TOWN AND COUNTY.

Men, mad, mad.

Red flannel collars are prevalent.

Remember the monthly fair next Thursday.

CARPENTERS begin to figure upon the spring contracts.

A go you please match at the rink would be interesting.

Going to the heavy rain of yesterday the roads are again broken up.

The managers of the skating rink will dispose of their season tickets pretty cheap now.

The Board of Trustees of Acton School Division, meet in the school house on Monday evening next.

FOUND.—A black fur coat was left at this office yesterday, and we were requested to find an owner for it.

AT a carnival in the Guelph skat- ing rink last Thursday evening, two hundred and fifty masks were on the ice.

SUBSCRIBERS who do not receive the Free Press regularly will confer favor by reporting the same at this office.

THE next annual convention of Halton County Sabbath School Association will be held in Acton, about the middle of Feb., 1881.

NEW RESIDENCE.—We understand that Mr. Alex. Lashay intends erecting a fine brick residence on his farm, adjoining the village, this year.

WE understand that several of the ladies of the village intend getting up a choral concert, for the benefit of the Leavenworth, to be given on the 24th of May.

Now that the wood season is nearly over, a subscriber who has passed by on the other side, really wants to know if we can't take our tax in store.

SKATING.

The rather neat upon your feet.

A pair of skates to find.

The rather dress upon your ear.

When skates slip out behind.

We understand that several cattle buyers will be present at the monthly fair on Thursday next. The farmers should bring out their stock, and if they do so, no doubt the fair will be a success. Prices are likely to be good.

THE meeting called on Friday evening last, for the purpose of considering the advisability of forming a joint stock cemetery company, was not very well attended, but was postponed until Monday evening, March 1st.

We think the preachers of the Guelph Daily Herald must indulge too freely in something stronger than water, as on Friday evening, the second apology for a pied form "just as we are going to press," within six months.

THE Kingbridge Reporter says—

Samuel J. Kennedy, painter, and for about two months a resident of Kincardine, died rather suddenly on Sunday evening last, from hemorrhage of the brain. He had been ailing for some time. Mr. Kennedy formerly lived in Acton.

NEVER jump from a moving train—go, not even from the rear car. The average iron horse is more treacherous than a Georgia mule, and has been known to run back three miles to kick a man for trying to step off before the approved time. Never ride with such a beast—not even hardly ever.

SOMEHOW the ladies don't seem to grasp the leap year as they should. They ought to fly around and spend their time and money on the boys, who have to do that sort of thing three years on the stretch. Leap year was designed expressly to give the boys a financial rest as it were, and they need it too.

ROBERT AT ERIN.—The other night the pockets of John Clark, hotel keeper, Erin, and a commercial traveller stopping at the hotel, were rifled while they were asleep. Clark was robbed of $24 and the traveller of $20. Two men also stopping at the house were suspected of the theft, and were searched, but the money was not obtained.

CLERICAL CHANGE.—The Lord Bishop of Niagara has appointed the Rev. C. R. Lee of Acton, to the incumbency of the parish of Port Colborne. Mr. Lee has accepted the appointment and will remove to his new charge on or about the first of March. We regret the removal of Mr. Lee from our midst, but at the same time we wish him every success in his new enterprise.

DURING the past week three severe accidents occurred in the Guelph skating rink. One lad collided with another and falling back on the ice was knocked insensible, and, owing to the accident, is in bed yet. Another fell on the ice and a passing skater skated over his hand, cutting between the third and fourth finger an ugly gash. Another by a fall sprained his ankle.

Worm Powders for children;

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday afternoon at John Childs, a blacksmith on the Grand Trunk Railway, was coupling cars a short distance below Acton station. He accidentally slipped and had his leg badly twisted, and received other serious injuries. He was taken to Toronto on the 4:30 express, and placed in the General Hospital, his left leg had to be amputated.

CONCERT.—A grand concert will be given in the Town Hall, Brookville, Nassauways, on Monday evening, 8th March, in aid of the singing class of that place. An excellent programme has been prepared. The choir is under the supervision of Mr. A. Black, of Guelph, and several talented vocalists will assist the local class. Doors open at 7 p.m. Concert to commence at 8:30.

LEG FRACTURED.—On Tuesday, 17th inst., while Mr. Wilber Schackhamer was sawing wood in the house, he had his left leg broken between the knee joint and ankle. The log he was sawing was lying on some limbs, and when cut through it swung round, striking Mr. Schackhamer on the leg, thus causing the fracture. Dr. Morris attended the accident and the patient is doing as well as could be expected.

CORONER'S INQUIRY.—Ellen Pierce, the crazy woman who was brought from Georgetown recently, to Milton jail, died yesterday night. The coroner, however, held an inquest on the body on Wednesday morning. The jury brought in the following verdict: That the deceased Ellen Pierce came to her death by typhoid fever, brought on by starvation and previous exposure, brought on by her commitment to jail.

CROWSON'S CORNERS.—The missionary services held at this appointment on Sunday and Tuesday, were well attended, and proved successful financially. Rev. D. M. McKenzie preached an excellent sermon on Sunday afternoon, and Revs. Messrs. McKenzie, McLean, and Hobbs addressed the meeting on Tuesday evening. The amount raised was within a few dollars of the amount raised last year, and the collection is yet to do their work.

A YOUNG man at the skating rink, Thursday evening, had plastered a large Cofman's moustache, with shoemaker's wax, over his own dainty little eyebrows, which, ornaments his upper lip. When he attempted to remove the foreign article the home-grown arrangement came away with the wax. The young man has given out that he has left town for a couple of months, feeling sure that his friends will not be able to recognize him in the disguised boy who is wearing his clothes around. Guelph Herald.

A SHORT CARRIER.—A barber named W. J. Wilson, from Baltimore, U. S., came to town last week to purchase the business of Mr. John Warden. A bargain was made, and he took possession and worked one day, and having made three or four dollars, concluded to visit some friends of his in Kentucky or Tennessee, and left during the night, forgetting to settle his board and paying bills, as well as several others.

MISSIONARY SERVICES.—The annual missionary meetings of the Methodist Church of this village, were held in the church on Sunday and Monday last, and were very successful. On Sunday Rev. T. W. Campbell, B.D., assistant editor of the Christian Guardian, Toronto, preached both morning and evening. His sermons were very impressive and much enjoyed by the congregation. On Monday evening the choir was conducted by Mr. Wm. Brown, and the meeting was addressed by Rev. E. H. Dewart, D.D., editor of the Christian Guardian. Rev. H. McLean, Georgetown, and Rev. R. Hobbs, pastor of the church. The addresses were excellent and the meeting was one of the best ever held in the village. The subscriptions and collections amounted to $125.55, which, with the amount that will be received by the collectors, will make the sum a very fair percentage above the amount raised last year.
