acton Pres Press

is published EVERY TAURSDAY MORNING

P. MOORE

Editor & Proprietor. AT THE PERE PRES PRINTING & PUBLISHING HOUSE.

Next Door to Methodist Church Mill Street.

TERMS :- The Frest Parss will be sont subscribers, postage paid, for $1.60 per annum in advance; $1.50 if not so paid. No paper discontinued till all arrears are page. except at the option of the publisher.

ADVERTISENCE RATES. — Casual advertisements, 8 cents per line for the first inser-tion, and 2 cents per line for each subsequent insertion cash. Professional Cards. 10 lines or less, $4.00 per annum. 1 square. 12-lines, $5.00 per annum, parable in 6 months from date of insert on. Any Special Notice, the object of which is to promote the pocuniary bonefit of any individual or company, to be considered an advertisement. The number of lines reckened by the space occupied, measured by a scale of olid Nomureil. .

CONTRACT RAYES. Last en umulon torrac in- column six months carter column six months! Pustier column three months Advertisements without specific direction will be inserted till facilitated charged accord toriy. Transitory advertisements must be Changes for cuntract advertisements must wise they will be left over till the following H. P. MOORE Educir & Proprietor

THIS PAPER may be found on file at Good I contracts may be made for it IN NEW YORK TOTICE -The Canada Advertising Agenauthorized to receive Advertisements for W. W. BUTCHER, Manager.

IT H. LOWRY, M. B., M. C. P. S . Graduate of Trinity College, Member of College of Physicians and Surgeons. Office and residence, at the head of Fredrick St., Acton. -

McGARVIN' M. D., M. C. P. N . Gradaste of Victoria University. GLOEGETUWY, CYTLEIO,

Will visit Acton on Tuesday and Friday, If his services are required during any other days of the week notice left at J. E. McGarvin's drug state will receive prompt

D. MATHESON, ATTORNEY-AT De new Solicitor in Chaircery, de. Office next door to Wallace's Hotel, Milion. L BENNETT, DENTIST, George

J. FISHER, V.S., GEORGETOWN . Out ; will risit Acton every Wednesday, and will attend to all calls pertaining to his profession. Orders left at McGarvin's Drug Store will receive prompt attention. Terms moderate. T. J. FISHER

R.W.KING.

Engineer, Iron Founder & Machinist, Machinery of every description made to order on the shortest notice and most reatonable terms. Repairing promptly at-

LISTER M. CLARK, BARRISTER, Quebec Street Guelph RELYCE OFFICE :- In Matthews Building BILL Street, Acton.

EF OFFICE OPEN EVERT FRIDAT. TE THE HEMSTREET,

Licensed Auctioneer. the Counties of Wellington and Halton, Orders left at the FEER PRESS Office, Acton. or at my residence in Acton, will be promptly attended to. Terms reasonable.

Meney to Louis. Also money to loan on the most favorable terms, and at the lowest rates of interest, in sums of $500 and upwards. . LA AST CLASS BARBER.

I have secured the services of Mr. Wm. Coon, a first-class barber, who will conduct my business for a few weeks and give every attention to the wants of customers: Kindly give him your patronage.

DATENTS FOR INVENTIONS EXPE pirrorser and properly secured in Canada, the United States, and Europe. Pa tent guaranteed or no charge. Send for printed instructions. Agency in operation

HENRY GRIST. Mechanical engineering, Solicitors of Ps. Advertising I did." tents, and draughtsman.

DOMINION HOTEL, ACTON, BOBT. fitted up in first class style with new furni-Commercial Travellers will find good Rooms. Special attention paid to the wants only paper juthe place. The list gives the of the travelling public. Bar supplied with population of every town and the circulation of the travelling public. Bar supplied with the best of Liquors and Cigars. Sood Stubiing and attentive Hostlers.

CASH FOR SKINS.

I am prepared to pay the highest cash preis for Hides, Calfebins, Descons, Lamb and Sheep Skins, delivered at my tannery. Lace Leather constantly on hand: JANES MOORE, ACTON

CARRIAGE PAINTING.

Having opened a Paint Shop in the premises next door to Nicklin's Bakery, I sin prepared to do carriage painting and sign writing of every description, and would respectfully solicit the patronage of the people of Acton and yiesnity. JAMES SCOTT.

DEOPERTY FOR SALE.

