TOWN AND COUNTY.

THURSDAY MORNING 2 or 6 1879.

—Thanksgiving Day.

—Let's go for a sleigh ride.

—The shops and business places will be closed to-day.

—Door step and front gate receptions and visits are over for this season.

—Thanksgiving service in the Methodist church this morning, at 11 a.m.

—Sacred Concert in the Temperance Hall this evening. Don't fail to attend.

—The only housework that some girls do is when they begin to dust around after a beau.

—In sending letters across the border now it is necessary to mention the State as well as the town or city in the address.

—Many of our boys render themselves a nuisance by congregating on the various street corners to repeat profane history.

Volunteers, Attention. — Target practice of No. 6 Company Volunteers, will commence on Monday, 10th inst. A number of prizes will be given.

Re engagement.—Mr. Thos. Moore has been re-engaged for the 1st Department of the Acton Public School, and Miss McKellar, for the 2nd Department.

—Begin to think about thanksgiving; and while you have enough to be thankful for remember that you might make at least one poor heart glad by a trifling gift.

—The young ladies are anxiously looking forward for the year 1880, when they will have the privilege of putting the question to some of our rusty-crusty old bachelors. Leap year, you know!

—A polar wave came along last week, causing a general brightening of old stoves, and buying of new ones. The cold weather seriously interferes with the plans of the young folks, who delight in moonlight rambles and rides.

—Can you change a $4 bill? is a question asked every hour in the day by merchants and others. What has become of all the silver and small bills? There are more $4 bills around here than $1's and very little silver of any kind.

—The Free Press will be sent to persons who subscribe now up to Jan. 1st, 1881, for $1.00, payable in advance. Subscribe at once. Every man ought to have the local paper. You can not fail to see something in it during the year that will benefit you more than the cost.

—If people in the habit of placing coins in their mouth would ask themselves the question "Where was the coin last?" the disgusting habit of transferring a coin from purse to mouth would soon disappear. It is a dangerous practice, as disease could easily be communicated through the medium of coins.

Lecture.—A lecture under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will be given by Rev. W. Williams, chairman of the Guelph District, on Monday evening next, in the Methodist church. His subject is "Elbow Room," and the lecture has been well received by all who have heard it. Admission 15 cents.

Our New Sign.—A new feature is added to the general physiognomy of the town by the new sign we erected on our office last week. The letters are bold enough that he who runs may read, and the appearance of the sign reflects credit on the manufacturers. Mr. John Crowe, of Guelph, cast the letters, and Mr. Chas. Speight, of our village, did the painting and bronzing.

Burned to Death.—Mr. Peacock, of Nassagaweya, received, on Saturday night last, a letter from his son-in-law, Mr. Ptolemy, of the State of Wisconsin, which conveyed the sad intelligence that Mrs. Ptolemy, while running to escape the prairie fire, was overtaken and burned to death. Her little boy, four years old, which she was carrying, was found the next day with only slight injuries.

Barber Shop.—Mr. John Worden, one of our local boys, has opened a barber shop in the building opposite J. C. Hill's tinshop. He has just received a new chair from the establishment of Messrs. Worsfold & Wiley, Guelph, which is most comfortable and suitable to the requirements of the business and a credit to the manufacturers. Mr. Worden solicits a share of the patronage of the village, and we wish him success.

Thanksgiving Concert.—A Concert under the auspices of St. Alban's Church, will be given this (Thursday) evening, in the Temperance Hall. Miss Geddes, the talented organist of St. George's church, Guelph, and the following quartette of favorite vocalists, Miss Foster, (Soprano), Miss Nellie Foster, (Alto), Mr. Jopling, (Tenor), Mr. J. W. Benton, (Basso), will be present, and Miss Swan and Miss Hazlett, of Acton, have kindly promised to play an Instrumental Duet. Admission 25 cents.

—To day is Thanksgiving day.

—The welcome jingle of the merry, merry sleigh bells now salutes our ears.

