NEWS ADVERTISEMENTS. Furniture—John Worsfold & Co. School Books, etc.—J. E. McGarvin.

TOWN AND COUNTY. Mr. J. O. Hill has constantly on hand a well selected stock of Stoves of every description.

Snow storm on Tuesday. Very good sleighing now. Large crowds attend the rink nightly.

In Acton prepared for the organization of a Mechanics Institute. Sleighs are running but a little more snow is required to make sleighing good.

George Town is working hard to have a Mechanics Institute organized in that town. There is some talk of a joint stock company being formed for the purpose of opening a cemetery in the village.

Those who take the lead in pushing their business through the newspapers, generally take the lead in everything else. Prof. Harrington's singing class is progressing very favorably.

Messrs. John Worsfold & Co. are holding a grand clearing sale of furniture and other household goods at their warehouse. The post office clerks are laying in a stock of energy and patience in anticipation of St. Valentine's Day.

The town, and several public men of Milton, are having a miniature war in reference to the opening of a new street to the Credit Valley railway grounds. Read the advertisements in the Free Press and then go to the advertiser. Those who do not advertise here, missing out on a large business.

The girl who gets married on the 29th of February and thinks she's smart, won't feel as proud of the job when she comes to want to celebrate in crystal and silver wedding. When you see a man on a moonlight night trying to convince his shadow that it is improper to follow a gentleman, you may be sure that it is high time for him to join a temperance society.

The man who has paid his taxes wears a self-satisfied look. The man who hasn't doesn't. Barrie Advertiser. At that rate all our ratepayers should wear satisfied looks, at all the taxes of the village were paid in to the Village Treasury by the 15th of December last.

The prospects of an ice crop are considerably brightened by the weather which February brings. Barely does this month fail to give a large proportion of cold days. A couple of weeks like the past two or three days will remove all fear of an insufficient quantity of ice for summer use.

Valentines.—Valentines now appear in the fancy store windows. Journalistic.—Mr. King, of Worsley & King, publishers of the Barrie Advertiser, has withdrawn from that firm.

The Pulpit.—Rev. R. Hobbs, pastor of the Methodist church, will (D.V.) deliver a sermon next Sabbath evening, on the evils of the tobacco habit.

Boulevard Show.—The annual exhibition of the Ontario Equivall Association was opened in Guelph, on Tuesday, with about 1,200 entries, and continues until Friday.

Disciple Chapel.—Elder A. Anderson of Hamilton, will (D.V.) preach in the Disciple Meeting House, Acton, on Sunday the 8th Feb., at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m.

More Accommodation.—At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees Mr. R. Little, B.A., called the attention of the members of the board to the fact that further accommodation would be required at the public school than is at present afforded.

A Local Paper.—No man can in the present day lay any claim to intelligence who does not keep up with the times and inform himself upon the question of the local and general. Such information upon local events can only be had by taking the local paper, and the best should always be selected.

Burglary.—On Tuesday night, 27th ult., burglars entered the store of Messrs. McLeod, Anderson, & Co., Georgetown, and took possession of the cash in the till, amounting to $21.55, and silks and silk hosiery, worth $300. As soon as the burglars became known, immediate steps were taken to find the thieves.

Run.—On Sunday morning Mr. J. A. Brown, jr., and wife, were arrested from sleighing by the cracking of fire near their sled. It seems that there is a fireplace in the bedroom which had been backed up, and the chimney was entered into the chimney of the fireplace.

Ancient Order of United Workmen.—A lodge of this order was instituted last Friday evening in Milton, with thirteen charter members. The following officers were installed for the present year: J. P. Harrison, Past Master Workman.
