Mr. Chapman immediately took off the dog and Dr. Lowry was called in and dressed the wounds, which are progressing as favorably as could be expected.

-LOOK OUT FOR HIM. - A well dressed man is going about the country elaining to be deeply interested in the cause of temperance. He calls at a farm house, presents a pledge for the farmer to sign, and when this is done produces another card, similar in appearance, to which he also desires that the signature be affixed, "in order to keep a correct memorandum of his work." The second card is a sight note for any amount the swindler may see lit to demand. Look out for him.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- A Joung man named William Garvin, of Limchouse, met Co. with an accident on the evening of Domin-ion Day, which will in all probability prove fatal. He was coming home from George-town about 9:30 o'clock, and not thinking he was so near to the bridge at the 7th line walked into it and fell to the bottom. He laid there until about 1:30 o'clock when Mr. James Sharp came along and found him, and procuring assistance took him to the residence of Mr. Lindsay, near by. Dr. Freeman, of Georgetown, was immediately called, and on examination it was ascertained that the poor fellow's back was broken. Tucre is little hope for his recovery.
