TO ADVERTISERS.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co's Select List of Local Newspapers.

An advertiser who spends upwards of $5000 a year, and who inserts in this list, writes: "Your Select Local List is the best I have ever seen."

It is not a Co-operative List. It is not a Cheap List. It is an Honest List.

The catalogue states exactly what the papers are. When the name of the paper is printed in this list, it is in every instance the best. When printed in CAPITAL LETTERS, it is only a paper in the list. The list gives the circulation of every town and the circulation of every paper.

The rates charged for advertising are barely one-third the ordinary rates. The price for single lines ranges from $2 to $25. The price for one line one month is $10. The price for one line three months is $25. The price for one line six months is $45. The price for one line one year is $75. The price for one line one year and one month is $85. The price for one line one year and two months is $95. The price for one line one year and three months is $105. The price for one line one year and four months is $115. The price for one line one year and five months is $125. The price for one line one year and six months is $135. The price for one line one year and seven months is $145. The price for one line one year and eight months is $155. The price for one line one year and nine months is $165. The price for one line one year and ten months is $175. The price for one line one year and eleven months is $185. The price for one line one year and twelve months is $195.

POETRY.

ANOTHER MOUTH TO FEED.

You wonder, Jack, that I take no heed

Of these jests and banter's play,

Because there's another mouth to feed

In my humble home to day.

But bless you man, you would wonder less,

If a married man were you,

With little ones round your knees to press

When the hard day's work is through.

My wages are slender at best, I own,

And the outlook's poor enough,

And the bread in my nest has swiftly grown,

But I'm fashioned of cheerful stuff,
