THE FREE PRESS.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 27, 1881.

—Goods arriving this week at Geo. Hynds Jewellery and Fancy Goods Store, Acton, Ont. A large stock of Rubber Balls, White Awake, Sealine and Lakeside Library. A splendid new lot of Stationery. A large stock of Fans in. Call and see them.

News and Jottings about Home.

—A LIGHT above felt here yesterday.

—EXCELLENT growing weather continues.

—Mr. Wm. Steel is giving his house a coat of paint.

—Mr. J. E. McGarvin is remodeling his shop front.

—REMEMBER the town hall meeting next Monday evening.

—The temperature was 95 degrees in the shade yesterday and Tuesday.

—The County Court House will shortly be surrounded by a handsome iron fence.

—AN unusual number of drunken men and boys were to be seen in Rockwood on Queen's Birthday.

—The street lamps rendered valuable assistance to pedestrians during the dark evenings of the past week.

—Mr. J. M. Speight has his engine running again, and the whistle departs the hours of commencing and concluding work.

—MORTALITY AMONG HORSES.—A man near Hill street has had three horses with a month past, from typhoid pleura pneumonia.—New.

—OUR BAND.—Acton Brass Band provided the music at Rockwood, on the 24th, and they deserve credit for the splendid music provided.

—EDUCATIONAL.—The anniversary of the Methodist church last Sunday, by Rev. T. L. Wilkinson, pastor.

—DISREPUTABLE.—A number of drunk young men, hailing from Etanosa, behaved themselves most disgracefully on Mill street on Queen's Birthday forenoon.

—FROM the general assembly providing for the 1881-82 session, it is noted that the number of bills introduced were equal to the number of resolutions.

—NOTWITHSTANDING the hard winter, the insect pests of the garden are alive, and at work fully earlier than last year. If some exterminators are not promptly applied, red currants and goose berries will be very scarce.

—THE POYND.—Five head of cattle were impounded last Thursday. The animals strayed into the village from the country. The constable has his eagle eye open, and will impound any animal that trespasses on our clean and tidy streets, irrespective of the owner.

—THE SCOT Act is working like a charm so far in Thedford. There has been only one man seen drunk in the village since the first of May, and he came from the neighborhood of Acton. It is supposed he got his "ferry roll" at a hotel east of that village.—London paper.

—The editor of the Oakville Express is shortly to be married. The time now spent in the evenings wearing out leather on the interior sidewalks of the town, or in strolling with his adored one on the bank overlooking the lake, is not to be spent in vain.—New.

—SERIOUS LOSS.—Mr. Wm. McCraney's fire mill at E. Hill was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last. The loss sustained by this proprietor is in the neighborhood of $2,000. Partially covered by insurance. A new mill will take the place of the old one in three weeks.—Standard.

—FRENCH.—Mr. Wm. Sawyer, G.W.R. Agent, Guelph, was in town on Saturday.

—Mr. James G. Hill, of Monroe, Mich., is visiting here, Acton friends.

—Mr. Donald Kennedy, of St. Mary's, was in Acton on Queen's Birthday.

—Mr. W. C. Robinson, teacher, has removed his family from Streetsville.

—Mr. J. E. McGarvin and wife spent the 24th with friends in Orangeville.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark spent several days this week with friends here.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott, of Toronto, visited their Acton friends this week.

—Mr. Wilber Adams, of Brampton, spent Queen's Birthday with his friends here.

—Mr. W. H. McDonald, of Trinity Medical College, Toronto, spent Sunday with his friends here.

—Mrs. J. McBeth and Miss Maria Waters, who have been living in Wernersville, Pa., for some time past, are visiting their friends in Acton.

—Mr. J. C. Platt, G.T.R. Despatcher, Toronto, and Col. Gracey, Weston, came up to Acton to catch trout on Saturday.—Their catch was exceedingly small.

—Mr. Charles Boomer, nephew of Mr. John Speight, and cousin of the wife of the editor of this journal, was among the victims of the London disaster on Tuesday.

—As well as receiving the degree of B.A., Mr. C. W. Lashy was awarded the silver medal in the Honor List at the recent examinations at Victoria University.

—REVENUE Smith is the happy man. It's a girl.

—Did you spend your holiday pleasantly?

—The mosquitoes are very savage these evenings.

—The spring crops are progressing very favorably.

—The most prosperous man is he who advertises his business.

—New subscribers continue to pour in, much to our satisfaction.

