TOWNSEND COUNTY.

THURSDAY MORNING DEC. 4, 1879.

MR. H. P. MOORE, editor of this Journal, recognizing that a holiday of a week or so would be conducive to him, has taken it, and for the time I have assumed the role of editor-in-chief. T. ALSTON MOORE.

DECEMBER.

Leafless and bare,
December stands blast blowing,
The keen, sharp air,
The parks with crisp leaves strewing,
And over there,
Upon the mountains, snowing.

—HAVE you paid your taxes?

—FIRST goods for the holidays in all our first-class stores.

—"HOURS are soon found again." It would be inconvenient if they came elsewhere.

—REMEMBER, we do job work at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms. Give us a call and be convinced.

—THE Acton Methodist Church will have a Christmas Tree and Tea-meeting on Christmas Eve. Their stock early so that others will not choose the same night for an entertainment.

—AN exchange gives the following sound advice:—"Merchants should not let their advertisements run to seed. A fresh advertisement is just as necessary as a well-kept show-window."

NEW FLOUR MILLS.—We understand that Mr. A. Noble of Norval is about to erect a new steam flour mill on the site of the old grist mill in that place, to contain eight run of stones.

SUSPICIOUS.—After my numbers, boys and children, bear a suspicious air, as if they realized that all the extra care and fuss extended to them will be followed by extra exactions in view.

THANKS.—Our thanks, combined with those of all the inhabitants of the village, are extended to the council for the complete manner in which the various sidewalks and crossings of the village have been repaired.

—MR. J. S. Cook, of Georgetown College, creditably occupied the pulpit of the C. M. church, Acton, last Sabbath morning. In the evening the Rev. R. Hobbs continued his series of sermons on the subject of prayer.

CORRESPONDENTS WANTED.—Now that the evenings are long, we would feel obliged to our friends in the country if they would devote a portion of their leisure hours to give us the facts. We don't care how short the items are, so long as they are interesting.

—THE skating accidents have begun, and it is sure that a long list of them among venturesome lads will be recorded before the season is over. But no warning proves of much use in this matter; those who read of the fatal results of skating on too thin

—WE have been informed that Mr. Thos. Easton, Tax Collector for Acton, for 1879, has succeeded in collecting all the taxes except about $250, and he is determined to collect the remainder and return the Roll on the 14th inst., that being (the time made in the Statute. So hurry up ye who are in arrear.

A CONFERENCE of Christian workers will be held at Shaftesbury Hall, Toronto, on the 10th, 11th and 12th inst. Hon. Vice-Chancellor Blake will preside, and Rev. George Muller, of Bristol, Eng., with other prominent ministers of Canada and the United States, will be present. The Second Coming of Christ, Inspiration of the Scriptures, and Bible Study, with other subjects, will be discussed.

BROKEN ARM.—On Tuesday evening an accident occurred to Mrs. Geo. Tolton, of Glenlawson. It seems that in company with Mr. Tolton she had been away from home, when they arrived at home it was dark and a lantern was used to light the way. When she was alighting from the buggy the horse got frightened at the light, and suddenly started, upsetting and damaging the buggy, and in the confusion breaking Mrs. Tolton's arm. Dr. McGarvin was sent for, and he attended the fracture.

Personals.

Mr. Wm. Thompson and family, left Acton on Monday night for Kalamazoo, Mich., where they purpose to reside. We understand they are much pleased with that country.

Mr. W. H. McDonald, formerly teacher of S. S. No. 13, Esquesing, left Acton for Trinity College, Toronto, on Saturday last. He has our best wishes for a prosperous and successful career, during his stay at the College.

Hymenial.

We announce in this issue the union by matrimony of Mr. H. P. Moore, Editor and Proprietor of this Journal, and eldest son of the late Edward Moore, Esq., to Miss Hattie L. Speight, second daughter of John Speight, Esq., both of this Village. This marriage was consummated last evening at 6 o'clock, in the Acton Methodist Church, Rev. R. Hobbs, conducting the ceremony. A large proportion of the villagers were present and witnessed the ceremony, which was both solemn and interesting. The bride and her maid, Miss Lottie E. Speight, were splendidly attired. Mr. Moore had for groom, his brother, T. Albert Moore. This being the first marriage celebrated in the church, the couple were presented with a handsome, morocco bound, Family Bible, by Mr. James Brown, on behalf of the Trustees of the church.

—EARRING found. It is here.

—LAST Sunday was St. Andrew's Day.

Merchants who are wise,
Will now for Christmas advertise.

—CHRISTMAS is coming and business men should plant their holiday advertisements.

—TEA MEETING to-night in the Brick Church, above Acton. Arrangements are completed, and a good time is expected.

—MR JOHN ROSS, formerly principal of Acton Public School, is now Head Master of Victoria School, Hamilton.—Champion. Mr. Ross assumed that position a year ago.

