TOWN AND COUNTY. Renew your subscription. The school fence has been patented. Remember the Band Concert next Monday evening.

Water's List. The voter's list for 1899, for the village of Acton, has been printed and is now posted in the Clerk's office.

Potato Bug. In fields where no ventilation is not being used, the potato bugs are doing a large amount of damage to the crop.

Strawberries. From the 14th of June to the 24th of July, both days included, there were shipped from the W. H. S. station at Oakville 3,633 cases, or 131,310 quarts of strawberries.

The Cow. The owners of cows in the village should take care to arrange their farms in such a way that their cows can have access to a field or woods in which they can graze.

Harvest Time. It is proverbially dull in town during harvest time. Our busy country friends do not come in much, and the best seems to keep our townspeople in the house, yet despite this, some of our business men tell us trade is not specially dull, but something better than it often is at this season of the year.

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, etc., of all kinds, at Very Reasonable prices.

PLEASANT PASTORAL. On Tuesday last the Rev. (and accompanied Mr. Geo. Matthews (who was member of the G. R. depot, as he was about to leave for England. A number of pieces were played, and when the train was moving off, three heart-ebreakers were given in honor of their departing companion.

ADVISE. -Summer tourists are warned that in case of accidents to a steamer it is always well to avoid jumping off the forward part of the boat.

MOWER MACHINE ACCIDENTS. -Last Thursday, Mr. John Hardy, Esquire, was shown from a mowing machine and had one hand and foot badly bruised.

JOURNALISTIC. -Last week the Acton Free Press entered upon its sixth year. It seems to enjoy its existence because it wishes to and works because it pays.

ATTENDED SUICIDE. -Emma Dutt, who was confined for three months in jail on Tuesday morning for vagrancy, attempted to commit suicide while in the cells awaiting removal to the goal.

SPECIAL NOTICES. -A good Full Hat for 75 cents at J. Fyfe. -Liverpool Butter Salt at the Post Office Store.

THE EARLY BIRD. -The "Lion" Guelph, announces in today's issue the arrival of early fall goods.

As surely as French physicians claim, so surely will disease eventually fasten itself upon a system deficient in vital energy, if tonic medication is not resorted to in time.

Equal to Telegraphy. It is not so many years ago when Telegraphy was looked upon as an antiquated and out-of-date method of communication.

CLEANING SALTS. -The Mammoth House Cleaning Salts are to announce a new and improved method of cleaning.

NOTICES WORTH ATTENTION. Read and black cuttings. House-boards eight cents a pair. Plums after 10c per bushel. Mrs. S. A. Second.
