in eat

cs, the and from very hand

Trans :- The Fare Pages will be sent subscribers, fostage paid, for $1.00 per an-num in advance; $1.50 if not so paid. No paper discontinued till all arrears are paid. except at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISING. RATES; - Casual advertise ments, 8 cents per line for the first insertion, and 2 cents per line for each subse-quent insertion cash. Professional Cards. 10 lines or less, $4.00 per annum. I square, 12 lines, $5.00 per annum, payable in 6 months from date of insertion. Any Special Notice, the object of which is to promote the pecuniary benefit of any individual or company, to be considered an advertisement. The number of lines rectioned by the space occupied, measured by a scale of solid Nonparcil.

"CONTRACT BATES One column one rear Quarter column one rear anticount are amounted Halfedama six months Quarter column dix montos ... ie column three months

Half column three months Advertisements without special directions will be inserted till forbid an i charged accordpaid in advance. Changes for contract advertisements must be in the office of fa m. on Mordeys, other-Editor & Proprietor.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

H. LOWRY, M. B., M. C. P. S. Graduate of Trinity College, Member of College of Physicians and Surgeons. Office and residence, at the head of Fred-

McGARVIN' M. D., M. C. P. S. N & Graduate of Victoria College. Residence, corner of Mill and Frederick streets. Consultation daily from 6 to 10 s. m., and $ to 6 p. m.

LISTER M. CLARK, BARRISTER, Quebec Street Guelph. BRASCH OFFICE :- In Matthews Building

HILL Street, Acten. AT OTHER OFEN EVERT FEDAT. TE TM. HEMSTREET.

Licensed Auctioneer. For the Counties of Wellington and Halton, Orders left at the Frez Press Office, Acton. or at my residence in Rockwood, will be promptly attended to.

DATENTS FOR INVENTIONS EXPE personers and properly secured in Canada, the United States, and Europe. Pa | Surplus to Policy Holders, tent guaranteed or no charge. Send for printed instructions. Agency in operation ten years.

Ottave Canada FEDERAL Mechanical engineering, Solicitors of Patente, and drangistemen.

D. MATHESON, ATTORNEY-ATe Lik, Solicitor in Chancery, &c. Office, text door to Wallace's Hotel, Milton.

OMINION HOTEL, ACTON, ROBT. Agnew, proprietor. The new Hotel is fitt d up in first-class style with new furniture. Commercial Travellers will find good acc mm dation and commodious Sample Booms. Special aftention paid to the wante of the travelling public. Bar supplied with the best of Liquors and Cigara. Sood Stab!ing and attentive Heatlers.

CHARLES CAMERON,

Main St., Acton. Agent for the Bell Organ, manufactured by Mastre W. Bell & Co., Grelph. Orders left at his residence will receive prompt attention. For particulars see fdv. on other side. Give him a trial Dec. 10, 179,-24-3m.

DOYAL EXCHANGE HOTEL, ACTOX. IV-Jas. Campbell. Proprietor. Mr. Campbell late of the Rossin House, near G. T. R. many old friends and patrons that he has recently purchased and relitted the Royal Exchange in the nestest and most comfortshie style, and is prepared to accommodate all who may favor him, in the most comfortable manner. Choice Wines, Liquors, Cigare and cool summer drinks always in stock. Stable in charge of an attentive hostler. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited, and no effort will spared to give the very best attention.

CASH FOR SKINS.

I am prepared to pay the highest cash price for all classes of Lamb and Sheer Skins, delivered at my tannery. Lace Leather constantly on hand.

DUMPS! PUMPS! PUMPS.

W. E. Adams, manufacturer of superior Aug. 11, 1875. Well and Cistern Pumps, which will be put in on short notice. Repairing promptly done. Furniture made and repaired Charges moderate. Also saws filed and set. Give him a call. Shop on Frederick street, opposite Dr. Lowry's residence.

J. FISHER, V. S., GEORGETOWN, Lo Ont., will visit Acton every Wednesisy, and will attend to all calls pertaining to his profession. Orders left at McGarvin's Drug Store will receive prompt attention. R Terms moderate.

