HOW TO VOTE.

It is well for electors to make themselves acquainted with the form of the hellot paper to be used in the Boott Act election next Tuesday. The ballot paper which has been prepared is a mistake. The vote is for and against the petition, and the following is the form of the ballot :

r	For the Petition.	X
T	Against the Petition.

Of course the voter will understand that " for the petition, means in faror of the Scott Act, and "against the pe- us pell our whole strength. tition" means against the Act. Those who wish to rote for the act should mark the ballot as appears in the diagram. Those who wish to record their vote against it must place the mark in the erace below.

An Explanation

To the Editor of the Free Press. DEAR SIR -I understand that there is some dissatisfaction in certain quarters with the action of the Scott Act Committee in selecting the Methodist Church as the place for Rev. L. The general feeling was in former color, and the hair becomes favor of having the temperance sermon thick and luxuriant as ever; with its preached in the Presbyterian church, and a resolution was almost unanimously passed instructing the local committee to consult the authorities that church on the subject, and suggesting that in case of any objection being cities of Ontario are rapidly falling into arged, the Methodist church should be cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get line Hamilton voted yesterday, with applied for. The committee met, I was present. was reported at that meeting that certain leading members of the Presby eye of the whole country is upon us terian church had expressed to certain members of the committee a decided wish that the meeting should be held in the Methodist church, and that in consequence of this the authorities of the Presbyterian church had not been applied to. Now, I simply want to state that the utmost frankness has actuated the committee, and we supposed we were doing everything for the best. If any one is dissatisfied I have no doubt that the committee will most cheerfully receive, or give any explanations in their power, and can satisfactorily show very simple one, and there is no ex. system of iniquity as the drink traffic, to all concerned that they have acted in good faith, and not in the interests of any denomination. We have tried to know no man in this temperance work from a denominational point of view. I will therefore take the responsibility_of calling a meeting of the committee at once for mutual consulta tion and explanations if requested to do so by those aggrieved. But as christian men let us not suspect one another without the most satisfactory
