THE FREE PRESS.

TUESDAY MORNING, Jan. 20, 1881.

Local and Other Notings.

Who's best man!
Plenty of snow and plenty of every caking.
Paid for the Fancy Pastry for 1881! Haven't well call.
The weather of the past week has been model winter weather.
Jack Frost most elaborately decorated the trees, etc., on Sunday night.
The slate and heading factories and lumber mills are getting in their stocks.
Everybody who owns a team of horses is engaged in teaming something now.
The Baptism debate seems to be the only topic of conversation among our citizens.
Mr. Hugh Cameron has reopened his bakery and is engaged in the manufacture of potash.

We have received a communication from L. O.—, Georgetown, that it came too late for insertion this week.

The Brantford reporters were voted $20 each by the Board of Aldermen the other night, for attending and reporting proceedings during Fergie.

The Acton FREE PRESS sends fraternal greetings in the shape of a hand-some New Year's gift. The sign to you all fellow, and many of 'em!—Birch Ad. value.

At this end of the township is pretty well represented, with agricultural society directors, we hope they will do their utmost to secure the coming fall show for Acton.

TODAY'S FREE PRESS.—This case was tried in Hamilton last week, resulting in a verdict. The medical witness will now breathe more freely, and attend to such cases with sterner nerves than if a verdict had been given.

CASE STATED.—Messrs. A. Secord & Co. announce that they have decided to stop the east system of doing business, and will henceforth sell for cash or produce only. By transacting business on a cash basis they will be able to give goods much cheaper than by the credit system.

"Highly satisfactory," "the best I ever had taken," "I don't think that they could be better," "I have paid three times the price you ask for pictures, but I never had a good one before," are a few of the remarks passed by customers when they receive their pictures made by Hill, the photo artist.

THE CHRISTIAN REPORTER.—The first copy of the Christian Reporter for 1881, is to hand. The above journal is published in Toronto by Messrs. Bengough & Moore, and has for its editor the Hon. Vice-Chancellor Blake. Among its contributors are the names of a number of the most able writers of the day.

INCENDIARY FIRE.—At about twelve o'clock on Saturday the public school-house in Milton was found to be on fire. The townspeople were soon on hand, and in a short time had the fire under control. The fire was found to be between the ceiling and the upper floor, having caught from the register. Damage about $100, which will be covered by insurance.

S. S. CONVENTION.—As before stated the annual meeting of Halton County Sabbath School Association will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 1st and 2nd, of February, in the Methodist church here. Our readers are no doubt aware that this is not a denominational organization, but is represented by almost every denominating in the country. We have just received a letter from Mr. H. Custer, secretary of the association, intimating that in addition to the speakers named in the programme which has been circulated, Rev. A. Andrews, of Galt, is expected to attend and will take up some practical S. S. work. We would urge our Aton friends to do all they can to make the convention a success.

PERSONALS.

Miss Maggie Cameron, of Elora, is visiting her Acton friends.

We had a call from Mr. Jacob Fisher, of Lucknow, on Tuesday.

Mr. James Matthew, Jr., of Galt, is home for a few weeks.

Mr. George Beatty, of Fergus, is the guest of Rev. T. L. Wilkins.

Mr. T. Neelands, of the Georgetown Herald, was in town on Monday.

Rev. E. B. Ryckman, D. D. of Bradford, is attending the debate on Baptism.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Calder, of Milton, spent a few days with their friends here last week.

Mr. Percy Secord, who has been studying law in Toronto for several months past, is spending a few weeks at his Acton home.

School Books, Slates, Pens, Ink, Stationery, etc.,

Local and Other Notings.

Now council met on Monday last.

Village council meet on Monday evening.

Our streets present an exceedingly busy appearance.

About 500 attended the debate on Tuesday evening.

Give your stock plenty of bedding while the cold weather last.

Mr. C. Ross, operator G.T.R., has our thanks for copies of the Detroit Free Press.

You can stand on your head and read the new date right, something that will not occur again until 1803 or 1818.

There are a large number of strangers visiting their Acton friends at present, but we are unable to get the names of all, for our personal list.

We have received a report of a presentation and address to Mr. James F. Smyth, on the eve of his departure from S. No. 73, Nassauway, but it is crowded out of its name.

The risk is still the rage, some of the stakes in one night set millions of stakes and wagers, more than Mother Shipton ever dreamt of for the whole of 1811, but the fascination seems irresistible.