T. J. FISHER YTRAYED or Stolen advertisements of O this nature inserted very chesp in the acton Free Press, the best local paper of

MEKCHANTS and farmers alike should advertise and support the Acton Fare

Parss, the best local paper of Halton Co. -MARDS, Billheads and Circulars of every D P C A WEEK in your own town, and no capital risked. You can give the business a trial without ex- BOOT pense. The best opportunity ever offered for those willing to work. You should try nothing else until you see for yourself what you can do at the business we offer. No room to explain here You can devote all your time or only your spare time to the business, and make great pay for every hour that you work. Women make as much as men. Send for special private terms and particulars, which we mail free. In Acton, than to go away from bome $5 outfit free. Don't complain of hard times HALLET & Co., Portland Maine. . . B. A.

TERMS ... $1.00 in Advance.

.The Newspaper .- "A. May of Busy Life, its Fluctuations and its Vust Concerns."

$1.50 If not so pald.

Volume. V. No. 40. ACTON, ONT, THURSDAY, APRIL 1, 1880.

Elegance of Home.

man or maid; there never was a chair too good for a coulder or a cooper, or a human race. Elegance fits man.

How to Cook a Husband.

The first thing to be done is to catch im. Having done so, the mode of cook ing bius, go as to make a good dish, is be accompanied with a sufficient portion of secrecy, mixed with prudence and

A Short Sermon.

Here is a short sermon that Dr.

Whewell used to repeat with great inction :- Text-" Man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upwards."

JoB, chapter v., verse 7." I shall dias fullows:

EXCELSIOR" POETRY.

BAKERY

E. NICKLIN

take this opportunity of thanking their friends and patrons for their very liberal support in the past, and trust that they will continue it. We have always on hand a full supply of

PASTRY,

CONFECTIONERY Fruits, Canned Fish, Oatmeal, Cornmeal, Graham and Buckwheat Flour, &c., &c., ll of which we are prepared to sell at BOTTOM PRICES FOR CASH. a connection with the Bakery we have just Oyster Parlor, and will serve orefers in every sixle. We have also constantly on hand a stock of oysters in both can and bulk, chesp. M. B .- Oyster Suppers supplied at shortest notice. and Weiding Cakes mais to order. B. & E Nicklin.

THE TRAVELLERS LIFE and ACCIDENT Ins. Co., of Hartford, Conn.,

Write everything desirable in the way of Bates Low. Security Unquestioned Ample deposit mede with the teminion Paid up Carb Capital Total Liebilities.

1,286,943,37 JAMES MATTHEWS, Agent, Acton, Unt. BANK

OF CANADA. GUELPH BRANCH.

A GENERALIBANEING RUSINESS DONE. DRAFTS and BILLS OF EXCHANGE bought and sold.

DEPOSITORS

re allowed interest at the rate of five 5) per cent, per annum in the Savings Bank Deportment, and six (6) per cent. in the Bank not less than six (6) months, and three (3) months notice be given of i.s withdramal.

THUMAS Y. GREET. CANADA

SATINGS BANK. CORNER OF JAMES AND VINE STE., HAMILTON Six Per Cent Interest paid on Do-posits of $1 and upwards. SAFEST AND BEST SECURITY.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. Wx. Kens Esq. of John Wa'dle & Co.) Bar-lington, Vice-President. HUGH MURRAY, Esq., Hamilton. Thomas Blanchard, Faq., Nelson. OBT. DOKTAK Kan Hamilton R. K. CHI HOLK Esq . Uzkville. Wx. FREEVAS. M. D., Georgetown.

H.K.GRIFFIN, M.D. Money to loan on Real Estate in sums to borrowers, and on easy terms. D'iffire open every week-day from 9 D. DEXTER, Manager.

HARNESS,

HARNESS. phics. W. E. ADAMS. Any person in want of a good sett of Harness, oither SINGLE OR DOUBLE:

CREECH'S SADDLER ACTON

Where they can get better value for their money than any place in the County. A GOOD ASSORTMENT OF TRUNKS AND VALISES

On hand, all of which will be sold cheap for Repairing prombily attended to. RUBT. CREECH yeton, Feb. M. 77.

