INSOLVEAT AMENDMENTS.

Parliament will do well to carry through whatever it means to do with regard to insolvency, as quickly as possible, if it does not want this year's record of failures to surpass all others. Failures of persons wishing to take advantage of the present law are occurring just now at the rate of three or four a day. For instance, a dealer called yesterday and informed us that his partner was trying to put his firm into insolvency, and he didn't want to go in, for by spring, he said, every liability against the firm could be paid. The over zealous partner, however, had actually obtained a note from him under the plea that he needed it for personal accommodation, and this note was now being used to accomplish the desired object. The assignees are coming to the front smiling, for though in all probability their occupation will be gone for a time at least, they are going to have a splendid crop of business in the meantime.—Montreal Witness.

SUMMER VACATIONS.

It has been proposed that a change should be made in the matter of school vacations in summer. Some are in favor of shorter holidays, and others prefer that no change should be made. To suit the views of all, the Honorable the Minister of Education has undertaken to do a small job of tinkering with the school laws, and the following amendments have been proposed by him: The clause of the School Act having reference to school terms and vacations provides that the public school year shall consist of two terms, the first of which shall begin on the third day of January and end on the seventh of July, and the second shall begin on the eighteenth day of August and end on the twenty-third day of December. The amendments introduced provide that in case of public schools in rural school sections, or of township boards, the trustees thereof may open the school therein on the third day of August in any year so that the term may begin in such school or schools on that day instead of on the eighteenth day of August, and end on the twenty-third day of December following; but such additional period during which the school may be open shall not be considered in any appropriation of the Legislative grants.

The Donnelly Murder.

The preliminary trial of the alleged murderers of the Donnellys was on Monday resumed at the Court House before Squires Peters and Fisher. The excitement over the case still runs high, although the attendance of spectators has considerably fallen off. The prisoners were brought up from the cells at ten o'clock, and took their places in the jury box. Their confinement and the anxiety arising from their position appear to be telling on them, and they now seem to realize the magnitude of the crime with which they stand charged.

Wm. Donnelly was recalled, and was cross questioned for a short time.

Robt. Ross who had called once or twice at Kennedy's, referred to the threats Kennedy made about shooting Wm. Donnelly when he got the chance.

Henry Phair, the detective, gave evidence about the talk he had with Ryder, when he arrested him, which was mainly about the Vigilance Committee.

Chief of Police Williams was next examined, and gave an account of the different arrests made. About his conversation with the boy Connor, he said:—I saw him at his father's house; I asked him which of the Ryders he saw, as we had arrested two or three Ryders and I didn't know which one it was; he told me it was Tom Ryder, and described him as having a white moustache and whiskers about the chin, and said he wore a cap with a peak; I found out that we had not Tom, and so a warrant was issued for his arrest; the next time I saw him was on the following Monday; Bill Donnelly was with me; that was the first time I heard the whole circumstances, which I made a note of. Witness here repeated the story of the little boy as he told it himself—how that the crowd broke into the house and handcuffed Tom and arrested the old man; how that they beat Tom with clubs outside and then carried his body into the front room; how that he heard the old woman screaming in the kitchen; how that the girl Bridget ran upstairs, where she was beaten to death; how that he recognized Jim Carroll, Tom Ryder and John Purtell among the crowd, and how that he made his escape from the burning building to Whalen's. The witness here gave an account of his visit to Thompson's house. This closed the direct examination. The court adjourned untill to-day.

Fatal Accident near Limehouse.

Mr. Andrew Scott, Sr., received Fatal Injuries.

On Thursday last Mr. Andrew Scott, Sr., of the 4th line, Esquesing, fell through a G. T. R. culvert and received injuries which resulted in his death in a few minutes after the accident. Mr. Scott accompanied by Mr. John Fortune, were on the way to Limehouse, walking along the railroad, and when coming to an open culvert near the 5th line, Mr. Scott proceeded to cross on a plank which was laid outside the rail, while Mr. Fortune walked across on the ties. When about half way across the plank broke and Mr. Scott fell through, and struck on some projecting timbers before reaching the bottom. His companion immediately went to his assistance, and without much difficulty they ascended the bank and thinking he was not badly injured, sat down to rest. In a short time he said to Mr. Fortune that he felt that 'he was done for,' and in a few minutes afterwards fell over dead. It is supposed that he was injured internally.

Deceased was nearly 77 years of age, and has lived on the farm at the 4th line ever since he came to this country from Scotland 45 years ago. He was a kind neighbor and respected by all who knew him. The funeral took place on Saturday and was attended by a very large number of the friends and neighbors in the vicinity.

A Nuisance.

To the Editor of the Free Press.

DEAR SIR:—For the past month or more one of our citizens who keeps a stable full of horses, daily gives them to young boys to ride around the streets of the village. Now, I think our authorities should take steps to put a stop to this nuisance, for several reasons. 1st. The boys are induced to play truant from school when their parents expect they are daily in attendance. 2nd. They here come in contact with unprincipled horse traders, who use language unfit for their young ears, and which, I am pained to say, they take pleasure in copying; and 3rd. The reckless manner in which the horses are ridden around our streets makes it dangerous for pedestrians and especially children as they are often in danger of being run over. Now, Mr. Editor, I hope our village fathers will take action in the matter and prohibit the daily nuisance our citizens are subjected to.

I am, yours respectfully,
A RATEPAYER.

Mr. Peter McTavish and family left Nassagaweya on the 1st March for Manitoba, where Mr. McTavish has received a government appointment.