As a fly-catcher Jack Frost outranks any base ball player in the country.

—Now is the time to make out your accounts. Bill Heads neatly printed at this office. Call and see specimens.

—Mr. Creedmore, late of Chatham, has opened a general grocery store in the stand opposite Mrs. S. A. Secord.

—None of the scientists have explained why it is that a man is always the sleepiest just before the fire is built in the morning.

—Those who wish to dead beat advertisements should remember that a paper is a publisher's farm, which it costs him a very heavy outlay to keep up. He must work it or starve.

Skating.—Quite a number of our young people have been out on the ponds, indulging in the pleasant pastime of skating during the past few days. We prefer to wait a few weeks yet, until the ice becomes more safe.

—We all love pleasure and abhor sorrow. No one will choose a cloudy sky a rough path, but these evils have their good parts and those who really long for peace and happiness will try to find out and extract them, instead of hurrying along deceitfully or with forced gaiety.

Personal.

Rev. Mr. Hazleton, of Ottawa, is in town. We understand that the officials of the Baptist Churches of Acton, Milton and Hornby, are about concluding arrangements with him to preach at the above places. He purposes to reside here if the engagement is made.

—We will give the Free Press and London Advertiser and Weekly Liberal from now till the 1st of January, 1881, for $2.00 cash. A copy of the Advertiser Annual will be presented to each one who accepts the above offer. The Free Press regular rates for 14f month is $1.20, the Advertiser $1.80 and the Annual 20c., making $3.20, and we give all for $2.00.

—Tardy winter has at last arrived and apologises for being so late. Delayed by dallying with a stray zephyr met on his way from the North. When shown green grass and dandelions in bloom, remarks I-see. Is freezingly cool. Grand welcome from overcoat and ulster dealers, thick boot and india-rubber shoe men. The coal and stove men will give him a warm reception.

—Before marriage—"Oh, my darling, your voice is as musical to me as a vesper bell whose tones fall softly on the perfumed evening air! Speak again and say those words, my beloved, for I could listen to your voice until the stars are extinguished in everlasting night!" After marriage—"I've had just enough of your clapper, old woman, and if you don't let up I'll leave the house."

—When a farmer picks up a home paper and sees every reliable business firm represented in its columns by good, healthy advertisements, he says to himself at once, "that is a business place; the merchants are energetic, wide-awake and up to the times; they are trying to build up their town and enhance the interests of the surrounding country. They deserve a little patronage and they shall have mine."

—As the time for receiving poems referring to the "Beautiful" is at hand, we submit the following model to those desirous of fame on the subject. Its chief merit is its brevity:—

Soft and light,
Pure and white;
On the ground
Not a sound!
Now we know
It is snow.

Another Port Hope Daily.—We have received a copy of the daily Port Hope Times, which commenced publication last week, and welcome it to our exchange list. It is a neat, four page, twenty column sheet, published every afternoon. It gives its readers a full report of the latest news of the day, including telegraph and cable despatches. The new journal will no doubt be welcomed and well supported by the citizens of Port Hope, and we wish it a successful career.

Stubborn Facts.

That in severe and chronic cases, which have defied all other remedies, Wilson's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry gives immediate relief, and effects a speedy cure.

That no case has been reported in which it failed to give relief.

That every family who keeps it on hand can laugh at Croup, Whooping Cough, Colds, Bronchitis, and all kindred diseases.

That in every district where Wilson's Wild Cherry has been introduced it has jumped into favor in an incredibly short time.

That besides being a radical cure for the above mentioned diseases it is one of the best Tonics in use.

That if you have not already done so it is your duty to purchase a bottle at once.