CUSTOMERS description executed neatly at the Acton 5000 FREE PRESS office, the best local paper of WANTED THIS WEEK.

> -AT THE CENTRAL-& SHOE STORE.

TOU CAN BUY BETTER BOOTS AND SHOES AND GET BETTER BARGAINS

Mine comes in the purple twilight, Kisses me, . And prays that He who turns life's sand Will hold his loved ones in his hands. Mrs. Lofty has her jewels. So have I;

She wears hers upon her bosom, Inside I: She will leave here at death's portal, By and by; . I shall bear my treasure with me When I die.

Mrs. Lotty and I.

Mrs. Lolty keeps a carriage,

She has dappled grays to draw it;

She's no prouder with her coachman

With my blue-eyed, laughing baby, Trundling by.

I hide the face lest she should see

Her fine husband has white fingers,

Here comes home beneath the starlight

Ne'er careeses she;

Mine has not;

He could give his bride a palace

Mine a cot;

None have I;

Than am I.

The cherub boy and envy me.

For I have love and she has gold She counts her wealth, mine can't be told She has those who love her station. None have I: But I've one true heart beside me-Glad am I. I'd not change it for a kingdom,

No. not I; God will weigh us in His balance. By and by, And then the difference Ho'll define Twist Mrs. Lofty's wealth and mine.

SELECT READING.

AUNT RUTH'S VALENTINE

'Dinah, said Aunt Ruth, 'thee may light the gas in the hall, and see who is at the door : I hear the bell again. Deed, Missus, it's only another of flover ment for the security of Canadian , them mizzable boys with their valen tines, I 'spect ! My legs is about broken now, and I've got a dreadful mixery in 3.511,734 57 my back a running to the door, with ters and chalk marks on the steps!"

stepped into the lighted hall, dragging place. by the band a shivering little girl al most hidden in the folds of a ragged BAKKING COMPANY lives bere !" ing stupidly after him.

speedily recovering speech and action, ly she taised herself on her elbow. closed the door with a bang. 'Missus, missus! for de Lo'd's sake gles that lived somew'ere an' took care ing to the picture in the twenty-afth chaplook a-bere f summons, and stepped into the hall, gently; 'I am only Aunt Ruth. the little bundle of tatters and rage to sleep. moved to her side and peered up into prime folds of Quaker cap. Seeming box.

Dick writ it! Aunt Ruth took the document, and, with a nuzzled look at the bearer, pro-task for the grimy fingers that had exclaimed, joyfully : traced them; but she at last picked out the message embodied in letters of! of the minor considerations of orthog- | krins were around his neck, and her raphy and punctuation : betes er orfal and me and a Box with clamations of satisfaction at being a straw into it to sleap at nites. I've wallentine." brang her to be your wallintine. She's

While the lady was laboring over the odd missive the little waif stood looking soberly up into her face, and and compassion, the child said :

'He told me he writ into it that was nobody's girl only his'n, and that I'd be your wallentine! I don't look! like 'em, but I'll be it. I'd like to. It's found her 'wallentine' bringer sitting edge, each to cut his special choice of jolly warm here, only my feet's 'cold,' by the fire with little Bab at his side, stick-that festive endgel, with curved and she looked down at the heavy her two little hand tightly held in one and club shaped end, known to the boy his progress through the world is boots she had on, ragged and run over of his own, and supreme satisfaction at as a 'shinny stick,' but to the calm trouble and care. Thirdly, his egress me wear 'em when I cried.'

Thee may take the child to the unnoticed by the children, but she was promiscuous in its playful moments.

kitchen, Dinah, and give her something not given to demonstrations and made How clearly and distinctly I recall And I can tell you so more if I preached a to ent. I will come presently, and per- no comment.

hape I can find out where the belon at Ditale led her down the ball, the wet boots shuffling heavily over the curpet, 'I main't got much to tell, ma'am. wooden ball placed reads for the fray. and the bright blue eyes, shining out I'm only Dick, the bootblack, and this The starter lifts his stick. I'hear a

