

YOUNG FOLKS CORNER.

Baby's Lullaby.

By-by, little lullaby,
Baby's gone to bed;
On his snowy white pillow,
Heath his golden head.

Truthful and Obedient.

"Charlie! Charlie!" Clear and loud as a note struck from a silver bell, the voice rippled over the common.

Thirty years have passed since those boys played ball on the common.

ROTHSCHILD'S MAXIMS.

According to George Francis Train, the late Baron Rothschild had the following maxims framed on his bank wall:

Be prompt in all things.
Consider well, then decide positively.

Endure trials patiently.
Fight life's battle bravely, manfully.

Hold integrity sacred.
Ignore not another's reputation or business.

Join hands only with the virtuous.
Keep your mind from evil thoughts.

Make few acquaintances.
Never try to appear what you are not.

Observe good manners.
Pay your debts promptly.

Question not the veracity of a friend.
Respect the counsel of your parents.

Sacrifice money rather than principle.
Touch not, taste not, handle not intoxicating liquors.

Use your leisure time for improvement.
Venture not upon the threshold of wrong.

Watch carefully over your passions.
Extend to every one a kindly salutation.

Yield not to discouragements.
Zealously labor for the right, & success is certain.

The Best Recommendation.
In reply to an advertisement of a merchant wanting an office boy, fifty boys presented themselves.

He waited quietly and did not push himself forward, which is an evidence of his good behavior.

A Little Thing.

I saw a man, with tottering steps,
Come down a travelled walk one day;
The honied front of many years had Upon his scattered, thin locks lay.

How to Get Along.

Don't stop to tell stories in business hours.

Don't spend all your salary, whatever it is.

If you have a place of business, be found there when wanted.

No man can get rich by sitting around stores and saloons.

Never fool in business matters.

Have order, system, regularity, and promptness.

Do not meddle with business you know nothing of.

Do not kick anyone in your path.

More miles can be made in one day by going steadily than by stopping.

Pay as you go.

A man of honor respects his word as he does his bond.

Don't leave business affairs altogether to clerks, or household affairs to servants.

Help others when you can, but never give what you cannot afford because it is fashionable.

Learn to say no. No necessity of strapping it out dog fashion, but say it firmly and respectfully.

Use your own brains rather than those of others.

General News.

Wm. Graham, a one-legged veteran, died at the St. Thomas House of Industry on the 25th July, having reached the patriarchal age of 96 years and 5 months.

A couple of wood cars lashed down on a switch in the Great Western yard at London, on Monday evening, and smashed a lot of barges that were being shipped to Manitoba.

The Hamilton City Clerk has not ified the Telephone Company that they must remove their wires from the fire alarm poles within thirty days, otherwise there will be trouble.

Wm. Ames, aged 35 years, while driving the engine of a freighter along the road in Southwell, fell from his seat to the ground, and was instantly killed, the skull being broken.

Some miscreant attempted lately to wreck a train of the Eastern Extension Railway near Piedmont, N. S. A reward of $100 has been offered for such information as will lead to the arrest of the guilty party.

Thos. Young, of Lunan, aged 63 years, lately succumbed to a cancer.
Deceased was one of the most enterprising and respected citizens. His farm is in the outskirts of Lunan, where he settled about 47 years ago.

A sufficient number of signatures of bona fide freeholders has been appended to the petition asking the Windsor Town Council to submit a by-law to the tax-payers for a bonus of $21,000 for the Leamington and St. Clair Railway.

As SURELY AS EVERETT FOLLOWS CAUSE, so surely will disease eventually fasten itself upon a system deficient in vital energy, if tonic medication is not resorted to in time. The necessary tendency of the weak discharges of the functions of the body is to disorder its organs. Invigorating, prompt and thorough, is the only safeguard. No renovant of depleted physical energy, no restorative of lost heat, nerve power and cheerfulness, has more clearly demonstrated its efficacy than Northrop & Lyman's Quinine Wine.
In this preparation, associated with the salutary medicines which form its basis, is pure sherry wine and certain aromatic constituents, which impart an agreeable taste to the article, and give additional emphasis to its effects. In cases of general debility and dyspepsia it is invaluable and the desired effect, in the vast majority of cases, remarkably prompt as well as durable. That good natural appetite, which gives a relish for the coarsest fare, is insured by the use of the Quinine Wine, which also confers brain soothing and body refreshing sleep. Fever and ague and bilious remittent fever, are diseases to the eradication of which it is especially adapted; but it should be used only in the intervals between the seizures. The far-reaching effects of a good tonic, in all complaints involving loss of physical energy, are well understood by physicians, and the comprehensive influence for good of this preparation upon the system goes far to bear out the professional belief in the value of invigorants as opponents of disease. Be sure to ask for the "Quinine Wine prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto." Sold by all druggists.
