

GRAND TRUNK TIME TABLE.

Trains Leave Action as follows—

GOING WEST.

| | |
|---------------|------------|
| Night Express | 1:05 a.m. |
| Toronto mail | 1:45 a.m. |
| Day Express | 5:15 p.m. |
| Express mixed | 6:45 p.m. |
| Galt mixed | 7:00 p.m. |
| GOING EAST. | |
| Night Express | 4:10 a.m. |
| Galt mixed | 4:45 a.m. |
| Day Express | 11:30 a.m. |
| Western mail | 4:40 p.m. |
| London mixed | 9:30 p.m. |

Try Geo. Hynds for Berlin
Wools, Mottos, Card Board.
Try Geo. Hynds for School Books, Etc.
Geo. Hynds for Flat Combs, Dressing
Combs, Hair Brushes, Purse Spectacles.
Geo. Hynds for new styles in Glassware, Crates, Knives, Sponges and Forks.
A large stock—a cheap stock. Give us a call. Orders now taken for the Revised Edition of the New Testament:

THE FREE PRESS.

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 21, 1881.

Local and Other Jottings.

—HEBRAIC!
—For the Scott Act.
—Right will prevail.
—WHERE are the Anti's.
—Lent closed on Saturday.
—The roads are drying up fast.
—The oyster season is nearly over.
—Now prune the trees in your orchard.
—Hot cross buns was the luxury of Good Friday.
—QUEEN'S Birthday, four weeks from next Tuesday.
—The Guelph policemen will soon appear in new suits.
—Don't allow your advertisement to run to seed. Change it.
—Yester little maple sugar or syrup has been made in this vicinity.
—THERE was no school on Friday and Monday—Easter holidays.
—FARMERS report full wheat to be in good condition, generally, in this vicinity.
—Mr. L. G. Matthews has opened his confectionery shop in the post office building.
—PAKET your fishing tackle. The speckled beauties will be ready for you by the 2nd May.

—It is estimated that — hundred dozen eggs were demolished in town on Easter Sunday.
—The interior of the post office has received a coat of paint, which greatly improves its appearance.
—Mrs. S. A. Scord has divided the centre store in the block on Mill street, and two fair sized shops are the result.
—EASTER SUNDAY.—Sermons appropriate to the occasion were preached in the various churches on Sunday morning.
—MESSRS. E. Nicklin & Son have been having their lake shop and ice cream parlor kiln-lined, painted, and otherwise renovated.

—THE excitement around the telegraph offices on Tuesday evening, to learn the current state of the polling on the Scott Act in this country, ran high.
ROUTE BILLS.—Owners of horses requiring route bills will find them to their advantage to call and see our office. We have a first-class lot to choose from.
—WESTWORTH.—The people of Wentworth County role on the Scott Act tomorrow. Success to them. May they follow the example of noble old Halton.
—This storekeepers are very indignant to-day, dreading the day of their duty counter with their plates. "Dust them art" a perfect nuisance. Just see—

TOWN HALL.—A meeting of the ratepayers will be held in the Council Chamber on Monday evening, 2nd May, to consider the propriety of erecting a town hall in this municipality.
—IT is our painful duty this week to chronicle the death of Maid, only child of Mr. A. Scord, of this village. Mr. Scord and wife have the sympathy of the community in their affliction.

ROADS AND BRIDGES.—The township councillors should at this season of the year examine the roads and bridges, and find where repairs are required. They could discover places where a few dollars could be profitably expended.
—JOURNALISTIC.—Mr. S. P. Panton, who has been connected with the Milton Champion for the past five years, severed his connection with that journal last week. Mr. Matheson, lawyer, has resumed, after a lapse of several years, his position as editor of the Champion. Mr. Panton has gone to the North West.
—DISTASTROUS.—An exchange says— "With seven months of winter, destructive floods, the most terrible earthquakes of the century, the breaking out of the plague, the diseases of large and fifty cities, the disturbances in Ireland, the assassination of the Czar and the unsuccesses and discontent in Germany, the year 1881 has thus far kept up its reputation as a singularly disastrous and portentous year. Mother Nature must feel as happy as Venus is after a predicted blizzard or a prophetic breeze."

INCONSISTENT.—In reference to the Scott Act in Hamilton the Spectator says— "Yesterday was a day of total prohibition, enforced by heavy penalties, and aided by hundreds of spies. Yet many people were drunk last night," while the Mail in its report says—"The bars were closed therefore and the closing was observed with great strictness, for not a drunken man was noticeable in the city throughout the whole day, notwithstanding the prevalent enthusiasm." Which of the above papers tries to put the matter in an atrocious light?

SEEDS, SEEDS, Garden, Field,

GARDENERS are busy.

FINE spring weather.

The trees are budding.

The streets are very busy.

Eggs are down to ten cents.

Ploughing has commenced.

READ J. D. Williamson & Co.'s new ad.

How did you enjoy the holiday—

Good Friday?

