A CREDITABLE JOURNAL.—The Hamilton Evening Times is a live, wide-awake daily, and is every day giving evidence of its growing popularity. All the leading issues of the day are fully discussed in the editorial columns, and it is a paper deserving of the large patronage it enjoys. May it continue to prosper.

THE horse of racing is fast and red-hot. The people of Canada say there is nothing like the "Wagon" of the "Free Press" in the world. The "Wagon" is sold by the "Free Press" office, and is a very safe and reliable investment. It is a very safe and reliable investment. It is a very safe and reliable investment.

INDEED!—The Free Press intimates that Acton is the only place that can get up a Queen's Birthday celebration, and that Milton can only attempt such a thing. It is always true, the smaller the man the more consulted he is, and the same with villages.—Champion. We are now able to conclude how it is that the Champion man persists in doing so much boasting, he must be the smallest man in his town. As for celebrating the Queen's Birthday can tell him how much our celebration was superior to what Milton generally gets up.

A GOOD ACCOUNT.
To read it is to find your own life's history and suffering, and to find out what it is that is causing it. It is a very safe and reliable investment. It is a very safe and reliable investment. It is a very safe and reliable investment.

THE Colorado beetle is roosting in the neighborhood of potato patches, waiting for the stalks to shoot above the ground.—Mercery. They are done roosting in the neighborhood of potato patches now, and do very little roosting or resting either, but have commenced actual work and are destroying the potato stalks with a vengeance.

Ferrets.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Wm. Hamilton, Rockwood, is recovering rapidly from his late severe illness.
Rev. Alex. Warren, who left Acton on Tuesday, 25th ult. for Lincoln, Nebraska, arrived safely, and likes the looks of that country.
Rev. R. Hobbs is attending the annual meeting of the London Conference now in session at Hamilton. It is expected that Rev. J. Livingston, of Bayfield, will occupy the pulpit.

NEW ADVERTISING AFFECTS BUSINESS.
The man who advertises his business, if what he advertises for is honestly what he represents it to be, or what it ought to be, is constantly assisted in his business by those who have been attached to him and tested him. A buyer has read his advertisement, and gone to his store, or workshop, or warehouse, whatever it may be, and tried what was recommended. If it has satisfied him he is pleased and recommends it to his neighbor, who is likely to go to the same place and tell his neighbors in turn. And thus little rills started by his advertisement flow in upon him from all sides, and the current of his business grows stronger and wider, and more rapid, and he prospers and grows rich, all because to strict attention in business he added judicious advertising. But for this he might have lingered on in the community for years and his business would scarcely have been heard of.
