THE FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY MORNING, May 5, 1881.

Local and Other Notings.

—CEDAR posts—see adv.
—Now catch trout if you can.
—TREE planting is now popular.
—ONE third of 1881 gone already.
—This is Listowel's "Arbor Day."
—The lemonade season less commenced.
—CARD of thanks—see advertising column.
—THE FREE PRESS is only one dot less a year.
—THE street lamps will be erected in a few days.
—REMOVE the dead limbs and prune your shade trees.
—NEARLY every person in town sports a spring suit.
—RAKE over your lawns and get your flower beds in trim.
—THE first thunder shower of the season hasn't arrived yet.
—Mist in May and heat in June make the harvest right soon.
—OUR street watering cart will soon need to make its appearance.
—ESQUIMAUX township council meets in Stewarttown on Saturday, 14th inst.
—SPRING bonnets, summing up pretty happy faces, appeared on Sunday.
—THERE are too many nails tearing their heads above the level of the sidewalk.
—HAVE you been fishing yet, and how many did you "ketch"? It is common talk.
—GUELPH has 10,025 inhabitants, and the value of its taxable property is $2,847,000.
—A large number of new advertisements appear in this issue. It will pay you to peruse them.
—The Berlin News man has another libel suit on hand. This makes the fourth within two years—Mercury.
—The last quarterly meeting of the Conference year will be held in the Methodist church, on Sunday next.
—AND now the hens and chickens cause the man who has dug his garden to utter words that he should not.
—We are informed that the 20th Battalion Halton Rifles will go into camp at Niagara about the 15th of June.
—THE hotel keepers took out licenses for another year on Thursday last. When they expired the Scott Act comes in force.
—Messrs Hughes & Griffin have just opened a large lot of new goods, which they promise to sell at very reasonable prices.
—It is gratifying to learn that the full wheat promises well in this neighborhood. A shower of rain is badly needed now though.
—Parents and teachers are especially interested to instruct their children not to bear any part in the killing and robbery of the innocent birds.
—Be sure to wear your shoes in the house just now. The industrious housewife has carpet tracks strewn around with rock-leser profusion.—Ez.
—Now is the time to plant out shade trees in the village. A few hours spent in this work by each ratepayer would greatly benefit the village. Don't neglect it.
—THE Village Council offers a premium of fifteen dollars for a pair of Foxes Hall, not to exceed in cost, $4000 to $5000. The plan must be presented by the 17th inst.
—We suggest that hotel keepers start some other business, and find out how other people have to make a living. A man who makes a good hotel-keeper will make a success in some other business.—Lz.
—On Friday evening Misses Marcella and Zee Grinnell, of our village, took part in the "Wagonettes" of the Georgetown Fine Ribbon Club, and received great praise for the excellent manner in which they performed their parts.
—The frogs are piping cheerily in the ponds and swamp pools. How would it do to keep one in a cage?—Barrie Advertiser. Try it, brother, and then publish your experience for the benefit of others whose curiosity is high.
—As a punishment to the council for investing in such fire apparatus, each member should be condemned to work the machine while the indignant ratepayers would stand around and shout, "Down breaks!"—Milton News.
—THE fields now display a beautiful green, and everything seems to rejoice at the return of the spring. The roads are very dry and dusty at present, a shower of rain is much wanted, which would comply with the wishes of citizens as well as country people.
—ANYTHING CHANGE—During the past week negotiations have been completed by which Messrs. A. Seccord & Co., of the Post Office Store, have disposed of their stock to Mr. J. Pearson, of Toronto. They are now engaged in taking stock, and Mr. Pearson expects to open in a few days. He will increase the stock of hardware and otherwise improve the stock. This is the fourth change in the management of the post office store within a year, but we trust that Mr. Pearson will become a permanent and successful merchant. Mr. Pearson will occupy the residence of Dr. McGarvin on the corner of Hill and Frederick streets.

SEEDS, SEEDS,

—Now go trout fishing.
—BRAMPTON Council are talking of putting in waterworks.
—ALREADY the venturesome youth begin to pine for his lusting pastime.
—NOTE the list of improvements, in another column, to the streets and sidewalks, which the commissioners intend to make this season.
—REVENUE RETURNS.—The Customs duties collected at Guelph for the past month were $2,278.74; for the same month last year, $2,890.61; increase, $611.87.
—CREDITABLE.—There is only one unoccupied dwelling house in Acton, and it is not in good condition, or it would soon have a tenant, as empty houses are greatly in demand.
—PROSPECTING.—Dr. Foster, of Berlin, visited our village during the week, with a view to establishing a practice here. We have not heard whether he has decided to come or not.
—SHADE TREES.—Messrs. C. T. Hill and Hugh Cameron planted a number of fine young maples opposite their premises this week. Other citizens should follow their example.
—CITY GAZETTE.—Mr. A. W. Green is opening his stock of Groceries, etc., in the premises formerly occupied by Mrs. S. A. Seccord, and expects to be ready to commence business on Saturday.
—COUNTY REGISTRAR.—Mr. E. Barclay, Georgetown, has received the appointment of Registrar for this county, in place of Mr. Thos. Racey, deceased. Mr. Barclay entered upon the duties of his office this week.
—PROGRESS.—Mr. Chas. Kneeb, of the Corvian Tannery, informs us that he is entirely unable to supply the demand for their manufacture of leather. He has just added two or three new and experienced hands to his staff.
—SCOTT ACT RE-UNION.—The Scottish of Oakville celebrated the success of the Scott Act in Hallow, by a largely attended meeting in the Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening, 29th ult. The meeting was a grand success.
—SCOTT ACT IN LAMBTON.—The Scott Act came into force in Lambton on Monday, 2nd. We are pleased to see our excellent contemporary, the Watford Advocate, take a station on the side of right, and keep it through "thick and thin."