Dick. I likes good black foiks ! found her 'wellentine' sexted in an' one day a team knocked him down steel on steel. I hear the shuffling Dinab's own rocking chair before the and kill him all of a sudden. This here kicks, the battling strokes of clubs, the tire. While Dinah herself, down on Beb she cried so, an' was so louesome hasky mutterings of passion half sup the floor, had the almost frozen feet in after Joe that I allowed it was better pressed; I hear the panting brouth and her lap, warming them, and giving to try an' find her a home if I could. the impetuous whisperings between the · Sake's alive! Don't know it's so, ought to be looked after anyhow. They | you saw me, an' you smiled out of your | nother plunge | headlong over him. sin't though, half on 'em! Things is eyes so good that I 'most knowed you'd The crowd carround the prosteste pile 'Well, child,' said Aunt Ruth, 'now tell thy name and where thee belongs ? She shook her head. Dou't belong nowheres. Father always called me ' Drat you Bab!'

Aunt Ruth sighed over this delorous compound cognamen.

' Has thee no mother ! nothing there but them no count pie Bab! Father struck her once with a might be liable the minuic I sot eyes so it goes until the game is won. The beetle, and in the merning she went on him." Muttering thus she sailed from the dead. And one day the perlice took room with the sir of an offended prin father away, and old Bet told me to go change of base, but looked carnestly cess, opened the door contiously a few long, soo, and I went long for at I into Aunt Ruth's face. As she said inches, and peered out into the snow could. I hadn't nowhere to stop to, nothing he repeated, timidly, with a storm that was raging; but seeing no and I crawled into Dick's box, and he little quiver in his voice? one, proceeded to shut it with matter put things over me and fixed me a folly | 'She bain't got no mother nor no ed invectives against all 'mizzable rice place, and every day he took care | body in the world, only me, ma'am, an' white tresh," when a small boy, ten or of me. He made this, -and there the she's real cute ! twelve years of age, black as abony, child stooped and drew from one of the Dick, said Aunt Rath, quietly, scantly clothed in a cotton shire and expecious boots, which she had put on should think thee would rather find a ragged pauts a world too large for him, again upon getting down tront the home for thyself than to take so much which were drawn nearly to his shoul- rocking-chair, a doll, whittled from a trouble for a strange-little girl." ders and held in place by su-penders of stick and artistically finished with co l. 'Ma'am,' said Dick, gravely,

Annt Ruth sighed again.

Then turning, he run rapidly down! The poor little wandering chi! I was 'I think I'll keep my valentine, the steps and disappeared around the soon wrapped in a warm shawl, and Dick, Aunt Ruth said, with a smile. first corner in the snowy darkness, curled down on the lounge in Aunt 'I never heard of sending back a valen while the bewildered Durch stood ster- Ruth's pleasant room; too much excit | time, I believe. And I tilink I will ed by the govelty of her position to send one myseif, too. The may carry The little, amusty-leved, blue-eyed sleep-too comfortable to do anything it for me to Friend Bradley's office, on loads of furniture, and all the gorgeous- him, and be's got to be burried up a valentine, so unceremoniously deliver but hug her wooden treasure and stare, Harlem street, Dick. Tab note was ed, stood motionless ut der the geelight first at the pretty suroundings, then at written in a fair upright hand, in a few can gether. swaiting further developments. Durch the kind face at the fireside. Sudden- concise words : Dick said be heard there was man of folks. Be you one.' As the lady obeyed the imperative 'No, no, child,' said Aunt Ruth,

'Yes'm. But I do wish Dick was a of February, 1880, found no happie the placed face surrounded by the wallentine. It's wery cold into his child than fittle 'Drat you-Bab;'

to recognize a friendly heart shining in | Aunt Ruth and Dinah sat late into the serious eyes, she thrust into her the night hastily fashioning warm gur- | Friend Bradley's office; no more peacehand a scrap of crumbled paper, say. ments for the little one, and considering ful heart than Aunt Ruth's; and certhemselves well repaid by the delight with which they were donned in the

While happy Little 'Drat you-Bab' ceeded to decipher the queer hierogly- was taking her breakfast by the side of kitchen store a shadow darkened the It had evidently been a laborious window, and the little girl, looking up,

'Oh, there's my Dick! Dinan opened the door and bade him all sizes and shapes. The writer had come long in, giving him a jerk to evidently made it his sole aim to give facilitate his movements. He shambled the facts of the case, proudly regardless | hashfully in, and in a monient the child's face, pretty in its unwonted cleanliness. 'This little gurl Hain't got no folks | nestled against his black cheek, while nor no wares to sta only a woman that | she poured out a torrent of eager ex-

> When sue at last released him Dinah him firmig in a chair.