The most valuable and desirable property ever offered in Acton, consisting of dwelling, store, and several vacant los, situate en Main, Bower and Willow streets. To ! sold in parcels to suit parchisers. Termi

J. H. SMITH, Proprietor. Acton, March Sth. 1881.

The undersigned offers for saje the splendid stone dwelling on Main street near means of which every sufferer. No matter means of which every sufferer no means of which every sufferer. No matter means of which every sufferer no means of which every no means HOUSE & LOT FOR SALE. tion. Stable and shop on the promises. Hard and soft water wells. Title indisputable. Terms reasonable. Apply at PREE Press Office: Acton, or to ARCH, MCNAB

TERMS ... $1.00 in Advance.

The Newspaper .- "A Map of Busy Life, its Fluctuations and its Vast Concerns."

$1.50 if not so paid

Whole No. 322

ACTON, ONT THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 1881. Volume, VI. No. 43.

H. KITTREDGE,

BANKER, ACTON. · · ONTABIO.

GENERAL BANKING BUS NESS TRANSACTED.

MONEY LOANED ON APPROVED NOTES.

lotes Discounted and Interes allowed on Deposits.

The Bank of Montreal W. H. STOREY & SON.

AOTON, . . ONT., Glove Manufacturers,

The best description of GLOVES and MITTS in every variety of material and style are manufactured by us. - er, justly seknowledged the most perfect fastener in use. Patented in Canada, the United States and Great Britain. PUBLICAN OFFICES.

STOREY'S 'EUREKA" SPRING GLOVE FASTENER, PAT? We are also Patentees and Inventors of Storey's Euraka Spring Glove Faston.

Spruce Street, New York, U. S. A. Lime Grove, Birmingham, Ecg.

STORE.

AWSON BROS. Activant ricium that the recopened in the prentises opposite Dr. Mc-Flour and Feed Store, and will keep constantly on band a full stock of

-OF ALL KINDS, INCLUDING-

Family Flour, Buckwheat Flour, Graham Flour. Corn Meal; Oat Meal, Cracked

Wheat, Bran, Coarse Shorts, Fine Shorts, Chopped Peas, Chopped Oats. Mixed Chops, Oats & Peas. and all kinds of FEED usually kept in first-class store.

All goods delivered to any part of the village as soon as ordered.

A call is respectfully solicited. MANHATTAN FEED. For Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Pigs, and Poultry. Good for horses hav-ng Epizootic. LAWSON BROS Acton, Jan. 15, 1881-16.

TO ADVERTISERS. GEO. P. ROWELL & CO'S

Select List of Local Newspapers. An advertiser who spends upwards of $5000

z gear, and who invests less than $350 of it is this List, writes: " Your Select Local List paid me better last year than all the other

It is not a Co-operative List. It is not a Cheap List. It is an Honest List.

The estalogue states exactly what the papers are. When the name of the paper is printed in FULL FACE TYPE it is in every instance The rates charged for advertising are barely for single States ranges from $1 to $86 ... The for the same space and time are $2,980.14. The list includes $52 newspapers of which is; pre issued DAILY and 165 WEEKLY. They are located in 188 different cities and towns. of which 26 are State Capitals, 863 places of over 6.000 population, and 408 County Seats.

10 Spruce St., New York, GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN

Le the Loss of brated Easy on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 ota, . The calebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years enccessful practice, that alarming conevery youth and every man in the land. Address,

The Culverwell Medical Co.,

E. Nicklin & Son

In assuming control of the Excelsior Bakery would respectfully solicit a continu-ance of the patronage heretofore bestowed on the late firm.

They will always have on hand a good FRESH BREAD

BISCUITS OF ALL BINDS.

Buns, Cakes and Pastry

CONFECTIONERY PURE AND FRESH, ALWAYS ON HAND,

Bread delivered to any part of the Bread and Biscuits given in exchange Credit Oustomers. Credit customers will be charged Ic. per of more than cash customers, and all aconuts must be settled once a month.

OYSTER PARLOR. The Oyster Parlor will always be found with a good supply of Fresh Oysters, which will be served in any style.

Waltham

Watches IN 21, 8, 4, AND 5 OUNCE CASES. A New Stock Just Received.

B. SAVACE,

Watchmaker & Jowellor, Guelph THE MUTUAL LIFE

ASSOCIATION OF CANADA. HEAD OFFICE, HAMILTON, ONT

Covernment Deposit over $80,000.00 Policies on the "RESERVE FUND PLAN" sued by this Company only (and copyright) contain a Plain Statement of the amount of cash value of paid-up insurance the Policy- wages. holder will be entitled to receive, if discon tinuing the payment of premiums after 5. 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35 payments, &c.