PRESENTATION.—Last week a number of the members of Prospect Division, Sons of Temperance, went to the residence of Mr. Jos. Allison where they spent a very pleasant evening. During the evening a very pleasing incident took place, by which the Misses Allison were made the recipients of a beautiful silver card receiver and also a silver butter-cooler, accompanied by an address read by Mr. Jno. McPhedran, on behalf of the Division. The presentation was a mark of their appreciation of the services rendered by Misses. Allison at the various concerts and other entertainments given by the Prospect Division during the past few months. The party broke up at a seasonable hour, all coming away loud in their praises of the hospitality of the host and hostess.

FATAL RUNAWAY.—On the 21st inst, as Mr. John Meyers, of Campbellville, was driving along the road near Brookville, his horses became frightened at a dog which ran out from the fence at them, and becoming unmanageable ran away throwing Mr. Meyers from his waggon. Immediately upon the unfortunate man being thrown off, the horses wheeled around and ran back to the village. This of course attracted attention, and search was at once made for Mr. Myers. He was found at the spot where the accident occurred, perfectly insensible, but he soon rallied, and it was hoped that his injuries were not serious. He was impressed himself, however, with the belief that his injuries were fatal; and on Tuesday afternoon, about three o'clock, his belief was verified by his death. His injuries were altogether internal, only a few bruises being apparent. He was about fifty five years of age, and was respected among his friends and acquaintances.

NED.

Exciting Scene.

A large staff of assistants are continuously employed in putting up Wilson's Compound Syrup of Wild cherry, the most popular of all remedies for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Loss of Voice, and all affections of the Throat, Lungs, and Bronchial Tubes.

The rapidity required by those constantly engaged in handling bottles is most astonishing, and to an unaccustomed onlooker the great wonder is that almost every bottle is not broken.

Wilson's Wild Cherry is always made under the direct supervision of Mr Wilson, a Chemist and Druggist of over sixteen years experience.

This great home medicine is sold by all leading druggists, and should be found in every house.

Canadian News

A fatal accident took place on Saturday last near Burgoine. A Mr. Galbraith was chopping in the woods, when a tree fell upon him, inflicting such injuries that he died in the evening.

On Thursday night a lamp exploded in the house of Archibald McTaggert, Kleinburg, setting fire to Mrs. McTaggert's clothes, and burning her seriously. Drs. Stevenson and Grant were called in, but she died on Friday.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Adams, residing at the village of Amiens, township of Lobo, rose from her bed, and procuring a razor, cut her throat. The other members of the house were attracted by her cries and found her lying in a pool of blood. Assistance was at once given, but the injury may prove fatal. The woman was of deranged mind.

Last Monday evening a man named Edwards, an apple tree agent from Port Perry, left Bethany about seven o'clock with a friend named Lewis Kelly, to drive home, while passing a dangerous place on the road, twenty miles from here, the night being very dark, the buggy, by some means, upset, and the occupants were thrown into the ditch. Edwards fell undermost, striking his head against a stone and was instantly killed. Kelly escaped with a few trifling bruises.

In Peterboro, on the 28th ult, a fatal accident occurred in T. & W. McKee's furniture factory. A lad aged 17, named Anthony Fowler, got on a ladder to oil the gearing on the shaft where he was at work. In so doing he displaced the belt of the adjoining lathe, and in endeavoring to adjust it again caught his arm in the belt, and was hurled around the shaft with terrible velocity. The water power was at once shut off, but the poor lad was past aid, the body having dropped on a pile of blocks, both feet and one hand having been torn off, the neck, shoulders, and in fact almost every bone in the body broken.

Each of the members of the Metropolitan Church Choir who has joined himself or herself to the frivolities of "Pinafore" received last week a copy of the following letter:—

MADAM (or SIR).—The Trustees of the Metropolitan Church having learned from a play-bill that you are a member of an organization known as the "Toronto Church Choir Opera Company," and also that you have announced yourself in said bill as a member of the Metropolitan Church Choir, I am instructed by the Board to inform you that you are hereby dismissed from membership in said choir. And, further, that should you hereafter use the name of this church for similar purposes the Board will take such proceedings to restrain you as they may be advised.

I am, Madam (or Sir),
Yours, etc., etc.,

SAMUEL OSBORNE, Sophiasburg, says: I was affected with Dyspepsia for nearly four years, my lungs becoming affected towards the last. I was induced to try the Shoshonees Remedy. After using three or four bottles I felt much better and gained strength rapidly, my health improved steadily and rapidly, and when I had taken three or four bottles more, I was quite restored to health and strength, and have experienced better health than for forty years before. I had been under the treatment of a number of physicians before, but never received any material aid until I used your remedy.

A. MCKAY, Truro, N. S., says: He was very bad with Liver Complaint, but used the Shoshonees Remedy, and in a month was as well as he had ever been in his life. I am now in business and wish you to send me three dozen by steamer.

A. WOOD, Consecon, says: That he has tried the Remedy for Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia with great success. I have also used the Shoshonees Pills and find that they are as good as any I ever tried.

HENRY KING, Geneva, N. Y., says: My wife was intensely afflicted with dyspepsia for a long time. We consulted physicians of three different schools, and received no benefit. She has taken three bottles of the great Shoshonees Remedy, and is now healthy and well.

REV. JOHN SCOTT, says: Mr. McKenzie Botting suffered from an attack of Rheumatism, and was unable to move without help; but after taking a few bottles of the Shoshonees, was able to walk as well as ever. Price of the Remedy in pint bottles, $1; Pills, 25 cents a box. Sold by all medicine dealers.