—WE welcome to our exchange list the Listowel Standard, a first-class weekly journal, well filled with news, and a recognized family newspaper. Hawkins & Kells are the publishers.

—REMEMBER the grand Vocal and Instrumental Concert next Wednesday evening, in the Methodist Church, Acton. It promises to be the best concert ever given in this village.

—MR. VENNOR is out with his new prophecy for the coming winter, which he says will be extremely cold, February being one of the coldest on record. He says we shall have an early spring.

—NOW that the long evenings have come, parents should see to it that the home is made a bright and attractive place for boys to spend their time, and thus prevent them from seeking amusement elsewhere.

GOOD SUGGESTION.—A citizen recommends all who wish to keep their sidewalks clean without running into danger of smashing snow shovels, to take the first favorable opportunity of driving down the nails in the sidewalk.

—THE Grand Opera House, Toronto, was almost wholly destroyed by fire on Saturday last. The caretaker with his wife and child were burned to death, while another man narrowly escaped. Loss amounts to $200,000.

—THE bricklayers have concluded operations on the handsome and commodious residence of Mr. R. Little, and are now engaged on the more modest but substantial building being built on John Street, by Mr. John Turner.

—The friends of Mr. Haddon, pastor Priceville Methodist church, recently presented him with a purse of $25, in commemoration of having defeated Rev. H. McDiarmid, M. A., who is well known in Acton, in a discussion on Christian Baptism.

MILTON CEMETERY.—The Champion urges the Town Council of Milton, to procure a new cemetery site for the town, owing to the fact that the present one is filled to overflowing, and many citizens are now obliged to bury their dead in outside grounds among strangers.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—On Tuesday evening next, 9th inst., the annual missionary meeting of the Acton Congregational church will be held. The meeting will be addressed by Revs. Hunter and Silcox, of Toronto, and Unsworth, of Georgetown. A collection will be taken up at the close.

—WE have heard so often of the woman and man who were "no better than they ought to be," that we have lost all interest in them. If people who talk want to astonish the world with a real novelty, let them point out some human specimens that are better than they should be. Humanity will pay a premium just to look at them.

From the age of 16 to 60.

Thousands of people from the age of sixteen to eighty years, are suffering from kidney complaints and other diseases arising from derangement of the urinary organs, who would be relieved by a few doses of Victoria Buchu and in a few days a permanent cure made by the use of a few bottles. Price $1. 2

—NO NAMES, so far as we know, have yet been advanced as candidates for municipal honors in this village. Now is the time to come out, so that the ratepayers can fully look into the abilities of each. "Delay is dangerous," is an old motto, but a good one, and can be used with profit in a matter like this. In Georgetown there is a move in the proper direction, which is to run a workingman for a seat at the council board. We would like very much to see a workingman of this village aspiring to that position.

—On entering the Jewellery Store Mr. Geo. Hynds, Acton, the other day we were much surprised to see such a large and choice selection of Jewellery, comprising, clocks, watches, chains, rings, &c. &c. Then another surprise awaited us on looking over his stock of Christmas and New Years' presents, which consists of almost everything that could be imagined or conceived. There are presents for all, and whether big or little, wealthy or otherwise you can be suited at his store. No matter how small a place as Acton, and Mr. Hynds is deserving of universal patronage as a reward for his enterprise.

CHANGE IN THE SCHOOL ACT.—The County School inspectors have been served with copies of the amended Act of Parliament respecting elections for school trustees, from which it appears that instead of being held on the same day as the voting, as has heretofore been the case, the nominations will take place one week previous, on the last Wednesday in December. The election, if there should be more than one candidate, will come off on the Wednesday following. This applies only to Public and Separate School elections in towns, as the nominations and elections in rural school sections both take place on the same day—the last Wednesday this year is on the 31st.

34 CHURCH LANE ST., Toronto, May 13, '79.
Messrs. Milburn, Bentley and Pearson.

Gentlemen.—Last fall I contracted a severe cold, which, by my neglect, settled on my lungs. I found every indication of the first stage of consumption, and, like many others, when almost too late, commenced to doctor up. I tried many remedies, but got no better; was almost satisfied I was incurable. Accidentally I heard of your Victoria Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and as a forlorn hope bought a bottle. I immediately felt relieved. After taking five bottles I am cured, and never felt better in my life. I would heartily recommend your Hypophosphites.

Respectfully yours, W. ELDRIDGE.

JENNY LEE.—We would call the attention of our readers to the poetical effusion, under the above name, to be found on the second page of this issue. The author of that poetry, after spending many days in restlessness, and nights in wrestling with the muse, was at last inspired by that deity, and succeeded in writing those lines. Then he rushed to our sanctum, left the copy with us, and requested by all the powers of poetry that we should insert it. We looked at the man, taking in, in one look, the fierce light that had come into his eyes, the terrible expression of his mouth and other parts of his face, and seeing that if we did not publish it the Toronto lunatic asylum would soon have another inmate, we accordingly promised to give it publicity. But in future, we wish the friends of poets would guard them, and when they get so much inspiration as our friend had, they should be chained in. Dear reader, before reading the lines in question, prepare your mind for the fearful strain upon your brain to fathom its deep meaning.

