THE FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 24, 1881.

Read this over carefully, containing a full and complete list of the names of the subscribers to the Free Press, and the amount of their contributions. A large stock of books, maps, stationery, and other articles, at lowest prices.

Large stock of spectacles, from 15 cents to $3.00 a pair, per eye, of various styles, for the children, ladies and gentlemen. Handmade eyeglasses, silver-plated frames, kites, spoons and forks, watches, clocks, jewelry, a large stock always on hand. Call at the sign of the Big Watch, when you want any of the above mentioned goods, you will find the price low.

Local and Other Settings.

The crows are cawing.

Look out for "fresh" veal.

Lay away your snow shovel.

Work from to-morrow in April foot's day.

The time for taking the census draws near.

Take the dearyed vegetables out of your cellar.

Observed here.

See to it that your back yards are now cleaned up.

Have you given your order for the new Stock book?

Mud is a most plentiful commodity on our streets at present.

We are now ready to receive that "biggest egg." Why say it?

The village weigh scales have been overhauled during the past week.

Only one more week with the "it" in it. "It" you getting away your share of assets.

Parsons! have you seen the new Stock-Doctor and Live Stock book? It is well worth examining!

New Baker—Mr. John Grant, formerly of Acton, has commenced business in Essex's bakery.

Our merchants have commenced their spring trading in the Free Press. Read our advertising pages well.

Our citizens, both great and small, find it pleasant to spend at least a part of these beautiful days in the open air.

The universal verdict is that last Friday was the finest day of the season, and that Saturday was the most disagreeable.

In the report of the receipts and expenditures of the village of Stayner, the auditors place the printing account under the head of charities.

Be Careful Boys.—The very mean practice of tearing down bills before the door expires lays you open to a fine. The practice should, therefore, be discontinued.

Cook-Book.—We have received Billings' Historical Proverbs. If you want to have a big laugh send 15 cents for the handy volume.

Hill still continues to enjoy a large measure of popularity as a photo artist, and his fine gallery is not out of work at a subject during working hours. He guarantees satisfaction.

Clean up your back yards at once, and see to it that your cellars are in good trim, with no decaying vegetable matter. It may cheat the Dr. of a job or two, but it will put money in your pocket.

Some young sports about town talk of starting a book-law club, and expending their surplus energy in getting wood for needy families.—Barrie Advance. Capital idea, we would recommend some of our young men to follow the example of the Barrie boys.

Bad Boys.—According to a Woodstock paper many parents in that town show a reckless disregard of the welfare of their children by allowing them to remain out at all hours of the night. The number of profane and generally bad small boys to be seen about that town is frightfully large. We are afraid Acton is not far behind her sister town in this respect.

OBITUARY.—On Monday last one of the oldest residents of the county, Mr. Thomas Reay, of Milton, departed this life at the ripe age of eighty-eight years. Mr. Reay has held the office of Registrar for this county for the past 43 years. On the 3rd of May, 1838, he was appointed to the position of Registrar for the counties of Halton, Westmorland, Brant, Waterloo and Wellington, and had done for his headquarters. In 1842 the work connected with the office, having greatly increased, the counties of Wellington and Waterloo were set off, and in 1855 it being considered advantageous to have a Registrar for each county, he chose Halton, and removed to Milton, and efficiently performed the duties of the office until his death. He was respected by all, and his bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community. Mr. Reay was the oldest county Registrar in the Province.

SEEDS,

Garden, Field

The village council talk about re-planting Bower Avenue with maples.

The Waterloo Echo calls the council of that village "The Waterloo Circus and International Hippodrome."

There are only twenty-four rate-payers in Acton who do not take the Free Press, and they borrow their neighbours'.

Parliament has been prorogued and notwithstanding the several attempts to supply it, the Scott-Act remains intact.

A deputation of the village council intend visiting a number of the town halls in the surrounding towns to examine them.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS.—A. B. Wright is census enumerator for Acton, W. J. Holgate for Georgetown, John Robinson and David Hutchinson for Nassagaweya.

The County of Halton votes today on the Scott Act.—Berlin News. You are 30 days ahead of time, brother, the voting does not take place until the 19th of April.

And now they have it that the pear and plum trees have been injured by the frost. It is gratifying to know that the fence posts are considered safe.—Hamilton Spectator.

The Hamilton Spectator boasts that it has found out that Prof. Foster gets $125 a month for advocating the Scott Act, but it forgets to state how much it is paid for firing its arrows against the Act.

COMMUNION.—Rev. D. B. Cameron was assisted by Rev. Principal Caven, D.D., of Knox College, Toronto, in the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, in Knox church on Sunday last.

