

GRAND TRUCK TIME TABLE.

Table with 2 columns: Destination, Time. Includes routes to Toronto, Montreal, and other cities.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY. - CELEBRATION. - IN Acton on 24th of May. - SLENDING growing weather.

THE recent rains have rapidly advanced vegetation. - RUCBARR has appeared in abundance.

ADDITION. - Mr. James Campbell is putting up a stone addition to the Royal Exchange hotel.

Wool, Wool. - James Moore will pay cash for wool, hides, calfskins and sheepskins, delivered at his tannery in Acton.

THE removal of Mr. Storey's old house from the property now occupied by the new one, greatly improves the appearance of the latter.

THESE are several dangerous places in the village sidewalks. It is high time they were repaired.

ALL the ladies who have articles for the fish pond, in connection with the ladies' entertainment on the 24th, will please leave them at Mrs. Swan's.

CALL at the FREE PRESS office for any kind of spring printing. We have the latest facilities for doing first-class work, neat and cheap.

DON'T rush down into cold cellars where a state of perdition. The house of the Guelph Herald is suffering with the same ailment.

WARM. - During the past week we have been visited with an unusual amount of warmth, the thermometer having some times stood between eighty and ninety degrees.

IMPROVEMENTS. - Mr. R. Agnew is making considerable improvements in the Dominion Hotel. It has been repainted and repaired throughout and has now as fine an interior appearance as any hotel in any town of our size.

ONE thanks are due to Mr. R. McPherson, Postmaster, for copies of Dundee, Scotland, papers, containing news of the recent British elections. Owing to a press of other matter we have no room for the article requested to be published.

GODFELLOWS. - The Grand Lodge of Ontario of the Order, comprising four hundred members and the Grand Encampment will meet in Guelph the second Tuesday in August. The Guelph Lodges are now forming committees to provide for the reception of representatives.

THE SALVE. - If that All-merciful Salve deserves half the praise given to it, it must be a wonderful remedy for Rheumatism, Sciatica, etc. The Rev. T. Atkinson says it never fails, if used according to directions. He replies to all enquiries if sent a stamp and addressed at All-merciful, Ont.

EQUAL to Teletography. It is not so many years ago when Teletography was looked upon as a new and wonderful discovery. Now it is a household word. More recently it has been used for the transmission of news and messages. It is now used for the transmission of news and messages. It is now used for the transmission of news and messages.

RETURN THE BAG. - On Tuesday evening last Mr. George Tolton left in his bag in Campbell's hotel shed, a bag containing a quantity of timothy and clover seed. Returning in a short time the bag containing the seed was not to be found. Mr. Tolton says the thief can keep the seed if he will return the bag, as it was a new one.

BURGLARY. - On Saturday afternoon last Mr. James Brown, farmer, left his watch in his vest pocket in the front hall of his residence. During the afternoon Mrs. Brown was engaged upstairs and it is supposed the thief entered the front door, seeing the watch, took possession of it and immediately disappeared. At any rate, when Mr. Brown went for his vest in the evening the watch was gone. No clue to the thief.
