her Royal Highness remained for lunch.

His Excellency proceeded to the public lunch in the city hall at 2 p. m. On leaving Mr. Raymond's residence the party proceeded by Suffolk and Woodwich streets and market square to the city hall, where at 3:30 p. m., His Excellency and the Princess held a reception in the council chamber. At the close the party returned to the cars in waiting and proceeded to Toronto.