And then Dick rose in his place still | the old mill pond! I see the two holding both the little hunds.

of the smutty. face like stars from a per little girl I found due night last whizzing sweep. Then comes, that and hole, lifted apprehensively to the week. Me and Joe Rafferty had been liquid, twittering ditty of the hard wood to a place where they had some picters ball skimming over the ice, that quick 'I do declate for it,' muttered the an things the man catled a pandoren succession of bird like nates, first dis old woman, 'white trash and black mer, an' when we came out twee late sinct and clear, now fainter and more trash is mostly alike in their no 'count and we was cold an' we run all the way blended, now frinter still, until at last pranks, that's fact! Blest if this sin't to the box is a big box down it melts into a whispered quivering b rtn (r infinential friends. These are seen at this bouse yet! I wallentine! it. An' we found this little Bab a ing sound of the close pursuing skates. Missus Ruth's ways is so unexpected! curled up into it asleep. Jos he was With a sharp crack I see the bull reagoin' to bounce her, but when he seen turned singing ofer the polished surface Dinale's crusty manner softened a how little abe was be didn't. He just and met half way by the advance guard little as she watched the greediness with yanked his coat off an' put it over her of the leading side. Now comes the bing, and you are tolerably sure to spoil which the child devoured the big slice and some old carret, too, an' we did tug of war. Strange fun! What a bis character for life. of bread and butter; but also melted cover her up elegant, an' she slep' till spectacle! The would be striker, with outright when, as she finished her feast, morning. In the morning she told us stick up lifted, jammed in the centre of the 'little white begger' slid from her she hadn't no place to stay, an' we a boisterous throng; the bill sides echo The Came of Fifteen vs. Twenty. chair, and caught and kissed the big reckoned to take cure of her our own with ringing should, and an anxious selves after that. Joe and me got her circle, with ready sticks, forms about 'I likes you, cause you look like crackers and milk an' things when we the waying gesticulating mon. Meancould, an' we made believe she was our while the ball is beating around heneath When Aunt Ruth came down, she housekeepor. Joe swep' the crossiu's, their feet, their skates are cleahing vent to some very unorthodox expres I seen folks a sending wallentines for teeth, as they push and wreatle and sions of opinion as to the ordering of presents, an' I thought some one orter jam. A lacky hit now sends the bull like a little girl better than a picter. I a few feet from the fray. A ready seen you on the street, ma'am, the day hand improves the chance; but as he but the Le'd seems to pay a mighty you gave the lame man some money, lifts his stick a youngster's nose gets in sight of tention to some folks and forget | an' I followed along to see where you the way and spoils his stroke; he slips all about the rest. 'Pears like chillun lived, an' when you went up the steps and falls upon the last; another and be kind to a little girl what hadn't no- and punch among them for the ball. buly but me. She's real cute, ma'am. When found, the same riotous scene I seen you once, too, added be to Dinah, ensues; another falls, and all are that thou is warmed and fed, will thee who stood with dish-towel in han i, trampled under foot by the enthusiastic gravely weighing his word; "I was a crowd. Ye gods! will any one come blackin' a feller's boots on the market out alive! I hear the old familiar the day you boxed that chap's ears for sounds vibrating on the air: whack ! drigging the dog over the stones in the wheek! "Ouch!" "Get out of the gutter. Didn't he run, though, when way, then!" "Now I've got it!" rou let him go." "I 'clar for't, said Dinah; 'he's a heavy thud ! which meacs a sudden Once. She called me 'Here you- | tellin the trufe ! 'Peared like I felt he lamper on one's wildenthusiasm. And Dick made no comment on Dinah's gives place to uproarious jullity.

