

ANNIE AND WILLIE PRATER. A CHRISTMAS STORY.

It is the eve before Christmas. "Good-night!" says Annie to Willie as he goes to bed. She looks at the clock and sees that it is twelve o'clock. She looks at the door and sees that it is closed. She looks at the window and sees that it is dark. She looks at the fire and sees that it is burning. She looks at the bed and sees that it is empty. She looks at the door and sees that it is closed. She looks at the window and sees that it is dark. She looks at the fire and sees that it is burning. She looks at the bed and sees that it is empty.