We have just received the February number of "Girl's Own Paper," published by Wm. Warwick, Toronto. Ask for it at the bookstores. It is a splendid magazine, and just the thing for young ladies.

Dear little girls: A lit girl of Father-ton, Putnam county, New York, died from jumping the rope. She dropped dead after the one hundred and seventy-fifth jump. Don't do too much skip-ping.

"OUR LITTLE ONES."—The April number of "Our Little Ones" is to hand, and it is full of pure, instructing and amusing matter. It is published by the Russell Publishing Company, Boston, Mass.

The Acton Free Press is a very good local paper and ought to be very heartily supported by the people of that village.—Berlin Daily News. And so it is. We hope the News is as heartily supported by the citizens of Berlin.

The Georgetown Herald comes down pretty hard on the Milton Champion, as follows: "The low contemptible style adopted by the Champion, concerning the Scott Act agitation, is so far beneath contempt as to be unworthy of a passing notice."

CHEESE FACTORY.—We understand that a cheese factory is about being established between here and Stayner. The farmers are enthusiastic over the matter, and the fact of Mr. Bessy having the management is a guarantee of success.—Georgetown Herald.

DAM BROKES.—Owing to the large volume of water passing over Messrs. Speight & Son's dam on Monday, it gave way at one end. All hands went to work and with the use of straw, shavings, etc., the leak was stopped before any particular damage had taken place.

A youth just launching out in trade tells a wealthy merchant said: "Fry, tell me, sir, what you profess to call the secret of success?" The merchant's eyes with pleasure shone as he replied in earnest tone: "The secret simple is, I think, 'You'll find it, sir, in printers' ink.'"

ACTON DIVISION, S. O. T.—A meeting of the members of Acton Division, South of Temperance, No. 242, will be held in the Temperance Hall, on Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of taking into consideration the re-organization of the Division. The Scott Act committee are requested to meet at the same place and time. A large attendance is requested.

ARM BROKES.—On Monday last as Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore, of the Scotch Block, were driving up to Acton they met with an accident by which Mrs. Moore had an arm broken. They were driving past a load of hay, and getting too far off the road, and Mrs. Moore's left arm was broken at the wrist. Dr. Lowry reduced the fracture and the patient is on the mend.

HOW TO HELP YOUR LOCAL PAPER.—Those who desire to give their local paper a helping hand could easily do so. Most everybody will take the Free Press for a dollar a year if a "word in season" is put in by a friend or neighbor. It's not a hard pipe to canvass for. Try it. If you send us a few good names we will give you credit for doing your duty; if you send us a neat little batch of names, with the stamps, we will give you cash for doing your duty.

RARE FURNITURE.—While in Guelph the other day we had the pleasure of examining at the warehouse of Messrs. Worsfold & Co., an assortment of furniture imported from Bombay, India, by Mr. J. W. Lyon, for his new residence. The price will give the best idea of how the set is made up. There are 2 sofas, corner stand, 4 flower stands, 2 easy chairs, 2 foot stools, piano stool, lady's desk, centre table, hat rack, music rack, 2 tea pots, 4 paper chairs, cabinet, pier table, 2 brackets, tortoise shell writing desk, porcupine desk, card case, 4 paper knives, 2 sandal-wood boxes, 2 sandal-wood fans, etc., and a large collection of ivory work of most extraordinary device and execution. The furniture is all made of rosewood, and its chief value consists in the elaborate carving which adorns it. Every portion of the sofas and chairs; and, indeed, most of the other articles are decorated with fine leaf work, carved with the knife out of the solid wood. The furniture cost Mr. Lyon about $10,000. The assortment is a great attraction to citizens and visitors.

Largest assortment of garden seeds in town, all new and fresh at A. Secord & Co's.

- No idlers in town.
- Citizens patronize home dealers.
- A village of 1000 inhabitants with more churches than Acton.
- A large brick block on the south-east corner of Mill and Elgin streets.
- Councillors do their duty to the best of their ability without fear or favor.
- Don. C. Robertson.
- Who is going to have the honor of submitting the first sample of maple sugar to the Free Press staff.
- Preparations made at once for the erection of the new town hall and lock-up, so that it may be completed in reasonable time next Fall.
- Perseverance.
- Mr. Percy Secord is attending Georgetown College.
- We had a call on Monday from Mrs. Hugh McDonald, of Pendleton Mountain, Manitoba, formerly of this vicinity.
- Mr. James W. Mann was confined to his bed during the whole of last week. We are pleased to hear, however, that he is able to be about again.
- Mr. Robert Walter, M.D. publisher of the Local and General and proprietor of the Mountain Park Home Sanitarium, of Wernerville Pa., called on us last Friday. Mr. Walter is an Acton boy and has just concluded a visit with his friends in the vicinity.