twine, and turned up at the ankles, as to hair, eyes, and mouth. She looked heard a preacher-man on the street one keeping a little more than they are showing a pair of bare feet; rose from a at it admiringly for a moment, re-ar- day tellin' about a good feller that corner beside the door. Surveying her ranging its drapery of old print, which wanted the little children took care of, for the mahogany we bring into it. I per anaum will be allowed ok Deposit for a moment quite as coolly as she was somewhat disturbed by its journey an' that he said into some book or had rather eat my dinner off the bead surveyed him, he at last deliberately in the boot, and restored to its resting: other (he had it, an' read out of it), of a barrel, or dress after the fashiothof When you do it to them you do it to John the Baptist in the wilderness, or me, an' I'll remember and be good to sit on a block all my life, than consume t Give her a warm bath, Dinah, and you some time for it! When we found all myself before I got to a home, and Manager. coat, which he dexteroistly jerked from then thee may make her a bed on the lish a curled up in the box, looking so take so much pains with the outside lounge in my room, I will give thee little an' an helpless, I thought it meant that the inside was as hollow as an · Here's a wallentine for the lady wot something that will serve her as a for us to take care of her, and poor Joe, empty nut. Beauty is a great thing,

FRIEND BRADLEY,-I send thee a valentine. Thee will find the lines belong-ter of Matthew, fortieth verse It is a year since Aunt Ruth, receiv ed and sent a valentine, and the 14th prouder boy than 'Valentine Dick, who occupies the post of errand boy in' tainly he would fail to spy out, with his strongest beams, a more dignified, than poor old Dinah, who pets or scolds be tender and good if treated in this air. The sumptuous apartment was the two children as inclination and ouwhole matter in these words:

'Sometimes children is a comfort. hut mostly they is an aggravation. Them two-them two valentines-is awearin the life out of my bones, the poor orphanless things! But Missus Ruth is so sot in her ways that I've got tione, if the Lo'd spares us !

The Old Mill-Pond.

Who is there who has not in some recess of the memory a deer old hanns took him by the shoulders and seated like this, some such sleeping pond radiant with reflections of the scenes of 'Now,' said she, 'You'se just a goin' early life! Toither in those winter to set there till you 'splain this whole days we came, our numbers swelled 'rangement to me and Misses. An' you from right and left with eager volunwhen she raised her eyes, full of pity jest lay out to tell the trufe, the whole teers for the game, till af last almost a trufe, an' noffin but the trufe all the hundred strong whorally on the smooth way through—that is, if ye kind, black ice. The opposing leaders choose following heads—1. Man's ingress into Niggas is mostly might unsartin! their sides, and with loud harrabs we the world: 2. His progress through When Aunt Ruth came down she penetrate the thickets at the water's filled as she stood in the door a moment instrument of torture, indiscriminately where. To conclude—those toughening, rollicking sports on whole year.

A child that is constantly southed

Encourage Self-Respect.

and thwatted in his wishes council bemuintile. In fact, a child should fifter be snatbed. Think for a moment what is the offect a hasty world niny highe on his disposition. The little one thay come to you when you are worn out by spil, tired from mental labor, engaged in reading or in conversation, or liqued with some perplexing task, and trouble you with an impocent question. If you are vexed, don't almw-it; alun't fret : ton't look cross ; don't speak heatily ; answer the question as well as you cansome queations that children ask are not casily inswered -and send the child Whole No. 249. Kway kindly. Its pleasant face will defuse light and love over the whole house and do you a better service than you at the time being may be sware of A rawo, a rebuke even the slightest check will show its eff et on the childs countenance, and you may be sore it goes deeper than you can see, and lasts long. er than you maf think . Self respect .s the foundation of character, and about 1 be sedulously cultivated. Better that as well as adjuncts, but altogether ther are less to be desired than that self rospect which briets confidence, wherey

What is that puzzle of 'Fifteen' her are all talking about I says Mrs. Melrose, as ber husband drupped into his easy chair the other evening.

Well, I'll explain the principles of " he replied. 'Suppose, now, you sak me for $15 to bay a bonnet." Yes, that would be a common bon-

I give you the money.'