Use J. E. McGarvin's Blood Purifier for Horses and Cattle.

Gents' Fur Caps and Gloves, Buffalo Robes, at last year's prices, but remember, Buffalo Robes have doubled in price. Now is your chance for great bargains in Furs. McLeod, Anderson & Co.

Misery's Throne.

Of all the miserable and unhappy creatures in existence, there are none more so than the confirmed dyspeptic. Life is a burden, and if the sufferer does not obtain relief he soon sinks into a direful misanthrope, with the germs of consumption lurking dangerously near. The only known remedy—tested in innumerable cases—is Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil combined with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. With this medicine the incumbus is removed, and the embryo seeds of consumption scattered. It is also nearly as pleasant to the taste as sweet cream.

On the Verge of the Grave.

Such was the condition of Moses A. Walker, of Derry, N. H., with congestion of the lungs and chronic Catarrh. Two bottles of the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy entirely restored him to health, and, to use his own words, "built up my whole system." The remedy is for sale by all Druggists.

—IMMENSE piles of all kinds of woolen goods at the Mammoth House, Georgetown. Blankets, flannels, misses ladies' and gents' underclothing, hosiery, knitted goods, clouds, jackets, &c. All the above goods were bought before the recent advance in woolen goods. The greatest bargains ever offered to the public. McLeod, Anderson & Co.

A Conundrum Propounded.

Why will the "small boy," persist in eating green apples? The reader may as well give it up at once, since our original parents were guilty of the "little indiscretion". Physicians say, the season in which early or unripe fruit is first introduced, is the one they are the most severely taxed in cases of Colic, diarrhœa, dysentery, etc. Young and old are guilty, but boys and girls are the surest victims and the greatest sufferers. There is no peace, comfort and safety in the family unless its head provides a proper and efficient remedy. Scott & Bowne's Palatable Castor Oil is a certain remedy and is easy to take. Price 25 cents.

ARRIVAL OF THREE SHIPMENTS OF GOODS AT THE "RIGHT HOUSE."

WATKINS' enormous stock of new goods having been nearly sold out in many lines, he ordered weekly from the British manufacturers, and has received three consignments this week, consisting of the following goods: A beautiful lot of new neck frillings in lisse and tarlatan. A lot of very handsome kitted Bretonne lace in both black and white. A new style of Louise frillings. Victoria Lawns. A lot of very cheap lace curtains of very neat patterns. New carpets cheap and good. A large lot of black and colored satin and faille ribbons, very cheap. Black satin. Black Broche silk. A charming lot of black and colored silk fringes, in the newest styles & shades. Another lot of those fine, heavy, 48 inch black cashmeres at only 50c. They sell very fast. The black cashmeres from 20c. to $1.25 have an extraordinary sale. The black lustres from 9½ to 50c. sell at an amazing rate. Ladies should see the silk finished 20 and 25 cent lustres, they are magnificent goods. Another lot of black crape cloths received this week. A charming lot of those beautiful Pompadour ribbons at very much lower price than the last. They are just the thing for trimming ladies' dresses, bonnets, hats, etc. Dress goods in dark and bright clan tartans only 20c. Black and colored fur trimmings just to hand. Mantle cloths in light colors. They are handsome goods.

A LARGE LOT OF LAST SEASON'S MANTLE CLOTHS MARKED AT HALF PRICE.

A charming lot of gent's silk pocket handkerchiefs and ladies' silk squares arrived this week. A full assortment of ladies' gents' and youths' lined leather mits and gloves with spring fastenings, and fur tops. Those gloves and mits are just the thing for the cold weather, and having been purchased direct from the makers for cash, will be sold very cheap. Another consignment of window Hollands just arrived. They are good and servicable from 15c. up. Another shipment of those heavy, fine, wooly white blankets just to hand. WATKINS' got his blankets far below regular prices on account of the maker being pressed for money, and his selling them off now at much lower prices than blankets were ever sold for in Hamilton before. Ladies', misses', men's and boys' underclothing of all kinds cheaper than the cheapest. See them before buying. Just imported a lot of very superior Glove Powder, a box of which will be given to each lady who purchases a pair of Kid Gloves, if required. A further shipment of those fine soft grey flannels received this week. They are much cheaper than last season. Be sure to see the 15c. white flannels, the 17c. scarlet flannels, and the 25c. grey flannels. A lot of ladies' and misses' heavy cloth mantles ranging from $1.75 up to $9.00, in old styles, all marked down to from 50c, to $1.00. See them. They are warm and comfortable. An immense sale of carpets going on daily.