H, P. MOORE, Agent, FREE PRESS, Office,

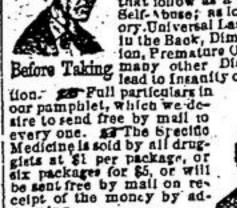

ACTON HARNESS & TRUNK DEPOT.

Parties requiring anything in Harnes or Trunks, to save money should CREECH

Acton. GRAY'S SPECIFIC MEDICINE.

The Great English Remedy An unfailing cure for Seminal Weakness, Spermatorrock, Impotency, and all Discuses

The Gray Medicine Co. After Taking Bold by J. E. McGarvin, Druggist, Acton.

edition of Dr. Culverwell's Cele. | wards is easily made without staying away playment. Those who engage at once will

An energetic honest man to open a branch but when he saw my face, he stood still and sympathy, and the sound of her sweep Because he follows a soot able was in like dat he didn't food office of the new Magnet Telephone Co. in and looked at me at though he had voice, or the touch of her cool hand, trade Here's one about a barber and you. this and adjoining counties; small cash seen a ghost. After a moment he had power to sootlie him to rest when this is the very last. Why is a barber "You bet I was, Sandy. My rid. ulverwell Medical Co., excellent opening for money making business, Address with stamp G. W. Foster, Ye. 125 and 127 Clark st., Chicago, Ill. Ye.

THE FREE PRESS

ACTON, THURSDAY, April 21, 1881. POBTRY.

Would You Like Me to Drive? Och, Katio's a rogae, it's thrue,

But her eyes, like the sky, are so blue, An' her dimples so swate, Au' her ankles so nate, She dezed, and she bothered me, too. Till one mornin' we wint for a ride Vhen, demure as a bride, by my side,

The darlint she sat, Wid the wickedest bat 'Neath purty girl's chin iver tied An' I said : " If I dared to do so, I'd let go uv the baste, an' I'd throw Both arms round your waist, Au' be stalin' a taste.

Ur them lips that are coaxin' me so,"

Then she blushed a more illigant red. As she said, widout raisin' her head, An' ber eyes lookin' down, 'Neath her lashes so brown "Would you like me to drive, Mister Ted?"

His Wife's Picture! A Exotoh From Life

the face. I would never have done so wife. desperate a thing, and we whuld still

'Tell me all about it, dear.' And Mrs. Smith dropped her thin, tired bent wearily all day. First, let me put up this endless hands may rest a little now, for I am ling, Uncle George .was very angry going to get ten dollars a week, and when my mother married an American will only be away from you four or five with such a plebian name. Of all low hours each day. I shall have time for names, Smith, he claims, stands at the shape we could appreciate best; at appointed a guardian for me, and kept beyond its reach. after paying the baker. Now, mother, that he is dying, I must go to him; dear, I am going to be extravagant just but I will return as soon as possible to once, and make an extra good cup of my little wife.'

my bonse every day at ten o'clock, and bright, cheerless way, with a strange read or write for me, as I may desire wistful look in his fading eyes. until three. I will pay you ten dollars. Oue morning, as she took her sea competent to my demand. that one of the girls had once pointed he met her startled glance.

out his beautiful residence to me. 'If the situation and terms are satis shall soon be, gone, and there will be factory, you will please accept one no one to truly mourn for me, unless week's wages in advance, and come to it be the little girl I have taken at morrow at ten."

'And he held out the money, which miss me, Nellie!' I was only too glad to take.'

Were you not a little basty, daughter ! asked the mother, anxiously, sionately. You know nothing of this man.'

starving, and that money was our only hands, and caressing it tenderly, said : salvation; besides, it all occurred so No doubt you have often wondered quickly that I hardly realized what had that I, a perfect stranger, should have happened until he was gone. Somehow given you employment without ques it seemed as though some overruling tion or reference. I can hardly tell Providence was guiding me in spite of why I did myself. Perhaps it was a my precious one from all harm."

