YOUNG FOLKS CORNER.

What Dooms a Lie.

First, cometh the lie,
When the man would hold it,
So the heavy tongue would it,
Till they get it outside.

God's Creatures

One day a toy was tormenting a kitten,
His little sister, with her eyes full of tears,
Said to him: "O Philip! don't do that! it is God's kitten."

Prove it by Mother

While driving along the street one day
Last winter in my sleigh, a little boy six or seven years old asked me the usual question:
"Please may I ride?"

CONTRADICTIONS

What makes more noise than a pig in a sty? Two pigs.
What makes a pet dog wag his tail when he sees his master? Because he's got one to wag.

Let there be a rush of cottagers to the poll tonight and early. Set a good example.

Sayings of George Eliot.

No man can be wise on an empty stomach.

Nothing is so good as it seems before hand.

Trouble's easy borne when everybody gives it a lift for you.

Genius at first is little more than a great capacity for receiving discipline.

Every man's work pursued steadily tends to become an end in itself, and so to bridge over the loveless chasm of his life.

No story is the same to us after the lapse of time; or rather, we who read it are no longer the same interpreters.

There is a sort of human paste that when it comes near the fire of enthusiasm is only baked in harder shape.

There is no sorrow greater than to love what is great, and try to reach it, and yet to fail.

The rum business has had a terrific trial week here. Try the Scott Act for three years, and if it is no better than try whiskey again.

The Bible Circulation.

A careful estimate respecting the circulation of the Bible during the past century places the total at the enormous number of nearly 150,000,000 copies.

The British and Foreign Society is in advance of any other institution of the kind as regards the number of copies issued.

It was founded in 1801, and has circulated upward of 82,000,000 copies. The American Society, founded thirteen years later, has caused a circulation of 35,000,000. These organizations are far in advance of all others.

Next in respect of copies circulated are the German societies, which together have issued 8,500,000. Then comes the national society of Scotland, with nearly 4,768,000, then the Hibernian with 4,182,000, the Swiss with nearly 2,000,000, and the French with 1,000,000. The national society of Scotland has circulated its 4,768,000 copies since 1861, the year in which it was founded.

If you are not a reader yourself, vote for the Scott Act and prevent others from becoming readers.

A Text Aptly Turned.

Of a clergyman in Massachusetts whose pugilistic propensities caused him to be called behind his back "the fighting parson," it is told that one of his parishioners asked him to preach from Matthew v. 38: "Whosoever shall smite thee upon thy right cheek turn to him the other also." Certainly he would the next Sunday. And there was a great crowd to hear how one of his parishioners would treat such a subject. After giving out the text he said the meaning was very clear and the doctrine very satisfactory. "If a man smite thee on the right cheek, it may have been a mistake; it may have been in sudden passion and repented of at once. You should bear it and turn to him the other cheek in order to learn what his intention is. But if he smite you again, let him have it; for there is no Scripture against that!"

Down with the monster! Kill him with the ballot on Tuesday.

Yellow Oil is the best remedy for Pain, Lameness, Rheumatism, Gout, Deafness, Burns, Frost Bites, Stiff Joints, and all flesh wounds. Any medicine dealer can furnish it.

A MISTAKE.

It is a great and often fatal mistake to take repeated drastic purgatives for constipation of the bowels, they induce piles and cause debility of the bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters is a safe and perfect regulator of the bowels, increasing the torpid liver and all the secretions to a healthy action; setting on the kidneys, and renovating and toning the system in the most perfect manner.