We have received the Advocate Advertiser, published at Watford, Ont., by the East Linlithgow Printing company. This journal presents a very creditable appearance, is well edited, and should receive the hearty support of the residents of the County of Lambton.

STORYTELLER.—The life of Edward Hamilton, the World's Champion Orator, has just been published by Richard K. Fox, 105 William St., New York. The book is in paper covers and illustrated with portraits of prominent sculpts. The book will be mailed on receipt of 25c.

A Guelph township subscriber writes:—"Dear Sir.—Please find enclosed $1.00, for which you are sending me your valuable paper. I have taken it one year and I like it very much. Wishing you every success and the compliments of the season, I am truly yours."

HE WISER.—There was a man in our town, He was a widower, wife, He thought his business would run itself And he didn't advertise.

Well, business was dull at first. But better times came, and I'll swear, One day with a rush he sold all his stock, But the sheriff was a-courting.

ICE HARVEST.—Several of our citizens have been engaged during the past week in taking out ice, but the operations are confined to the work of getting out the natural supply. The winter has been a solid one, all over the country, and our ice is consequently at a discount this year, though last year it was at a premium.

FINDING CUSTOMERS.—A man's busi-

sad FATAL ACCIDENT.—Last Wednesday evening a number of young men and boys were enjoying themselves by sleigh-riding down one of the long and steep hills.

Well, business was dull at first.

But better times came, and I'll swear,

One day with a rush he sold all his stock, But the sheriff was a-courting.

They all did it." Everybody wants "Tea" to beautify the eeth and give fragrance to the breath. Ask your druggist for sample package, &c. Large Bottles 25 cents.

McQUILLAN & HAMILTON, of the Wellington Street Works, Guelph, are noted for giving satisfaction to those favorably disposed towards them. They need no aptitude to their line, and are sure to please them. They do a very large business, consequently they are able to give better terms, and keep better workmen than smaller works, and send them for particular.

DOTTED GOWN UP.

Is it possible that Mr. Goof is up and about and cured by a simple remedy? I have seen it. It is true that he isn't quite himself yet, but he is improving daily.

After ten days a good doctor gave him a dose of whisky.

Wise, if that is so, I will go this minute and get some for poor George. I know how to cook.

Reader, here's a cough that deserves to be treated.

Do not, for God's sake, try Higgyard's

Decoy Balsam, the best cough cure known. For don't you know that and pleasant medicine will break up the most obstinate cough. All medicine dealers sell it at 25cts per bottle.

OUR YOUNG WOMEN.—We have re-

cived a copy of the Kingston Whig, containing the report of an excellent sermon on "Our Young Women," delivered last Sunday evening, by Rev. C. A. Cook, of the same city, formerly of this village. The sermon is a very interesting one, the subject being exceedingly well handled. Owing to a lack of space we are not able to insert it in its entirety.

APPEND YOUR NAME.—We have recently informed our readers that we will insert no communication, no matter

what subject it is written, unless the name

is sent in connection with the communication. As before stated, we do not wish to hear the discussion. Mr. John Warren served as chairman, and before opening the debate, he asked the audience to be as orderly as possible, and stated that the committee had decided not to allow of any appeal from the sympathizers of either party, and we think the people deserve credit for the admirable manner in which they complied with this request, in face of the numerous points brought out by each speaker. The debates, each occupied 30 minutes twice and 15 minutes once, in the evening, and the meeting was brought to a close at a few minutes after ten o'clock.

After the meeting and during the next day

the debate was the topic of conversation

among all parties, the points established by either speaker were discussed, and considerable interest and excitement was manifested in the subject. On Tuesday evening the attendance was larger than on any former evening, there being about 550

persons present. The subject of the previous evening was continued, but there were several points advanced, as much of the argument used was a repetition of that of the previous evening. At the close of the meeting it was mutually decided to introduce the second proposition on Wednesday evening. As on the first two evenings the audience was very large on Wednesday evening,

and the discussion was opened by Mr. Wilkinson, who affirmed that that speech administered by sprinkling or pouring is scrupulously performed." The usual good order and attention was given the speakers,

and the interest manifested on the first evening was still apparent. The audience

had been made up not only of our own citizens, but large numbers have been present from the surrounding towns and villages,

while some from more distant places were present. Quite a number of regardable gentlemen from different parts of the country have been regular attendees since the commencement of the debate. It is expected that the discussion will not be concluded until some time next week. It is useless for us to give an opinion as to which of the speakers has succeeded in making the largest number of points, as every person has his own opinion on the question and expresses it to his own satisfaction.