And now, while Nellie and her when I returned to England, and when mother are enjoying their dinner, let I returned I found the house where us cast a hasty glance into Mrs. Smith's had left my dear one, described, and was 'Dear nother, it is the best thing past life. Her parents having died told that she was dead. after all, that could have happened; when she was quite young, her child. 'My uncle, at his death, left me it is so much better than anything I bood and girlhood were passed in the property, providing I would take his dered to hope for. I do believe that dreary monotony of her aunt's home; name, but, O, it has been a long, sad him. God knows best how to shape our fu a home which was grudgingly offered life without my durling. ture, and bring the most possible good her; where food, clothing, and educaout of our trials and disappoin ments. tion were dealt out to her, but where you, child, and my beart seems stowed upon her. out heeding the interruption, if I had Smith one of her aunt's summer board or sister, to question the right of the not fallen and sprained my ankle, I ers, became interested in the girl's will I have made in your behalf. would not have lost my place in the pretty face, and shy, sweet ways, and Somehow, since I have carried out my store; and if it hadn't been for losing | told her the old story, her yearning |intentions respecting you, I feel so gone all over the city, hunting another Her aunt being only too glad to have left undone; and I am ready to go." situation; and if I had not been to so the girl's support fall on other shoulmany places, and if employment had ders, consented to the naion, and one coughing, which lasted so long that not been refused me so many times, evening there was a quaint wedding at Nellie was frightened. After she had and-if starvation had not stared us in the little cottage, and she became a lain him back on the pillow, she saw be trying to keep soul and body to- piness for the girl whose life had been theto. gether on the poorly-paid health de- so lonely, until one evening her husstroying labor, -a poor scleswoman's band came to her with a troubled look this little ebony casket. Inside you was very sick, and had sent for him to buried with me. hands on the work over which she had come immediately, and, taking his

with fond words, saying ever so much sewing besides, and you very bottom. And then there are can just rest and grow strong once so many Smiths. One just has to more. I received my first week's wages | drop the whole lot, and forget he ever the cord that bound a large bandle, and dearest, as I was saying, Uncle George out on the table rolled several smaller | never forgave mother; but when both least a part of it-all there was left me well supplied with funds, and now

she had never seen him since. 'I know, mother,' broke in the Troubles had seemed to multiply smiling up to her. One moment, then Christian woman ? blithe young voice, 'but, you see, I after that. A contagious disease broke a quick, gasping cry escaped her lips, haven't forgotten that it is nearly noon, out in their town, and carried off whole and she fell into the arms of an at is." and we have had no breakfast yet. families. Her aunt fell a victim, but | tendant. The face of her dead friend's There now -giving the fire a vigorous she escaped and came to the city, hope lost wife was the face of her own poke that set the tea to steeping, filling ing to find employment by which to mother. the room with fragrant odor. 'You support herself. She had a small sum see, mother, I was just discouraged; I of money left, with which she purchashad been to every store, millinery and ed a little cottage, and her Nillie was dress-making establishment I knew of, born. Over the trials and troubles of and had received the same answer, the years that followed let us quickly week for your services, and will in by his couch, and reached for the book crease the amount should you prove she had been reading him, he laid thin, transparent hand on her own, Then be handed me his card, on saying, as he did so, I have only a few which I read, 'C. Hewitt, No. 42 more hours of life, and I wish to talk Loonard Street, and I remembered to you; and he smiled almost sadly as

'Yes,' he continued slowly. unaccountable interest in. You'wil

For answer she bowed her hend over her clasped hands, and wept p

He waited a few moments, the I knew this, mother, that we were taking one soft little palor in hi look on that pitiful young face turned 'God grant it may be so,' said her up to mine that day, so like a dear mother, tenderly; 'and may he keep face I used to love. I have carried the memory of that face all through life. I had only been married a few weeks

'I have taken a strenge interest 'He always does,' said her mother, never a word or look of love was be cling to you in my last hours. I have taken care of your future, dear, as Because, continued the girl, with- What wonder that when Claude there is neither wife or child, brother my place there, I would never have heart responded with a passionate love ! peaceful; as though there was nothing

He was interrupted by a fit of the lips move, but the words were so Then followed weeks of perfect hap low she had to bend over him to hear

When I am gone, Nellie, open in his handsome eyes, and told her that will find my wife's picture. You may his only relative, an uncle in England, look at it, if you choose, but I want it

' [ am so tired, Nellie. The river is young wife in his arms, he soothod her deep, and the water is cold. Let me take your hand, my little girl. Now burn. sewing, mother. These poor, dear I dare not take you with me, dar sing: 'I am trusting, Lord, in Thee.' He lay back on his pillow and closed his eyes, wearily, while the girl's low voice filled the room with pathetic darker than the last lot, but one shade sweetness. A strange calm stole o'er lighter than the first lot. his features as she sang, and the icy chill crept into the bands clasping hers |end. forever and ever. -a chill that sent a thrill of terror to in advance. See here—' and she cut bad a relative by the name. Well, her heart. She bent over him and spoke his name, O, so tenderly-but he parcels. 'I brought the money in a my parents died, leaving me alone, he learned to love. He had passed foreyer

Nellie opened the little casket and took | well known to both. Wesley advised out the picture he had treasured so him not to think of it. many years. Going to the window, And so he left her, with plenty of before placing it over the heart now so member of your church, isn't she !" But, Nellie, child, you haven't told 'money, but with an aching heart, as silent and cold, she opened the case "Yes," was the reply. and looked upon the sweet girlish face

Now For It !

