CHILDREN AS CRITICS

Mothers, you have little critics around you. They pass just judgment on your actions, and their respect for you is increased or lessened by this leading of your children...

A Good Joke

An Annesby clergyman entered a Uxice barber shop and asked to have his whiskers trimmed...

THE POINTS OF LAW

'You see, boss, dar's a nigger litin' up my eye when he took me out of my old darkey to the captain at the central station yesterday.'

FOR TWO CENTS

Speaking of goodness calls to mind an incident that happened in one of our shops this week, showing again the poor side of fruit-luminy.

A Good Samaritan

Oberlin, the well known philanthropist of Steintal, while yet a candidate for the ministry, was travelling on one occasion from Strasbourg.

A Puzzled Parson

An old gentleman from the east, of a clerical aspect, took the stage from Denver south in ante-railroad days.

WANTED A LITTLE EXERCISE

An ordinary looking traveller went into the dining hall of the Union depot the other day carrying a nice satchel.
