

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

The Baptist mission in Japan has obtained their first proselyter.

The Prince of Wales left the corner-stone of the Cathedral of Truro in April.

Dr. B. M. Marshall, a Baptist missionary in Orissa, India, writes that 400 Hindus in that place have renounced caste and become Christians.

The light in Glasgow over the running of tramcars on Sundays has been substantially over, and the cars will run.

The Rev. Dr. E. R. Moore, of the University of Toronto, has been elected Doctor of Philosophy by the University of Breslau.

The endowment for the proposed new Anglican diocese of Liverpool is now assured.

At a meeting recently held it was announced that nearly $400,000 had been raised, and with the amount promised conditionally by the Committee on Hope-Bishopric Funds, and now available, an application could be made.

MOODY'S work at St. Louis has taken a new turn, and his meetings are now being held for the purpose of raising money for the building of a new cathedral in St. Louis.

A curious phase of the question of marriage with a deceased wife is being discussed in England.

The Episcopal Church of Scotland is now a power in that land, and numbers among its adherents the Duke of Edinburgh.

The Roman Catholics of New York, under the leadership of Cardinal McCloskey, are planning to build a new cathedral.

A remarkable dog, named 'Leo', has been discovered in the possession of a man in New York.

That animal has minds and can reason has lately been maintained at great length in an interesting book.
