CHRISTMAS.—Another Christmas has come and gone. The day was a merry one for a large portion of our readers, and we can only hope that the many who are still suffering from the grippe, will find relief in the joyousness of the day.

"Santa Claus" paid his visits and filled with joy the youthful recipients of his bounty, and all day long the beating of drums and the tramping of feet, the older ones spent the day in various ways. The day was pleasant, and the excellent shipping made it a perfect Christmas. In the afternoon, after the turkey and plum-pudding had been received with proper ceremony, the skating rink was liberally patronized, and a merry time spent in that way. Some enjoyed themselves by sleighing, while others spent the day among friends and old associates at their homes. It is but just to say that, amid all the rejoicings and Christmas greetings, but very few cases of hysterics or unseemly conduct were noticed. We believe that the majority of our readers enjoyed a "merry Christmas," and if such be the case, we wish them many happy returns of the day.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE.—The Sabbath school entertainment and Christmas tree held in the Methodist church on Christmas Eve, was well attended. The tree was decorated with all manner of good things, and presented a very attractive appearance. The superintendent of the school, Mr. John Speight, took the chair, and after a few preliminary remarks the programme was opened by an excellent anthem by the choir. A number of dialogues and recitations—all of which contained a healthy moral sentiment—were then given by the school children, in a manner which called for enthusiastic applause, and reflected credit on the ladies and gentlemen under whose instruction they were prepared. Very interesting addresses were delivered by Rev. R. H. Waddell, D. A., of Ferguson, and Rev. J. H. Lowe and T. L. Wilkinson, of this village. The choir rendered a number of excellent pieces. Santa Claus arrived about ten o'clock and his appearance created much amusement among the children. He distributed presents among those present, and there were very few, young or old, who did not receive something. The meeting was closed with the benediction at a reasonable hour.

The entertainment in connection with St. Alban's Sabbath school, held in the Temperance Hall, was well attended. The programme was good and everything, especially the Christmas tree, pleased the children.

MAN FROZEN.—On Wednesday last Peter Cole, a man living near the 7th line, who is considerably deranged, went to Ballinacra, to the post office, and when returning home, wandered off the road into a swamp, and lost his way. When he did not return home his friends proceeded to search for him, but without success, until Saturday morning, when he was found standing beside a tree a few feet from the road. The poor man had been there for three days and nights, and was almost frozen to death. He was immediately taken home and medical aid was sent for. When the doctor arrived he discovered that the man was severely frozen in various parts of the body, but he thought there was hope for his recovery.