Sparrows birds are appearing in large numbers.

We had total prohibition in our county on Tuesday.

There should now be a general cleaning up of premises.

The cities are clamoring for the gentle sprout east."

The "ethereal mildness" of spring seems to have come around.

Mother earth is being rapidly covered with a mantle of green.

The farmers should do their spring trading now—before the spring work commences.

Rev. L. Cameron preached a ten minute sermon at Limehouse on Sunday afternoon.

WARM showers and sunny days are now badly needed to hasten farming operations.

We would be pleased to have the patrons of the Fazza Passes from the surrounding country, when in town, pay us a visit.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.—Appoint your committee to prepare for the celebration on the 31st of May. Don't let Action be behind former years.

TORONTO Truth has donned a new dress, and now presents a most creditable appearance. We wish our omen all the success it deserves.

AFTER such a long and steady winter, it must be a source of consolation to every living creature, to see and feel the approach of Spring.

CREDITABLE.—A pleasing circumstance is the fact that nearly every young man in town, who had a vote, polled it in favor of the Scott Act.

REV. T. L. Wilkinson will (D.V.) preach a sermon to the members of Action Lodge, LO.O.P., in the Methodist church, on Sunday evening next.

KING Dodds addressed a meeting in the drill shed on Friday evening, and from the results of the election, his speech indicated, if any, effect against the act.

BENEFIT.—Even the wholesale manufacturers recognize the value of the Fazza Pass as an advertising medium. The lecture was a most able and instructive one, and many points were brought out in favor of the act, at issue, and the lecture received the undivided attention of all present.

REV. LACHLAN CAMERON formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Church here, now of Thameford, preached a temperance sermon in the Methodist Church, on Sunday evening.

As no service was held in the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, the attendance was very large and numbered

about 600. The Rev. gentleman delivered one of the best and most earnest

temperance discourses our people have ever had the privilege of listening to, and it doubtless had good effect.

REV. J. SMITH, CAMERON AND HALL.

On Monday evening a well attended

meeting was held in the Presbyterian

Church here, now of Thameford, and

attended a temperance sermon in the

Methodist Church, on Sunday evening.

As no service was held in the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, the attendance was very large and numbered

about 600. The Rev. gentleman delivered one of the best and most earnest

temperance discourses our people have

ever had the privilege of listening to, and it doubtless had good effect.

REV. J. SMITH, CAMERON AND HALL.

On Monday evening a well attended

meeting was held in the Presbyterian

Church here, now of Thameford, and

attended a temperance sermon in the

Methodist Church, on Sunday evening.

As no service was held in the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, the attendance was very large and numbered

about 600. The Rev. gentleman delivered one of the best and most earnest

temperance discourses our people have

ever had the privilege of listening to, and it doubtless had good effect.

REV. J. SMITH, CAMERON AND HALL.

On Monday evening a well attended

meeting was held in the Presbyterian

Church here, now of Thameford, and

attended a temperance sermon in the

Methodist Church, on Sunday evening.

As no service was held in the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, the attendance was very large and numbered

about 600. The Rev. gentleman delivered one of the best and most earnest

temperance discourses our people have

ever had the privilege of listening to, and it doubtless had good effect.

REV. J. SMITH, CAMERON AND HALL.

On Monday evening a well attended

meeting was held in the Presbyterian

Church here, now of Thameford, and

attended a temperance sermon in the

Methodist Church, on Sunday evening.

As no service was held in the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, the attendance was very large and numbered

about 600. The Rev. gentleman delivered one of the best and most earnest

temperance discourses our people have

ever had the privilege of listening to, and it doubtless had good effect.

REV. J. SMITH, CAMERON AND HALL.

On Monday evening a well attended

meeting was held in the Presbyterian

Church here, now of Thameford, and

attended a temperance sermon in the

Methodist Church, on Sunday evening.

As no service was held in the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, the attendance was very large and numbered

about 600. The Rev. gentleman delivered one of the best and most earnest

temperance discourses our people have

ever had the privilege of listening to, and it doubtless had good effect.

REV. J. SMITH, CAMERON AND HALL.

On Monday evening a well attended

meeting was held in the Presbyterian

Church here, now of Thameford, and

attended a temperance sermon in the

Methodist Church, on Sunday evening.

As no service was held in the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, the attendance was very large and numbered

about 600. The Rev. gentleman delivered one of the best and most earnest

temperance discourses our people have

ever had the privilege of listening to, and it doubtless had good effect.

REV. J. SMITH, CAMERON AND HALL.

On Monday evening a well attended

meeting was held in the Presbyterian

Church here, now of Thameford, and

attended a temperance sermon in the

Methodist Church, on Sunday evening.

As no service was held in the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, the attendance was very large and numbered

about 600. The Rev. gentleman delivered one of the best and most earnest

temperance discourses our people have

ever had the privilege of listening to, and it doubtless had good effect.

REV. J. SMITH, CAM