That you can buy it from any leading druggist in Western Ontario. 19-4

Open Division.—As is the case with all free open meetings given by the Sons of Temperance, the one held on Tuesday evening last was well attended, the hall being almost uncomfortably filled. Mr. John Speight occupied the chair. The meeting was first addressed by Rev. R. Holden, and Mr. Fitzmorris, a lecturer from Saginaw, Mich., now making a tour through Canada, was then introduced to the audience and delivered a most interesting lecture, which every person present seemed to appreciate and enjoy. Excellent music was discoursed by Misses Clara Watson and Maggie Nicklin, and Mr. A. E. Matthews. Miss Augusta Nicklin presiding at the organ. The Division continues to keep up its good reputation for entertainments.

—The careful and prudent purchaser always looks thoroughly through the advertising columns to ascertain the character and extent of the attractions and bargains offered by business men. Houses that advertise properly are always preferred; and our readers will have noticed that many of our merchants are now, every week or once or twice a month, setting forth in a new advertisement what they may have to sell. The old idea of a stereotyped announcement, standing for months, is exploded as altogether behind the times. Our advertising columns are getting to be just as fresh and attractive as our news columns, and we believe the day is not far distant when every mercantile advertiser will make it a rule to write a fresh advertisement every week or at least every fortnight. Then he will get the utmost possible value for his expenditure in advertising.

—The varied assortment of ignorance possessed by the average poet is somethings fearful to contemplate. The more ignorance they have the better poetry they write. They are given to asking conundrum, and as soon as they strike a hard one to answer, their reputation is made. The latest poet shoves out this specimen:

"Tiny footsteps on the stairs,
Pattering soft and low.
What does their gentle music mean?
Whither do they go?"

The man who wrote this thinks he is smart, but we can answer his conundrum. It seems that there was company at the house, and immediately after supper the children were sent off to bed. After they had been in bed just long enough to give the impression that they were asleep, they came to the conclusion that the company had not eaten all the dainties provided. Acting on this belief they got up, and the "pattering soft and low" was the noise of their footsteps as they sneaked down stairs to the sideboard and pantry, foraging for jam and cakes. Their "gentle music" means that their mother got in ahead of them, so to speak, and cut off the supplies. It is by the publication of such facts as these that we can knock the bottom out of such poetry.

We can suit the most fastidious lady in all particulars, and we have made extensive improvements in our Clothing Department which will meet with the approval of our numerous patrons. We sell goods cheap to suit the times. McLeod, Anderson & Co.

On the Verge of the Grave.

Such was the condition of Moses A. Walker, of Derry, N. H., with congestion of the lungs and chronic Catarrh. Two bottles of the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy entirely restored him to health, and, to use his own words, "built up my whole system." The remedy is for sale by all Druggists.

—Overwhelming evidence that McLeod, Anderson & Co., of the Mammoth House, Georgetown have the biggest stock, have the biggest place, do the biggest Dry Goods business, give the biggest bargains in this county or any other county or city. Their place is crammed full from cellar to garret—of big bargains and first-class goods—Inspection invited. Competition nowhere when our great bargains are seen.

An Inspiration.

When a poet composes a set of verses that stir men's hearts, we say he is inspired. So indeed he is. When celebrated students of hygiene, after careful study, give us a name for that many of the ills that flesh is heir to, we say they have made a lucky hit. We are wrong. It is equally an inspiration. Debility, bronchial affections, and consumption number their victims by the thousands, but how many of these difficulties could be ameliorated if we only knew it. Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is the remedy preeminently adapted to such conditions, and if taken long enough is almost sure to effect a cure. It is also perfectly agreeable to the taste.

Important Notice.—It is admitted by all parties who have paid attention to recent changes in values that Teas have advanced fully 15 to 20 per cent, and leather from 25 to 30 per cent. Our stock of Boots and Shoes was all bought before the advance, and about a week before the recent rise in Teas we purchased a three months stock. We make no change in price, but give our patrons the entire benefit of our good luck and can therefore guarantee prices lower than in any adjoining village, town or city. Coal Oil only 12 cents per gallon, warranted good. Salt only 58 cents per barrel. An immense stock of Boots and Shoes to select from. Dry Goods, Ready-made Clothing, Millinery, Mantles, etc., etc., at old prices. Christie, Henderson & Co., Acton.