Ob, yes! very much you do! I'd ike to see myself get $15 you of you for any such thing. You'd have about thousand excuses, keep me waiting a month and then give me about $7 to

'As I was saying, I give you the crossing his face.

'Yes, in your mind.' Now, the game is to make that $15 get fifteen different articles, instead oue. You could buy me three white shirts, five collars, a pair of wocks, a silk handkerchief, and a new pipe. making eleven articles. Your bounet would make twelve, and the other "Stinny on yer own side!" and now three articles ould be shoes for the children. Thousands of loving wires are playing the game." 'They are, eh! Well, let 'em play! mob disperses, and the riotous spectacle When I get my hands on $15 of your money I'll march down and play the game of twenty."

'What's that, dear !' . Why, I'll pay out all I've got, and I never saw a garment too fine for run you in debt $5 more !

Woman's Strategy. king to sit in ; never a bouse too five to shelter the human bend. These "Jack," said a pretty girl to her elements about us, the glorious sky, the small brother the other day, " I went . imperial sun, ere not too good for the rou to do something for me-thut's a good fellow. "What is it " growled back Jack, who is a brother of the period, worth, and sometimes mortgage a house "Why, you know that wig and moustiche you used in the theatricals!"

"Well, won't you just put them on and go to the concert to-night ! Augustas and I will be there, and Jack, I want you to stare at me the whole evening through your glasses." ". What! you want me to do that F' "Yes; and as we come out you must but beauty of garment, house and fur-stand in the door and try to slip me a niture are tawdiy ornaments compared note -take care that Gus sees you, too.' with domestic love. All the elegance in the world will not make a home, and " Well, I declare !" "Because, you see, Jack, Gua laves me, I know; but then he's awful well I would give more for a spoonful of ness all the upholsterers in the world little, as it were." A False Alarm.

He was about leaving her. The ormala (or something) clock on the Parisian marble muntle had inst rung 11 upon its ailver bell. "Many good husbands are spoiled in fire crackled in the burning grate. cooking. Some women keep them con- It was a very impressive scene. "My stantly in hot water, while others darling," said be, "when shall I look freeze them by conjugal coldness; some again into the blew depths of your smother them in latred and contention, leves !" and he put both arms around and still others keep then in a pickle her. 'Come at the earliest possible all their lives. These women always moment, my king, said she. Then he serve them up with tongue sauce. Now, drew her toward him, bugged her just undismayed, constitutional grumbler it cannot be supposed that husbands will a little, and a kiss broke softly on the way; but they are on the contrary very just flooded with bliss when on the portunity dictate, and who sums up the delicious when managed as follows : quiet scene, as be clasped her to his Get a large jar, culled the jar of care. heart, there rang out a sound like the fulness (which all good wives have on crack of a rifle, and he felt something hand) place your husband in it, and under his arm. 'Oh, jewhittaker ! he place him near the fire of conjugal love; yelled, as he rushed cut of doors. 'I've let the fire be pretty bot, especially let broke her rib, by jingo, and he strakit be clear, above all let the heat be ed it down the street, while there constant; cover him over with affection | floated after him a pleading voice-'O. to have them under foot to the end of and subjection; garnish him with the my heart's ided, come back! It was spice of pleasantry, and if you add only a coreet bone!' But he was kisses and other confections let them | cone.

A LITTLE GIRL on being told something which much amused her, exclaimed emphatically, "I shall remember that the whole of my life, and when I forget it I will write it down." The child was five years of age ..

Awong the replies to an advertisement of a music committee for " candidate as organist; music teacher." etc., was the following : " Gentlemen; noticed your advertisement for an organist and music teacher, either lady or gentleman. Having been both, for several years, I offer you my services." the world: 3. His egress out of the This is the way the convert converted world. Firstly, his ingress into the the minister : A pastor was conversing. with him when the convent gave as one evidence of a change of heart that he at the heel. They's Dick's. He made the success of his honest face. Her eyes recollection of afterlife principally as an out of the world is nobody knows had absorbed drinking, awearing smoking, and all other ainful habits. The minister pondered whether the And I can tell you so more if I preached a | had not better leave off smoking too,