

THE FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY MORNING, Feb. 3, 1881.

YOUNG FOLKS CORNER.

ALL'S FOR THE BEST.

Therefore Trust in God's Providence.

All's for the best—the happy and cheerful!

Nothing but faithfulness and fearfulness!

All's for the best—the happy and cheerful!

Providence works all a man would but know it!

There's no dream of the phantom or past!

It's all for the best, and all's for the best.

All's for the best—set this on your stand.

Soldier of sadness, or pilgrim of love.

Who to the shores of despair may have transfered!

A way-worn traveler, or heart-stricken wanderer!

All's for the best—Be a man but confident.

Providence tenderly governs the rest!

And the frail bark of 'tis creatures is guided!

Wholly and warily!—all's for the best.

All's for the best! then sing away, my friends!

Meet all your fears, whether falter or faint!

And in the midst of your dangers or errors.

Treat like a child, while you strive like a saint!

All's for the best—unbiased, unobscured.

Providence returns, foremost to the mast!

Christianity, by wisdom and mercy surrounded!

Should hope and be happy,—all's for the best.

Help One Another.

This little sentence should be written on every heart—stamped on every memory. It should be the golden rule practiced, not only in every household, but throughout the world.

The New Boy.

He was a brand new office boy, young, pretty-faced, with golden ringlets and blue eyes. Just out of his little trundle bed in the middle of the night and transported beyond the stairs.

You Will Not Be Happy.

You will not be happy unless you are kind to all. You will not be happy unless you are patient with all.

Rules for Skaters.

Never get out of anybody's road. If any one is in your road don't go round him—go straight through him.

Becoming a Teetotaler.

The late Dean of Chichester used to tell the story of his becoming a teetotaler in the following way:—

I had in my parish at Leeds a man who earned eighteen shillings a week.

Out of this he used to give seven shillings to his wife, and spend the rest in drink.

But for all that he was a good sort of a fellow. I went to him one day and said:—

"Now, suppose you abstain altogether for six months."

"Well, if I do, will you, sir?" was the reply.

"Yes," I said, "I will."

"What," said he, "from beer, from spirits, and from wine?"

"Yes; and how shall I know if you keep your promise?"

"Why, you ask my mistress and I'll ask yours."

It was agreed between us for six months at first, and afterward we renewed the promise.

He never resumed the bad habit that he left off, and is now a happy and prosperous business man in St. Petersburg, and I am Dean of Chichester.

Can You?

Can any one tell why men who can not pay small bills, can always find money to buy liquor and treat when among friends?

Can any one tell how young men who are always behind with their landlords can play billiards night and day, and always be ready for a game of cards when money is at stake?

Can any one tell how men live and support their families, who have no income and no work, when others who are industrious, are half starved?

Can any one tell why four-fifths of the young ladies prefer a beardless youth, under a plug hat, with tight pants and short coat, to a man with brains?

Can any one tell how it is that some mothers are always ready to sew for the distant heathen, when their own children are ragged and dirty?

The Human Figure.

The height of the human figure is six times the length of the feet. Whether the form is slender or plump, the rule holds good; any deviation is a departure from the highest beauty in proportion.

Died From Swallowing False Teetotal.

Mrs. Wellington Barnes, wife of an hotel-keeper in London East, died yesterday morning in an extraordinary manner. About a week ago while talking her teeth, one of the front ones, being artificial, were dislodged.

Now is the season to drive cattle on the ice, if you want cowpits in water.

An Alabama paper published the following notice:—

"Married at Flintstone, by Rev. Samuel Widdowson, Ephraim Grindstone to Emeline Sandstone, both of Limestone. Look out for small Grindstones, we trust not to be followed by Brimstone."

Never fail to answer an invitation, either personally or by letter. If it is an invitation to a wedding or donation party, a letter will do just as well, and is about ten times as cheap.

"How do you like the character of St. Paul?" asked a parson of his lady one day, during a conversation about the old saints and the Apostles.

"Ah!" said she, "he was a good, clever old soul, I know, for he once said, you know, that we must eat what is set before us, and ask no questions for conscience sake. I always thought I should like him for a boarder."

A four-year-old child saying her prayers at her mother's knee, having concluded as usual, with "God bless papa and mamma, grandpapa and grandmamma, uncles and aunts," etc., gave a great sigh, and said: "O mamma dear, I do wish these people would pray for themselves, for I am so tired of praying for them."

Great Clearing Sale at the Right House

Mr. Wm. T. Watkins having called for Europe this week to purchase supplies for this enormous house, has decided to make a great clearing sale at auction very low prices as will cause a sensation amongst the ladies.

THOMAS C. WATKINS, HAMILTON.

Hamilton, Jan. 20th, 1881.

SUBSTITUTES!

The public are cautioned against a custom which is growing quite common of late among a certain class of medicine dealers, and which is that when asked for a bottle of Pain-Killer, they rashly discover that they are "sold out."

For CHOLERA MORBUS, CRAMPS, AND ALL SUMMER OR BOWEL COMPLAINTS.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER

IT CURES ALMOST INSTANTLY.

THE PAIN-KILLER IS PUT UP IN OZ. AND OZ. BOTTLES, EACH CONTAINING 100 DROPS. FULL DIRECTIONS ARE PRINTED ON THE BOTTLE.

SOLD BY ALL MEDICINE DEALERS.

Advertisement for Burdock Blood Bitters, featuring the 'BBB' logo and text describing its benefits for blood purification.

Advertisement for Hacyard's Pectoral Balsam, describing its use for coughs, colds, and asthma.

Advertisement for Victoria Buchu & Uva Ursi, a kidney and urinary organ medicine.

Advertisement for Hacyard's Yellow Oil, a medicinal oil for various ailments.

Advertisement for the New Edition of the Webster's Unabridged Dictionary.

Advertisement for the Christian Gleaner, a magazine for the poor, published by the Christian Gleaner Society.

Advertisement for Guelph Cloth Mall, a merchant tailor.

Advertisement for Johnston's Sarsaparilla, a purifying medicine for various ailments.

Advertisement for The Best Offer Yet Made!

Advertisement for a new organ from a first-class Canadian maker.

Subscribe For The ACTON FREE PRESS

Advertisement for Dominion Organs & Pianos, featuring an illustration of a grand piano and text describing the quality and variety of instruments.

The Largest and Most Complete Factory in the Dominion—140x100.

Advertisement for Dominion Organ & Piano Company, listing various models and prices.

DRY GOODS PROCLAMATION.

Advertisement for Wm. Stewart & Co., featuring a portrait of a man and text about a grand clearing sale of winter dry goods.

WM. STEWART & CO., GUELPH.

ACTON HARNESS & TRUNK FACTORY.

Advertisement for harness and trunk making, featuring an illustration of a horse-drawn carriage.

THE ACTON FREE PRESS, BEST LOCAL PAPER IN HALTON CO.

Advertisement for John Speight's furniture and undertaking services.

THE SUN FOR 1881.

Everybody reads the Sun. In the Sun of this country there is more news than in any other paper published in the world.

SALE & BOARD STABLES.

First-class Rigs, AT REASONABLE RATES. Good Commercial Rigs.

GIVEN AWAY.

Phrenological Journal

This Journal is published in New York, and is the best and most interesting of its kind.

HELP Yourself by making money.

Could furnish you with all the information you need to know about the business of the day.