—COME to the FREE PRESS office for wrapping paper. Four cents per dozen.

—A LARGE number of agents of all kinds have visited our village during the week.

—WHAT'S wrong with our Nassagaweya correspondent. Wake up, Ned, and send us a budget of news.

—ASSIGNED.—John Chapman, late of the Montreal House, Acton, now of London, has assigned his assets to his creditors.

—REVISION.—The Court of Revision on the year's assessment will be held in the Council Chamber on Tuesday evening next.

—ACTON Company of Volunteers met at the Hill Street on Saturday evening. Captain Shaw put the men through their paces.

—ICE cream and soda water has been taken by a good many of the citizens in pretty liberal quantities, during the weather of the past week.

—FORCE PUMP.—Mr. W. H. Storey has placed a splendid force pump on his lawn. It is capable of throwing water to any part of his residence.

—DOG FIGHT.—A dog fight on Mill street Saturday night, had the usual attraction. A couple of sensible spectators separated the canines as soon as possible.

—THE latest excitement was a man going down Mill street yesterday, drawing a buggy with a horse tied behind. The cart was truly before the horse that time.

—One of our councillors wants the Acton to give him a rest about the fire engine business. He'll likely see a little farther into the middle first. It is all glory to be a councillor, isn't it?—New.

—HELMLOCK BARK.—A large quantity of helmlock bark is required here this season. Messrs. J. T. & J. A. Brown advertise for 2000 cords, and Mr. Chas. Kees wants over a thousand. Good prices are offered.

—We claim that Acton is at present the cleanest and prettiest little town in the county. The streets are in good condition, and since the lavatories have appeared on the street the place has the appearance of a fine grove.

—THREE silver medals were awarded on Tuesday at Milton, for 1st, 100 yard race, championship of the County of Hallow; 2nd, 100 yards amateur championship of Hallow; 3rd, 100 yards boys' championship of Hallow.

—ALMOST DROWNED.—On Saturday last, Tommy, six-year-old son of Rev. T. L. Wilkinson, fell into the pond at the rear of his father's residence, and might have been drowned had not our chief police officer, who happened to be in the vicinity, seen his sister who came to his rescue.

—THE Watford Advertiser's (London, Ont.) correspondent says: "The Scott Act has made all peace and quietness, since its inauguration, so much so that our chief police officer feels that his usefulness is about gone."

—A CONNECTICUT contemporary prints a rather elaborate article to show that a couple who have been married fifty years are very happy. But what of that? We have many a couple in this county who have been married only a few weeks or months and are supremely happy now.

—COMMITTED.—A pedlar named Sibbald arrived in Milton last Tuesday evening and put up at one of the hotels, where it soon became apparent that he was under the influence of delirium tremens. Next day, at his own request, he was committed to jail for twenty days.—Champion.

—SOCIAL AT CREWSON'S CORNERS.—On the evening of the Queen's Birthday an ice cream social was held by the young people of the Methodist church, Crewson's Corners, to raise money for erecting a shed at the church there. The entertainment was very well attended and the programme was enjoyed by all. About $16 was raised.

—THE Revised New Testament arrived in town on Saturday evening. Mr. J. E. McGarvin being the first to receive it in town. A large number of copies were distributed during the evening, and the sale continues unabated. Messrs. J. E. McGarvin and Geo. Hynds both have good assortments.

—ICE CREAM SOCIAL.—A social under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society, will be held in the basement of the Methodist church, on Friday evening, for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of music books for the choir. Refreshments, including ice cream will be supplied. The programme will consist of speeches, music, readings, recitations, etc. Admission 10 cents. All are invited.

—ACCIDENT.—On Sunday evening Mr. P. Maszals was riding down Main street, on horseback, and when on the hill opposite Mr. Samuel McLam's, the horse got frightened at something, and sprang to one side of the road into the ditch, throwing his rider, whose foot caught in the stirrup. Mr. James McLam, who was near at the time, hurried to the scene of the accident and assisted Mr. Maszals from his perilous position.

—RUNAWAY.—Yesterday morning Mr. W. E. Adams was engaged in his wood yard, near the G. T. R. depot, with a horse attached to a light spring wagon, when it became frightened at a passing engine. It immediately made for Mill street and ran against some obstacle near the Rossin House, which overturned the wagon and let the horse free. The animal ran down the street, but was stopped by two or three citizens at Elgin street. The wagon was pretty badly smashed up, but the horse escaped injury.