Why is a barber like an agriculturist -Because he lives by the " rotation of crops." Good! Now what is the difference between an agriculturist and present to the untutored mind appears The roses bloomed once more on a barber !- One cuts his crops, the in many amusing examples. he thought my impudence unbearable, and more to the young girl for support to injury, but why is a tailer like a so I leff for bome."

De pigeens am flyin',

De ganders am sighin' An' de big Injun man am a

De mud's growin' deeper, De thunder's a commin', De chipmunik somes out of his log for lambe are a ballia

De spring calf am lawlin', ... An' de whitewashing season has opene Parils of Housekeeping Have you paid the milk bill! The coal is out The stove wants fixing. The night key is broken.

The front door bell wire is loose and the bell won't ring. Gut some cat's meat. That cat basn't had anything fresh for nearly two days. She won't est cooked

The poker is broken. Get some screw books for the cup-

We must buy a new clothes line. The mit is out. Mem : Mark's last butter was bad.

Must buy somewhere else. The iceman has " riz," and he leaves dreadfully small pieces at that Get some wire. Ditto oxalic acid.

Ditto bug powder. Ditto some nutmegs. Shall we buy a new parlor carpet? The old one's getting faded. Want a now tin stewpan.

The teapot leaks

Send for the furniture man and find out how much he asks for re-covering Buy a new market basket.

The old cat has four kittens. How many shall we drown? We suspect our hired girl of stealing the tea. That last half pound went giving us coffee which has been ground too long and has lost its flavor. Change Somebody's stolen the ash-box again.

Schnapps, the grocer, will persist in Pifth in three weeks. Get a paper of tacks. Mrs. Doe borrowed our tack hammer a month ago and has never return-The canary bird is sick.

Buy a ball of twine.

Ditto six small scrows. Ditto a halchet. The iceman forgot us to-day. The cold meat and milk are spoiled. The cat persists in carrying her kittens; all over the house, and won t stay. in the nursery soap box we fixed for-

Get some muphtha. The water pipe leaks again. More

Mrs. McGoolish complains to the andlord that the water we use on our. window-sill geraniums drips, to the detriment of her window panes be

Our girl has left in a huff. The coffee pot leaks. The last kindling's too damp. Won't

Out of matches. She wants some worsted three shades

Is life worth living ?

A Difference.

And so on and so on, time without

A devoted Methodist, it is said, asked John Wesley what he thought The next day, as he lay in his coffin, as to his marrying a certain woman

"And you think she is truly a

"Why," said the other, "she is

"Yes," said Wesley, "I believe she "Well, then why not marry her !" " Because," replied Wesley, "because my friend, the Lord can live with many people that you and I can't

The mystery that fractions always find a short road to fortune. Address H. HALLETTA Co., Portland, Maine,

No more help reeded, to all my in. pass. quiries, and, as I said, I was desperate. St., I saw a man being helped out of Nellie's cheek, and her step grew light curls them. Not so bad! Well, and A Galveston darker has returned his carriage; such a splendid carriage, as the weeks advanced. She liked her now, can you tell me why a tailor is from a business trip to the interior of mother. He was not a very old man employment, and, above all, she liked like an agriculturist !- Because he sews the State very much diagnated. but looked as though he was almost her employer. Many substantial evid. (sows) and rips (reaps)! Yues, "Didn't you receive any offers to gone with consumption. I went ences of his kindness had found their that may pass. Just try smother, pick cotton, asked a friend. straight up to him, hardly realizing way to the little rottage, and many an What is the difference between an "Yes, sich as dey was A man ofwhat I was doing, and asked him if he extra dollar had found ity way to agriculturist and a tailor !- The one ferdi me one-third ob de amount I some kind—I don't care, what. At As his face grew thinner and his other "cabbages" from his customers. I saw for myself dat when it was all first he looked very angry, as though step slower, he seemed to turn more O-h1 Not that I wish to add insult picked, it wouldn't amount to one third