THE ACTON FREE PRESS. Published every Thursday Morning. Six Months in Advance.

Solar Frost Process. THE GREAT MORNING, APRIL 8, 1880.

THE INSOLVENT ACT. The Insolvency Act is no more a law of the land. It is no longer possible to conceal property and place a nominal trustee in the hands of an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

The British Elections. The news regarding the British elections may be summed up in the words—continued Liberal gains. The latest returns indicate that 235 Liberals and 121 Conservatives have been elected.

Advice From Manitoba. A resident in Manitoba sends the following:—As a great many people are intending to emigrate to Manitoba this coming season, I thought a few hints from one who has had some experience here might be of interest.

Go to J. E. McGarvin's drugstore for Garden, Field and Flower seeds. He has the best assortment in town. Try them.

It is not often we can get the crafty Yankee where we can make him squall; but this time we have him, and we are anticipating a great time about the 4th of July.

The Biddulph Tragedy. The Middlesex Assizes Court opened at London, on Tuesday afternoon, when Chief Justice Willes, in his address to the Grand Jury reviewed at length the circumstances of the Biddulph tragedy.

Massagaweya Items. From our own correspondent. It is reported that steps are being taken to have a post office opened at Bell's Corners.

CORRESPONDENCE. The Editor, while willing to open his columns for the free discussion of all matters of public interest, does not hold himself in any way responsible for the opinions or statements of correspondents.

The Young Folks' Corner. To the Editor of the Free Press. DEAR SIR—Allow us to congratulate you on the very great improvement to my mind, in the reading matter of your paper for some time past.

A Query. To the Editor of the Free Press. DEAR SIR—Did our constable, in his denial of the charge preferred against him by Mr. Bennett, in last week's FREE PRESS, desire that some other person should have the honor of informing against a violator of the law?

ONE WHO BELIEVES IN DOING HIS DUTY. "THOUGH THE HEAVENS FALL." LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, March 8, 1880. MR. OLIVER LAMBY. My Dear Cousin:—Have not time to write much, but will just say, you need not be afraid to believe all the good things you have heard about Smith's Eastern News.

A boy named Smith was fatally injured, in McGillivray, by a splinter of a rock (which was blasted by dynamite) striking him on the head while he stood with another boy 10 rods away.

EXTRACTS.

From a letter written by John D. Wallace, from Stoughton, N. S. Scotia, to the Editor of the Free Press, dated March 8, 1880.

"William Chasley, Robert Building and Raymond were driven over some of the 'B' & 'M' lands in Leicester, and upon Saturday last Saturday, it was a beautiful, warm, sunny day.

From the descriptions of F. W. Ware, and the Burlington and Missouri R. R. Co's pamphlet, I had presumed to myself this morning, the desirability of farming in such a beautiful and fertile country.

The annual entertainment given by the matriculants of Albert College was held on Wednesday evening in the College Chapel, and was well attended and passed off with gratifying success.

THE ALTAR. Rev. Mr. Wallace, on the 3rd inst., by the Rev. H. Holbe, at the Methodist parsonage, Hiram Byler, Esq., of Esquimaux, to Miss Sarah Alma Saville, of Norwich.
