THE WOOL MARKET.

The demand for common Canadian of the market was very low, being two Markham :or three conts less than was juid at the opening of the market last year. The rutepayers of Markham village decided great demand of late is for a finer grade of wool, and if the farmers would only raise Leicester and Southdown sheep the wool would command from fire to ten cents per lb. more than the common wool, which most of them now produce. It would be well for farmers to consider this fact. Those who have discarded the coarse breeds and com be dedicated about the first night of menced taising a finer class of sheep, our Fall Fair. Fogvism is being scotch find it more profitable. At present the ed, and the progress of the village is dealers here find it very difficult to onward and apraid. There is plenty dispose of the common grades of wool of room for it." at anything like paring prices.

The Scott Act in Lambton

The Scott Act, which came into force in the county of Lambton a month ago, has been set aside by the judges in Toronto by the merest technicality, viz :- On the ground that the polling took place on the same day as nomina tions for the Local Legislature. This proval. shows how necessary it is for the promoters of prohibition to take every possible precution sgainst learing weak spets in their proceedings that the enemy can quibble at. However, May. the triumph of the liquor interest will be short lived, as the people of Lumbton are strong in the determination to keep their neighborhood soler, and will immediately proceed with another

Alcoholism is, according to the keep er of the New York Morgue, the cause of the death, directly or indirectly, of four-fifths of the five thousand persons whose bodies annually find their way into that gheatly place.
